THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

I am writing a second column to you on the eve of my pilgrimage to Fatima and Lourdes. I am back now as you read this but I won't be able to share with you my experience until it actually happens. So when I get my photos developed and have actually experienced the pilgrimage I'll be eager to share everything with you.

I remember an incident about 15 years ago while I was pastor of St. Domitilla parish in Hillside, Illinois when the parish was planning an outdoor Memorial Day Mass and picnic. I had to write two columns because the bulletin company needed them ahead of time due to a shortened work week. So, I sat down and wrote the second column for the Sunday after the Mass and picnic. It actually hadn't happened yet.

I was sure that the outdoor Mass would be well attended and the choir beautiful. I was confident that the picnic would be fun for the children and adults. We had a barbecue planned, a beer garden, and games for the kids and a surprise visit by the local fire department and Cook County Forest Preserves Mounted Police. The fire department was scheduled to hose down the kids and the Mounted Police were to show off their well-groomed and trained horses.

So I wrote in my "ahead of time" pastor's column how wonderful the Mass and picnic was. How much fun everyone had and how good the barbecue was. I was so confident that this would happen that I just went on and on believing that everyone would know how appreciative and grateful I was for their participation.

The only problem was the Mass and picnic never happened. It had to be cancelled because of rain. My "ahead of time" bulletin was already printed. It was too late to change my "waxing" on about how wonderful everything was. It certainly caused some confusion in the minds of the parishioners who were reading it. If the rain didn't cause the cancellation, everything I wrote ahead of time would have been pretty much true. Everyone would have agreed it was a wonderful experience.

So as I write this "ahead of time" bulletin, I won't write about what I believe will happen until it actually happens. When I write to you next Sunday, it will be the facts.

We are rapidly approaching the Presidential election. No doubt we all have concerns about the many issues that face our American way of life. For the past few weeks I have encouraged you to visit the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' website: www.FaithfulCitizenship.org. There you will find resources on how to be faithful to Catholic teaching and American citizenship. I have also shared with you excerpts from the Bishops' document: Faithful Citizenship: the Challenge of Forming Consciences. Here is the third in a six part series: "The dignity of the human person is the foundation of a moral vision for society. Direct attacks on innocent persons are never morally acceptable, at any stage or in any condition. Catholic teaching about the dignity of life calls us to oppose torture, unjust war, and the use of the death penalty; to prevent genocide and attacks against noncombatants; to oppose racism; and to overcome poverty and suffering. Nations are called to protect the right to life by seeking effective ways to combat evil and terror without resorting to armed conflicts except as a last resort, always seeking first to resolve disputes by peaceful means. We revere the lives of all human beings as children of God."

Christine Pohl, professor of Christian ethics at Asbury Theological Seminary, has been studying healthy parishes for her new book, Living into Community: Cultivating Practices That Sustain Us. Pohl says that parishes that grow and flourish as communities share four "practices: 1) Expressing gratitude. Grateful congregations pay attention to the goodness, beauty and grace around them and readily find opportunities to express gratitude and celebrate the gifts we have received; 2) Keeping promises. Healthy congregations understand the pain of betrayal and realize the hurt everyone experiences when institutions and organizations do not live up to their promises. Such congregations respond to church failures immediately with patience, confession, correction, forgiveness, and accountability; 3) Living truthfully. Effective communities operate as transparently as possible. Churches take on hard issues honestly and directly, with clarity and focus; 4) Offering hospitality. The practice of hospitality is important not only for strangers and other vulnerable persons; it is also crucial for the life of the congregation itself. Hospitality is a means of grace for hosts as well as guests....often the best gift we can give another person is our time and attention.

Our Boy's Football and Girl's Volleyball season is in full swing. This Mon., Oct. 22nd our Girl's "A" volleyball team plays St. Francis of Assisi in the Parish Center at 3:45pm. The Girl's "B" team plays Thurs., Oct. 25th against St. Joseph, Placentia at 3:45pm. The "A" and "B" Boy's Football teams have no home games. The Boy's "A" team plays in two tournaments at Servite on Oct. 21 & 22 and at St. Angela on Oct. 22nd at 3:45pm. The Boy's "B" team plays against Our Lady of Guadalupe at OLG on Mon., Oct. 22nd at 3:45pm and against St. Angela at St. Angela on Thurs., Oct. 25th at 3:45pm. Everyone is welcome to cheer our athletes on to victory. My gratitude to our coaches and team parents (see page six for a listing of names). After school sports rely on hard working, dedicated coaches and parents volunteering their time and talents to our children. You are greatly appreciated.

The Diocese of Orange Office of the Bishop has informed us that during the coming months, every parishioner will be given an opportunity to learn more about the exciting plans for the future of our Diocese of Orange. We have much to look forward to as these plans include the beginning of the Year of Faith, the installation of our fourth Bishop of Orange in December, and the launch of our first Diocesan-wide capital campaign in 2013.

To help us prepare and improve communications in all 62 parishes and centers, the Diocese of Orange is working in partnership with every pastor and the Orange Catholic Foundation to compile a mailing list of all Orange County parishioners. The mailing list will be used to inform parishioners about the For Christ Forever Capital Campaign, the Year of Faith activities planned in 2013, and other important matters in our Diocese. The mailing list will be used specifically for communications sent on behalf of the Bishop of Orange by the Orange Catholic Foundation and/or the Bishop's office and will not be shared or used for other purposes. Please be advised that address information from our parish register will be sent to the Diocese of Orange on October 30, 2012. Parishioners who prefer to have their address withheld from the Diocesan mailing list should notify our Parish Office by October 29, 2012. The parish number is (714)-879-1965.

The very popular Public Television motivational speaker and psychologist, Dr. Wayne Dyer gave his viewers this advice: "If you want to be a voice for peace in the world, begin by making peace a permanent condition of your own life. Your higher self knows the way, and all it takes is awareness and a determination to listen to the calling of love, forgiveness, and kindness as you move through your days."

In the Joy of Our Faith,
Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M.,
Pastor
