THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*“If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, ‘I do not need you,’ nor again the head to the feet, ‘I do not need you.’
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ’s body, and individually parts of it.”* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Well, it's over! What a weekend! What a festival! It was hot and sweaty. Some discomfort but no complaints. The booths opened on time and everyone took their turn. Lots of laughter and a good amount of hustle and bustle. Money exchanged and goods delivered with a smile. Wide eyes of patrons enjoying the look, smell and taste of hardy, not finger food. Booth captains, committee members, clean-up crew, drink dispensers, ticket sellers, capital campaign chairmen, raffle personnel, musicians, carnival workers, book vendors, "Sneakerz" the clown, face painters and of course patrons from Fullerton and environs pleased to be here. Our little ones were in high spirits and tickled pink for having survived the Zipper and Shock Drop. Only sporadic stomach upsets and occasional "sick as a dog" throw up.

There were those who came to work early and stayed late. Some were beyond the usual age to lift heavy boxes, cooking pots and pans and food items. Some came directly from work, had little sleep, needed to find time for commitments but stayed the course no matter what. There were limpers, jumpers, sitters, standees, and a few sleepers. But most of all there were com-mitters, sacrificers, zealots, and lovers.

Well, it's over for another year. All is well. Now for the wrap-up, financial report, and plans for next year. Thank you St. Juliana! You did well!!

This Friday, October 11, 2012 we begin the Year of Faith commemorating the 50th anniversary of the opening of the Second Vatican Council and the 20th anniversary of the publication of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. The year closes on November 24, 2013, the feast of Christ the King. Enclosed with this bulletin is a brochure designed to help us understand this Year and ways to celebrate it. Some suggestions you will read include the following: 1) Memorize the Nicene Creed (or least parts of it); 2) Take time for daily prayer; 3) Worship wholeheartedly at Mass; 4) Study the teachings of the Church; 5) Serve the poor and marginalized. I would be very pleased if ALL parish organizations plan some way of honoring this Year of Faith. I ask those in leadership to begin discussing how best to observe the five-fold suggestions printed in the brochure or adapt them to their specific ministry. Plans are in place to represent the Catholicism Series previously shown during Lent.

St. Jerome who lived from 342-420 is best known for his revision of the Latin texts of books of the Bible. After completing this task, he translated the Bible into Latin. His work, known as the Vulgate was adopted by the Church as the official version. As we celebrate this Year of Faith the words of St. Jerome help us to appreciate the great love he had for the Bible and his desire that we all know and live the Word of God. St. Jerome writes: Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ. There are very many hidden meanings in the Bible. It is our part to seek, God's to grant what we ask, ours to make a beginning, God's to bring it to completion, ours to offer what we can, God's to finish what we cannot. So read often, and study as much as you can. Let sleep overtake you with a book in your hand. When your head nods, may it sink on a holy page. Our delight shall be to meditate on the way of the Lord day and night, to knock at his door when it is not open, to receive the bread of the Trinity, and, with our Lord going before us, to walk on the sacred journey to God.

The month of October is the Month of the Rosary. Every morning, following the 8am Mass a faithful group of parishioners meet together in the chapel to recite the Rosary. Their weekly prayers help keep their faith alive and bless the parish with grace, compassion, peace, and forbearance. Why not join them. Come to Mass and stay for the Rosary. From time to time I plan on leading the Rosary following Mass for those who can stay.

Next Sunday we will celebrate Respect Life Sunday at all the Masses. In place of the homily I have asked Keith Cotton from Birth Choice Clinics to speak at all the Masses. Keith was born and raised in San Diego and adopted as a baby. He is the father of three wonderful children: 20 year old daughter and an 18 year old son, both in college in Denver, Colorado and a 15 year daughter in the 10th grade of high school. Keith attended college in Minnesota and worked in law enforcement with the Department of Corrections. He became a Human Rights Enforcement Officer for the Minnesota Department of Human Rights division, working with the State's Attorney General's office. He met his biological parents and made the decision to move back to California to have a relationship with his biological father and siblings. Keith has been involved with Birth Choice since November 1, 2010.

Our Knights of Columbus have some interesting projects before us. Why not support our Knights as they are so generous both to the parish and to the charitable programs they sponsor. The Knights are always looking for new members. The bulletin has more information.

The new processional candles have arrived and will be used by our altar servers as soon as they are trained on how to carry them, where to place them and how to take care of them. At present one donor has donated $100. The candles are brass, pleasing to look at, and fully in keeping with the dignity of the Mass. The cost for two candles is $450 each.

During the weeks preceding the general presidential election I would like to share with you excerpts from the Catholic Bishops' document: Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship. The Bishops write: Building a world of respect for human life and dignity, where justice and peace prevail, requires more than just political commitment. Individuals, families, businesses, community organizations, and governments all have a role to play. Participation in political life in light of fundamental moral principles is an essential duty for every Catholic and all people of good will.

As Catholics, we are led to raise questions for political life other than "Are you better off than you were two or four years ago?" Our focus is not on party affiliation, ideology, or economics. Rather, we focus on what protects or threatens human life and dignity. Catholic teaching challenges voters to consider the moral and ethical dimensions of public policy issues.

Pilgrimages to holy places have been part of Catholic culture and spirituality for nearly two thousand years. Many of my friends, Servite colleagues, parishioners, and other acquaintances have been to the Holy Land and other Shrines throughout Eastern and Western Europe. It has always been my desire to travel as a pilgrim to Fatima and Lourdes. Thanks to a dear friend, parishioner and benefactor I will now have the opportunity to experience that dream. No one has ever offered me such an opportunity in the 46 years of priesthood. I'll be leaving on Wednesday, October 10th for a nine day pilgrimage to Fatima in Portugal, Avila, Spain where St. Teresa lived and died in 1582, Loyola, the birthplace of St. Ignatius, founder of the Jesuits, and then to Lourdes in France, the birthplace of St. Bernadette to whom Our Lady appeared in 1858 near the Grotto of Massabielle. I am not a veteran traveler. This will be both a pilgrimage and an adventure of sorts. Let's hope I don't miss any of my connections. I will bring your intentions with me and pray at all the shrines with you in mind.

In the Joy of Our Faith,
Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M.,
Pastor

YEAR OF FAITH

Pope Benedict XVI has proclaimed a Year of Faith
October 12, 2012 - November 24, 2013.

In this special year, believers around the world are called to renew their commitment to the faith that is "always the same, yet the source of ever new light."

Why the Focus of Faith?...What could be more important than our faith? It is the foundation of who we are as Catholic Christians and a gracious gift from God. Yet, in our contemporary world, we are increasingly vulnerable to secular movements that pull us away from our relationships with God.

...rediscover your faith this year! Be joy-filled witnesses to the risen Lord in the world of today. Exerts from: The Year of Faith "Joy-Filled Witnesses to Christ"

R.C.I.A. RITE OF WELCOME

This Sunday the Rite of Welcoming and Acceptance are celebrated at the 9:00am Mass, as the first major ritual for our candidates and catechumens in our RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) process. After a period of discernment and prayer, the rite officially publicly welcomes six people from our community who have been inquiring and studying about our faith. In this ritual, a declaration of intention to continue their faith journey is made, and the Church community symbolically claims these men and women, for Christ, by signing them with the cross.

Please joyfully welcome catechumens Sidney Ewing-Davis, Isaiah Ewing, Robert Davis, & Domingo Melendez as they prepare for their initiation into the Christian faith through the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist.

Also warmly greet candidates John Case & Samantha Gallo, one with us in Baptism, who now wish to complete their Christian initiation through the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation, to be received into the full communion of the Catholic Church. Please pray for our RCIA team, sponsors, candidates, & catechumens through their journey of faith this next year.

SCHOOL NON-DISCRIMINATORY POLICY

St. Juliana School in the Diocese of Orange, mindful of its mission to be witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students of any race, color, and national origin to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. St. Juliana School in the Diocese of Orange does not discriminate on the basis of race, handicap, color, and national origin in administration of educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs. Likewise, St. Juliana School in the Diocese of Orange does not discriminate against any applicant for employment on the basis of sex, handicap, race, color and national origin.

SAFE ENVIRONMENT UPDATE

Please remember that adults, 18 and over, who work/volunteer with minor children at the Parish or School are required to complete all aspects of the threefold safe environment training before they begin ministering to our youth. Teenagers under the age of 18 who are volunteering in our Youth Ministries or School must complete the online Teen Safety course and sign the "Standard of Conduct" agreement prior to the start of service.

Thank you for your continued support and cooperation.

For more details and instructions, please contact:

MARY'S JOURNEY

Families take Mary's statue for a week and pray the rosary together each night. Saying the rosary and meditating on the mysteries allows us to become aware of the life of Jesus, as witnessed in the eyes of his Mother.

October 6 Mila Vicaldo family 5pm Mass
 October 14 Rafael and Mary Valenzuela Family, 11am Mass
 October 21 Erick and Colleen Martinez Family, 9am Mass
 October 28 Eric and Laura Fredman, 9am Mass
 November 4 Drew and Breda Martin Family, 9am Mass
 If you are interested in signing-up for a week please contact Nina Visconti, 714-572-4152 or nvisconti@roadrunner.com

CONSECRATION TO JESUS

Blessings to our first group of "33 Days To Morning Glory", Consecration to Jesus through Our Queen Mother Mary. The group will make their Consecration this Sunday, October 7th on the Feast of the Holy Rosary following the 9am Mass. The journey has exceeded our expectation in deepening our relationship with Jesus. We pray in gratitude "With you, O Immaculate Mother, we unite ourselves to perfect consecration of Jesus as He offers himself in the Spirit to the Father for the life of the world." Amen.
