THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

The first Sunday of Advent ushers in the new Church Year characterized by the anxious anticipation of the glorious feast of the Nativity of Our Lord. While the Church's liturgy is a daily reminder that this time of year is a time of preparation, modern society jumps the gun and engages in activities which diminish the impact of the Advent Season. How to counter this trend is nearly impossible. Christmas carols, festive decorations, parties, etc., place us squarely in the midst of Christmas so much so that when Christmas morning arrives many are exhausted and can't wait until it's over when in fact it is just beginning.

While I love Christmas decorations, carols, going to the Mall, listening to choral concerts, attending performances of the Nutcracker, and many other traditions, I miss the days when these took place a day or two before Christmas and continued through the entire Christmas season. Truthfully, I have to say that in some ways I, too, have succumbed to this ever widening trend.

While it may seem impossible to stall this trend, we can at least do something to safeguard the spirit of Advent by coming to daily Mass, attend our evening of prayer, and participate in our Advent Parish Mission. The readings at Mass are filled with joy, excitement, and hope for better days to come. So try to organize these weeks ahead in such a way that if you find yourself jumping the gun as it were, you are still able to focus on ways to better enter into the spirit of Advent and Christmas more awake and energized than exhausted and "glad it's over!"

In this Year of Faith our Advent preparation is even more necessary since an increase of Faith is an abiding gift of Christmas. The Christmas story could never have happened apart from the faith of Mary, Joseph, the shepherds and poor folk. There is no way the Christmas story would be retold over and over again without the faith of countless believers whose lives were and are still being changed by the Christmas message. The words of Jesus later in his life ring true at Christmas time: "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed...." you can move mountains. For those returning on Christmas morning in "standing room only" numbers, their faith has yet to mature.....it is still the size of a mustard seed. It is for you and me to welcome them "home" and embrace them in love.

Father Peter John Cameron, O.P. writes in the Magnificat Advent Companion these poignant words: "In the Collect for the First Sunday of Advent, we ask God for a special Advent grace: 'Grant your faithful the resolve to run forth to meet your Christ.' We find many holy people literally running through the Bible. When God calls to the young Samuel who is sleeping in the temple, he immediately runs to his master Eli and says, 'Here I am. You called me.' The father of the prodigal son is so eager to show mercy to his lost son that, when the son appears, the father 'ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him.' The women at Christ's tomb, after encountering the risen Savior, run to announce his Resurrection to the disciples. Peter and John, when they hear the news, run to the tomb. Saint Paul uses the image of running to describe how to live by faith: 'Do you not know that the runners in the stadium all run in the Race? .....Run so to win.' In this he follows the wisdom of the Psalms, 'I will run the way of your commands, for you open my docile heart.' This Advent: Let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us and persevere in running the race that lies before us. Then, we can say at Christmas, 'I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith.'"

If your family plans to have an Advent wreath with the four colored candles (3 purple and 1 pink or white) you may find this blessing helpful:

"Lord our God, we praise you for your Son, Jesus Christ: he is Emmanuel, the hope of the peoples, he is the wisdom that teaches and guides us, he is the Savior of every nation. Lord God, let your blessing come upon us as we light the candles of this wreath. May the wreath and its light be a sign of Christ's promise to bring us salvation. May he come quickly and not delay. We ask this through Christ the Lord. Amen." +

Your support recently to the Knights of Columbus ID drive will help fund various programs designed to assist those who are Intellectually Disabled (ID). Yearly, thousands of Knights stand on corner sidewalks, traffic intersections, at store fronts, in church parking lots, and wherever potential donors can be found to raise funds. In good weather and in rain and snow, with determination and conviction that their efforts will bring good results, they stay the course without any sense of personal reward other than helping those in need. Young and old, active and retired Knights have donated countless hours of their time to carry out the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy. Along with our St. Vincent de Paul Chapter, I believe that our Knights and every Council and Chapter throughout the world need to be recognized not only for their charitable work, but for supporting their local clergy and the Church Universal.

The Sisters of Providence of Terre Haute, Indiana, taught me during my grammar school days on the Westside of Chicago. Those sisters are now long deceased. My school, Our Lady of Sorrows, had a large enrollment. Most of my school mates came from working class families and the classes were large with over 1200 students. I was an average student and do not ever remember getting my hands slapped with a ruler or my ears pinned, but I do remember the kindnesses, the genuine concern for my education and the one-on-one help I received. Next Sunday you and I will have an opportunity to show our appreciation to all the retired sisters, religious priests and brothers who succeeded them through the annual second collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious. Many are frail, elderly, and in need of care. Perhaps you did not attend the parochial school here at St. Juliana or elsewhere. Nevertheless, it is well documented that many religious congregations find it difficult to care for their seniors due to the decrease in younger Sisters and Religious men.

Please take a copy of the Orange County Catholic Newspaper found in Church. On the back page in the section entitled, "The Month in Pictures," St. Juliana School is featured. Congratulations students and teachers!

Copies of the latest edition of The Catholic Worker are now in the bulletin shelves in church. Please take a copy. The Catholic Worker supports the Social Teachings of the Church and has been a voice of Social Justice for over 75 years. The articles tracing the dedication of Catholic Worker, Frank Donovan who died on July 24th, highlight some of the philosophy and mission of the Catholic Worker Movement. The block art work is especially appealing.

Thank you to Scott Kambak and our Junior High Youth Ministry for raising $610 in their annual "Hungerwalk." $305 will be donated to Pathways of Hope (formerly FIES) for its community outreach and $305 to Concern America Inc., for its worldwide outreach to combat hunger.

Fr. Luke and I will remember you in prayer this Monday at the annual Advent Day of Prayer for priests and we hope to see you this Thursday, December 6th at the Advent Night of Prayer in Church at 7pm.

In the Joy of Our Faith,
Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M.,
Pastor

Next Weekend, Dec 8th - 9th

The Retirement Fund for Religious (RFR) collection is next weekend, Dec 8th and 9th. The needs of elder religious remain profound. Rising healthcare and facility costs along with decreased income make it difficult for religious communities to furnish adequate care for senior members. This fund offers financial assistance and services that help religious communities provide for the on-going needs of their elder members while continuing to focus on mission and ministry. As you consider this year's appeal, please give generously next weekend.

JOIN OUR HERITAGE SOCIETY

By making a "legacy gift" you are eligible for membership in our St. Juliana Falconieri Heritage Society.

The three most popular types of gifts are: gifts by will, by trust, and by beneficiary designation.

Why should you consider a legacy gift to St. Juliana?

You give back. It feels good to give back to an organization that is important to you.

You keep control of your assets. You can make a gift now that doesn't require parting with assets until later.

It's easy to do. Including a provision in your will or completing a beneficiary designation form for an insurance plan or retirement account is very simple to do.

You can change your mind. These gifts are revocable if your circumstances or priorities change.

You have flexible options. These gifts are flexible and can include a specific dollar amount, a percentage of your estate, or a portion of what your estate plans.

You can avoid taxes. Tax benefits may result from your gift. Your gift qualifies you for membership in our Heritage Society.

For further information please contact the Orange Catholic Foundation (714-282-3021) or the Parish Office (714-879-1965).

FIVE-MILE HUNGER WALK NEWS

Due to the fine footwork of our 27 walkers (24 Junior High students, 1 parent, 1 youth minister and 1 dog ☺) and the generosity of our families, friends, and fellow parishioners, $610 was raised for the poor and hungry people in our recent Junior High Youth Ministry "Five-Mile Walk to End World Hunger"! We are donating $305 to Pathways of Hope, for their work in our community, and $305 to Concern America, Inc. for their work in the world. Thank you so much!

~ Scott Kambak, Director
 Junior High Youth Ministry
