THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*“If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, ‘I do not need you,’ nor again the head to the feet, ‘I do not need you.’
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ’s body, and individually parts of it.”* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Please keep me in your prayers this week. I was able to have surgery on my broken right shoulder last week and will give you more of an update once I meet with my surgeon for a post-operation appointment this week.

With everything happening, it is hard to believe it is already the third week of Advent! Traditionally, the Third Sunday of Advent is known as Gaudete ("rejoice") Sunday. The somber Advent colors are exchanged for a deep pink or a vibrant rose. This is the week we light the pink Advent Wreath candle - which reminds us that joy and laughter benefit the Christian much more than sadness and gloom. The readings for this Sunday reflect this bright delight. We're beckoned to "shout for joy" by the prophet Zephaniah. Paul tells the Philippians to "Rejoice in the Lord always!" In fact, the whole rhythm of Advent picks up today. As the more immediate preparations for Christmas begin, the more restrained mood of the early days of Advent are abandoned. You can feel Christmas in the air! This sensation is not just schmaltzy sentimentality. It's more like a sixth sense we Christians have. And the liturgy is urging us to employ this sense to recognize that Emmanuel, "God-with-us", really is with us now.

Another successful Toy and Food Drive is complete. Thank you to all who worked so many hours to coordinate all aspects of this effort. Your good work does not go unnoticed.

Our St. Juliana School families are participating in the 9am Mass this Sunday. It is always joyful to have our children actively participate in the Mass. I extend a welcome and my thanks to the school administration, teachers, school choir, students and families that worked hard and were able to participate in this special Mass. The School is sponsoring coffee and donuts today - please join them after the 7:30am and 9am Masses in the Parish Center.

The Advent Parish Mission with Fr. Jim Clarke is this week, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evening at 7pm in the church. More details about the Mission are on page 6 of this bulletin.

May you find joy in your everyday activities, and rejoice always as you prepare the way of the Lord.

In the Joy of Our Faith,
Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M.,
Pastor

Third Sunday of Advent

Reflection taken from Scripture Soundings - Year C

Today's readings seem to indicate that our final Advent preparations need not be anything out of the ordinary. Thus, for us, celebration is part of the ordinary. Unbridled joy is the ever-present emotion for those who recognize that the Messiah is present. We need not involve ourselves in some highfalutin' agenda to get ready for Emmanuel. Rather, our Advent task is to tend to what is at hand, to be in charge of our own souls, and also to be responsive to all who are near and dear.

And being responsive, by the way, is never something that is done in the abstract or in general. We can be responsive only in the concrete, in particular. Perhaps that's why the Baptizer in today's Gospel passage was so particular in his preparation advice. Clearly that's why we have to be particular in our preparations for the coming of the Lord. We have to be at attention and pay attention to our personal needs, and in so doing, recognize and respond to the very particular and personal needs of others.

Where Does Joy Come From?

Exerts taken from Magnificat - Year of Faith
Article by Pope Benedict XVI

The crucial factor is...based on faith:
I am wanted;
I have a task in history; I am accepted;
I am loved...

Man can only accept himself if he is accepted by another. He needs the other's presence, saying to him, with more than words: it is good that you exist. Only from the You can the I come into itself. Only if it is accepted, can it accept itself. Those who are unloved cannot even love themselves. This sense of being accepted comes in the first instance from other human beings. But all human acceptance is fragile. Ultimately we need a sense of being accepted unconditionally. Only if God accepts me, and I become convinced of this, do I know definitely; it is good that I exist. It is good to be a human being. If ever man's sense of being accepted and loved by God is lost, then there is no longer any answer to the question whether to be a human being is good at all. Doubt concerning human existence becomes more and more insurmountable. Where doubt over God becomes prevalent, then doubt over humanity follows inevitably. We see today how widely this doubt is spreading. We see it in the joylessness, in the inner sadness, that can be read on so many human faces today. Only faith gives me the conviction; it is good that I exist. It is good to be a human being, even in hard times.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD

~ HELP URGENTLY NEEDED ~

You may have noticed that we have taken a break from our usual schedule of Children's Liturgy of the Word at the 9am and 11am Masses. Normally our children are dismissed from Mass during the Liturgy of the Word, which includes the Sunday readings, the homily and the Prayers of the Faithful, to experience their own age appropriate session. The reason we have had to suspend our program is that we have a lack volunteers to guide our young children. We are currently looking for leaders and assistants that help manage the group. Please help us save this valuable program by calling, Mike McHenry @ 714-879-1965 or email mike.mchenry@stjulianachurch.org. If your children have taken part in our program you know how important it is to them! This takes no special training - just a love for children and a desire to bring God's Word to them.

FOOD AND TOY DRIVE - THANK YOU!

We received many thanks from the families we helped through the Parish Food and Toy Drive. The volunteers who assisted the Knights of Columbus and the St. Vincent de Paul Society made this event go smoothly—everything was sorted, boxed and delivered to more than 150 families this past week! Presents for the children were provided by the Small Christian Communities, various church ministries and the St. Juliana School children.

No words can adequately express our gratitude to all the volunteers who made this happen...under the expertise and guidance of Paul Durning, Claire Buckley and Bernadette Gilwee. Thank you for all your goodness and for coordinating this Food & Toy Drive!

FEAST OF THE HOLY INNOCENTS

Join in prayer for the unborn on Friday, Dec. 28th, in a Candlelight Procession and Mass. The procession will begin at the La Habra City Hall on La Habra Blvd. and Euclid at 7 pm. Walk four blocks to Our Lady of Guadalupe Church for Mass at 7:30pm. Refreshments will be served in the OLG Hall after the Mass. Everyone is invited to join us as we remember the 60 million innocent lives ended by abortion in the past 40 years. If you are unable to walk in the procession, just come to the church for the Mass.

PRINCIPAL'S NOTE

Dear Parishioners,

I would like to introduce you to and showcase our 4th graders and the "Time For Kids" (TFK) program.

St. Juliana School's fourth, fifth, and sixth graders read "Time For Kids" (TFK) magazine every Friday to keep up on current events. All students bring in breakfast to eat while they read. The students not only read their hardcopy of the magazine, they also watch a virtual version of it on the SmartBoard. Each class discusses the events listed in the TFK and prepare for an afternoon competition against the other classes that have read the magazine. In the competition, students "ring in" if they know the answers to the teacher's written questions. One class comes out a winner each week. In May, St. Juliana hosts a DADS AND TFK. The students team up with their fathers in a question and answer competition. It is fun for all.

Sincerely,
Mr. Manuel Gonzales, Jr.
Principal

4th grade teacher, Mrs. Robin Fontaine and some of her students.

"KALEE'S CORNER"

St. Juliana School 4th grader Kalee was published in the December 2012 Fullerton Observer, after writing a letter to the newspaper asking for volunteer opportunities in Fullerton. Kalee wrote, "So far I have helped at our Fall Festival, been part of a canned food drive, donated my own toys, books, and clothing, and even worked on a farm that gives all the food we collect to local shelters....So, I am writing to get more ideas about volunteering in Fullerton."

Congratulations Kalee! The Fullerton Observer proudly announced that Kalee will now be writing a column for the Observer telling about her volunteer work in the past and talking about work she does in the future. Send volunteer or story ideas to her email at KaleesCorner@aol.com. We look forward to your articles in the Observer.

MARY'S JOURNEY

Families take Mary's statue for a week and pray the rosary together each night. Saying the rosary and meditating on the mysteries allows us to become aware of the life of Jesus, as witnessed in the eyes of his Mother.

December 16 Milica Hornbuckle family, 11am
 December 23 Glenn and Nina Visconti Family, 9am
 December 30 Rafael and Rosarie Valenzuela family, 9am

If you are interested in signing up for a week please contact Nina Visconti, 714-572-4152 or nvisconti@roadrunner.com

LEGACY COURTYARD PAVERS

Have you ever considered leaving a legacy at our Parish by purchasing a courtyard paver for in front of the Parish Center? A legacy paver is a great way to remember or honor someone. An order form is enclosed in this bulletin. A copy of the order form is in the church vestibule, Parish Office, and on the parish website, www.stjulianachurch.org

PRAYER REQUEST FORMS

Did you know we have a devoted group of parishioners who belong to our Parish Prayer Chain - willing to pray for you and for any of your intentions? Prayer request forms are in the vestibule of the church, by all the pamphlets. If you would like our Prayer Chain to include your intentions, please fill out a Prayer Request Form...our Prayer Chain would love to pray for you and any of your intentions.

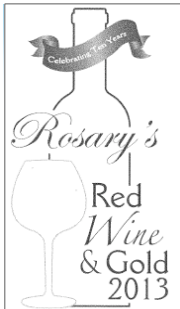

CORAZON NEWS

Doug and Jean Knudson would like to thank the parishioners who purchased Alternative Gift Cards last month after Masses for Corazon. Anyone interested in making a donation, who didn't get a chance, may contact Doug and Jean at 714-992-2905.

ROSARY HIGH SCHOOL "RED, WINE & GOLD"

You're invited to attend Rosary High School's Red Wine & Gold event on Saturday, January 19, 2013 at 6pm in the Karcher Center. This is a casual, "taste-of" style event featuring fine wine from California's wine regions, tasty cuisine, and craft beers from local restaurants. Your reservation provides all you can eat and drink while supplies last and a keepsake wine or beer glass. This year we are celebrating the 10th anniversary of the event and we are honoring event founders and St. Juliana Parishioners, Jack & Marquita Gyben. Jack and Marquita's unwavering commitment to Red Wine & Gold has made a difference in the lives of many Rosary graduates. The proceeds of Red Wine & Gold support the Trudy Mazarella Scholarship Fund which provides tuition assistance to Rosary students. There are raffles and auction prizes, a wine grab and you could win a trip for two to Napa! Reservations are $60 pre-sale and $70 at the door, go to www.rosaryhs.org/redwinegold for more information.
