THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Christmas this year will be different for me. Never did I expect to fall and injury my right shoulder at a time when I look forward so much to the Advent season and beautiful Masses.

This past week I began my second week of physical therapy. It will be a long haul for me, and my ministry work will certainly be diminished.

I want to sincerely thank you for your many cards and gifts. Also, I want to publically thank Fr. Luke and the wonderful parish staff that have been at my side, especially during the early days of my recovery. No words are adequate to express how I really feel.

As you read this, my hope is I will be able, with assistance, to celebrate Christmas Masses. It may only be a hope, but I am confident that I will make progress in this stage of physical therapy. Please keep me in your prayers.

Enjoy and celebrate Christmas, the wonderful gift of Christ born among us! Let me assure you this experience has been a major turning point in my life. From it, I hope to be a better priest and a more compassionate pastor.

Be blessed.

In the Joy of Our Faith,
Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M.,
Pastor

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

“BLESSED IS THE FRUIT OF YOUR WOMB”

Exert from Sunday By Sunday: Year C Lectionary

Luke’s infancy narratives are carefully written to reveal that the child Jesus who was born in Bethlehem is truly the Son of God, the long-awaited Messiah of the Jews, and the Savior of all people. In today’s Gospel Elizabeth proclaims the good news to Mary, and to us, that Mary’s child is divine. She says, “Blessed is the fruit of your womb. And how does this happen to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me?” (Luke 1:43). As Luke tells it, John the Baptist recognized Jesus before either of them had been born, and announced Jesus’ identity as the anointed Son of God through Elizabeth’s words.

The first and second readings for this Sunday highlight Jesus’ identity as Savior of all people. In Micah we hear that “his greatness will reach to the ends of the earth” and in Hebrews we are reminded that his death was an offering “for all.” Today’s scriptures should reveal to us the full significance of the Incarnation, the coming of God in the form of a humble human infant.

REAL PRESENCE

We may never fully grasp God’s real presence in the human form of the infant Jesus. Just so, we may never fully grasp the real presence of God in the humble form of the Eucharist. The one who came down from heaven and became human at Christmas comes down from heaven at every Eucharist and offers us his body and blood so that all might be consecrated—that is, share in his divine life. As we sing the Lamb of God litany and receive Communion this week, may we welcome the Son of God and Savior of all people, the Messiah and Lamb of God.

May we recognize him not only in the infant Jesus and in the Eucharist, but in all of our sisters and brothers.

In every Eucharist the Incarnation continues;
God takes on human form and dwells among us.

REJOICE IN HIS COMING!

Exert from Living Faith - Daily Catholic Devotions

The great paradox of the birth of Jesus is that a powerful savior could be found in so vulnerable a condition as a newborn baby in a makeshift cradle. Our hearts are easily moved by the image of a baby, but we may overlook the great power that was mysteriously present in Jesus from the very first. The Incarnate Word was a formidable adversary of all that would burden and enslave us. The same might that created the universe out of chaos now arrived to create the world anew and redeem us from the grip of sin and death.

We have walked in darkness, and we have seen a great light. Let us rejoice that we have so powerful a savior who continues to smash all the forces that oppress us. ~Mark Neilsen

“YEAR OF FAITH”

DECEMBER 2012

The "Door of Faith" and Our "Doors"
Keep our doors open and inviting!

Meditation

YEAR OF FAITH 2012

The "door of faith" (Acts 14:27) is always open for us. It ushers us into the life of communion with God and offers us entry into God’s Church. We can cross its threshold when God’s word is proclaimed, and when the heart allows itself to be shaped by God’s transforming grace.

When Pope Benedict XVI declared that a “Year of Faith” would be celebrated, beginning just this past October and continuing through November 2013—we were reminded that we are to open the “door of faith” by renewing our friendship with Christ and rediscovering the Church’s teachings. Advent opened the door of a new liturgical year. With these spiritual “doors” opening, were you aware of the physical doors in your own lives opening? What do people see, outside, before the door opens? When you walk into a church, do branches, flowers, a seasonal wreath--adorned perhaps with ribbons or fabric in appropriate liturgical colors--offer a wordless welcome that heralds a warm personal greeting? Christmas decorations, outdoors and inside, are already customary during Advent. Why not plan something similar for Lent, Easter, even Ordinary Time? Is your family crèche in an honored setting just inside the door so it can be the first thing that visitors see? Replace it during Lent with a treasured crucifix, then a Resurrection icon or Christ candle, an image of Our Lady during May, and so forth.

Pope Benedicts gives us a mission—keep our “doors” open.

Adorn doors and entryways, at church, in your homes, at work... in every season throughout this “Year of Faith” with visual proclamations of faith that pledge hospitality.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD
~ HELP URGENTLY NEEDED ~

You may have noticed that we have taken a break from our usual schedule of Children's Liturgy of the Word at the 9am and 11am Masses. Normally our children are dismissed from Mass during the Liturgy of the Word, which includes the Sunday readings, the homily and the Prayers of the Faithful, to experience their own age appropriate session. The reason we have had to suspend our program is that we have a lack of volunteers to guide our young children. We are currently looking for leaders and assistants that help manage the group. Please help us save this valuable program by calling, Mike McHenry @ 714-879-1965 or email mike.mchenry@stjulianachurch.org. If your children have taken part in our program you know how important it is to them! This takes no special training - just a love for children and a desire to bring God's Word to them.
