THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

~ FROM THE PASTOR ~

Our parish has been blessed with a hardworking and reflective Parish Pastoral Council. Like councils in the past, the one overriding passion of each council member is to bring his/her talents into play for the good of the parish. So that we may better understand ourselves as a Catholic community, the council has worked tirelessly for the past six months on rewriting our parish vision and mission statements. Vision is how we see ourselves. Mission is how we carry out our vision. On the front cover of the bulletin you will read the following statements: “Our Vision is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.” “St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the Gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.”

These two statements may seem simple enough. However, the council worked for hours upon hours to state succinctly how we see ourselves as a parish family and what our responsibilities are to ensure the growth and integrity of our parish.

Implied in these statements and underscoring all of our beliefs, is the spirit of service. Mohandas Gandhi, in a publication “The Words of Gandhi” wrote these words which I believe help to bolster our eagerness to be people of service. Gandhi writes: “Do not worry in the least about yourself, leave all worry to God---this appears to be the commandment in all religions. This need not frighten anyone. He who devotes himself to service with a clear conscience, will day by day grasp the necessity for it in greater measure, and will continually grow richer in faith. The path of service can hardly be trodden by one who is not prepared to renounce self-interest, and to recognize the conditions of his birth. Consciously or unconsciously, every one of us does render some service or other. If we cultivate the habit of doing this service deliberately, our desire for service will steadily grow stronger, and will make not only for our own happiness but that of the world at large.”

The responsibility of the Parish Pastoral Council in the days ahead will be to identify goals and tasks to implement through each of the parish organizations (listed on Page Two of this bulletin) under the “Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life.” These goals and tasks will be part of long range planning for the next year and then five years.

While designated leadership is responsible for the day to day operation of a busy parish, each parishioner adds to the expansion of the parish. Parish life is the totality of the gifts and talents of every parishioner. We all bring something of ourselves that God can use to better us personally and St. Juliana community.

An interesting article that appeared in the March 6th edition of the Orange County Register highlights some steps we can take to unlock our potential. The author of the article, Dr. Barton Goldsmith, a psychotherapist, suggests 10 ways we can change our life for the better. He writes: 1) Count your blessings.

It changes your perspective for the better; 2) Start your day the night before. The most successful people I know end their work-day by making a list of what they have to do in the following day or two. This allows the subconscious to work on things while you sleep; 3) Be ready to grow up. Adults have the ability to learn to delay gratification, but we also have a choice as to how to behave when things don't go our way. If you remember to take the high road, you'll end up where you want to be; 4) Drop the attitude. It is quite possible that, by feeling entitled, you are pushing away things and people you might like; 5) Don't ignore your emotions, but remember that feelings aren't facts. Emotions need to be honored but just because you have a feeling doesn't mean that you're right; 6) Watch out for negative thinking. Sometimes we get into negative-feedback loops and don't even know it; 7) Set up and stick to a routine. We are creatures of habit, and good habits help us feel that we have some control over our lives; 8) Drop your resentments. By choosing to drop them you will make your life much lighter; 9) Know who you really are, and learn to honor yourself. Never compromise your personal values and always strive to be your best self; 10) Enjoy a part of every day. Look for those little bright moments that happen all the time but that we often fail to recognize.

The Friday Lenten fish dinners sponsored by the St. Juliana School Parents' Club feeds over two hundred patrons on the Fridays of Lent. If you haven't come to the Parish Center for dinner, there are two more Fridays for you to enjoy the dinners and fellowship. If you would like to combine the Stations of the Cross and dinner, come to the Church first at 6pm and pray the Stations together with other parishioners and then go over to the Center for dinner.

St. Juliana parish will participate in the Annual Crop Walk for Hunger on Sunday, April 29th. Registration begins at Noon and the Walk begins at 1pm from the corner of Harbor and Wilshire. St. Paul Lutheran Church in Fullerton organizes the Crop Walk under the direction of Pastor Tom Goellrich. As we did last year, St. Juliana will participate but we will need walkers. Our parish representative is Lane Paulsen. Lane can be contacted by e-mail at lanekofc@roadrunner.com. I hope we can get a minimum of 50 walkers.

The Servite Secular Order community, St. Juliana of the Eucharist, will host another information night at 7pm in the Parish Center meeting Room 3 on Wednesday, March 28th. Those interested in knowing more about the Order of Secular Servants of Mary (OSSM) are welcome to attend.

I hope you are using your Operation Rice Bowl. When you have collected your coins, convert them into paper cash and put your donation in an envelope labeled “Operation Rice Bowl” and place it in the collection basket anytime during Lent. Your “alms” is one of the three pillars of Lent.

In the Joy of Our Faith,
Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M.

bies. The dates and times are - Mondays, March 19 and 26 from 10:00 am - Noon and Saturday, March 24 from 7:00am-sheets are still in the vestibule. 30 parishioners have signed up so far to fill the 14 hours that we have committed to. Several hours are still empty. Information sheets and directions are on the table in the vestibule. Call Barbara Legas at 714-870-4214. The Diocesan Committee reports that three babies were

RCIA CANDIDATE SPOTLIGHT JAMES WEIKS

Born and raised in Seattle, James was baptized there in the Church of God. He graduated from West Seattle High and earned his degree from the Burnley School of Art & Design. He is a Korean War Vet and married his lovely wife Velma in 1956. They have 4 daughters, Michele, Lisa, Kimberly and Jamie, 6 grandchildren, and 3 great grandchildren. James began his career in 1961 as one of the designers for the Seattle World's Fair. In 1968 he was transferred to So. Calif. as creative director for Fiberboard Corp. With 43 years in the paper industry he retired from Weyerhaeuser in June 2002.

James has been coming to St. Juliana's with Velma for 43 years. In the past few years he had a strong feeling to make a change in his life. Last August as he was leaving Mass he passed by a table that had a sign, RCIA, and he asked some questions and signed up to change his life. He is excited to be receiving the sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil, growing in the Catholic Faith and serving God wherever. Edwin McCormick is his sponsor.

RCIA CANDIDATE SPOTLIGHT KEVIN LUKE

Kevin Luke was born in Ephrata, WA and has a younger brother in San Francisco. His mother, Lottie, is also in the RCIA group this year. They moved around the western US until they settled in Orange County in 1972. Kevin is divorced, has a grown daughter, and is the proud grandfather of a granddaughter and a grandson, who live in Kentucky.

He has been employed with the Riverside County Dept. of Public Social Services for the past 12 years. As a social worker he investigates child abuse. The satisfaction of his job is knowing that, at the end of each day, the children with whom he interacts are safe from abuse and neglect.

Kevin became involved with the St. Juliana community when his mother asked him to come to church with her in late 2010. He says that he has always had a spiritual life, having been baptized in the First Christian Church at the age of 19, and feels at home and nourished following every Sunday Mass and Monday RCIA meeting. He hopes to grow strong with the Lord and share with those around him the vast amount of Love our Lord has to offer. Ed Marchak is his sponsor.

CATHOLICS COME HOME MINISTRY

Have you been away from the Catholic Church? Has it been a while since you've joined us for Mass or any other parish activities? Is your own spirituality enough, or do you need something more? Do you have lots of questions about faith and church? You may be hearing God's loving call to return to the active practice of your Catholic faith. We can help you. This ministry reaches out to inactive Catholics who wish to consider returning to the Church and to the sacraments. We offer support and guidance through a series of non-judgmental growth sessions. For more information please contact Deacon Gerhard Stadel @ 714-870-5714, Sean Graham at 714-572-8232, or the Parish Office 714-879-1965.
