THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

~ FROM THE PASTOR ~

We are now entering the third full week of Lent. The question that usually pops into my head at this juncture is, "How am I doing with my Lenten discipline of fasting, prayer, and almsgiving?" These are the three pillars of Lent and ones the Church has adopted for the communal celebration of Lent. It is not just our own personal journey, but it is the journey of the entire Church. We are in this together as it were.

While our morning Mass attendance has increased and about forty faithful come to the Friday Stations of the Cross I believe we could do better. What do you think? It certainly would be a sacrifice to get up early to pray the Mass with fellow parishioners. Are you willing to do that? The Mass readings during Lent help to form us into reflective persons who are challenged to be more forgiving and honest with ourselves and others. The call to conversion and to live the Gospel in our daily lives is the focus of our Lenten Masses.

During Lent I pray the "Eucharistic Prayer for Reconciliation" during the Morning Masses. Reconciliation is a strong theme during Lent. While we need to pray for the grace of reconciliation all the time, we pray for it more intentionally during Lent. Fr. Anthony de Mello, S.J. often remarked that "Reconciliation alone will save the world, not justice which is generally another word for revenge." That may be overstating the comparison but it certainly is food for thought. He tells a story which illustrates this contrast. "A traveler was walking along the road one day when a man on horseback rushed by. There was an evil look in his eyes and blood on his hands. Minutes later a crowd of riders drew up and wanted to know if the traveler had seen someone with blood on his hands go by. They were in hot pursuit of him. 'Who is he?' the traveler asked. 'An evil-doer,' said the leader of the crowd. 'And you pursue him in order to bring him to justice?' 'No,' said the leader, 'we pursue him in order to show him the way.'"

Contemporary Catholics influenced by technology and the media find the discipline of prayer and fasting difficult. Think for a minute of all the diet programs we have tried and how much time and effort it takes to remain faithful. Nonetheless, it is not unusual for Catholics to wonder why it matters to God whether we have one meal or three meals in a day. Of course, anything we do for love of God is pleasing to him, but fasting involves more than just pleasing God. When we abstain from meat on Fridays during Lent, and when we cut back on our food intake, we are consciously breaking our normal routines. Acts of self-denial recall to us the forty days Jesus fasted in the desert before he began his public ministry and died on that first Good Friday.

We can turn the difficulty of our Lenten discipline into an opportunity. An unknown author advises us: "The person who has not struggled with difficulty after difficulty cannot know the joy of genuine success. Face the problems, and fight your way over them. There is more satisfaction in putting forth effort than in gloating over easily won profits. The rungs in the ladder of success are composed of difficulties."

Last Saturday and Sunday we celebrated a number of wonderful events in the life of our parish. Our second grade children participated in the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time on Saturday. Parents presented their children to Father Paul and me, and each child experienced the sacramental grace of forgiveness. They listened with excitement on their faces to the words of absolution: "Through the ministry of the Church may God give you pardon and peace, and I absolve you from your sins, in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen." Sunday these same children attended Mass with their parents and wearing a colorful homemade stole, participated in the Rite of Enrollment for First Communion. Excited about their special day in May, the children wore smiles from "ear to ear." Later in the day, the "Get on the Bus" dinner and concert fundraiser took place in the Parish Center. Proceeds will be used to hire buses to bring children in Orange County and beyond to visit their parents in prison on Mother's Day and Father's Day.

Congratulations to our Eagle Scouts who will be receiving their award this Sunday. While our scouting program seems to have limited appeal here at St. Juliana, those who participate in scouting find it to be character building. That is a good thing.

I wish to thank Fr. Jim Clarke and all who participated in the parish Lenten mission last week. Over sixty parishioners attended the morning sessions and over one hundred attended the evening sessions. Mike McHenry planned and organized the parish mission. Now we will begin plans for the next presentation in our Adult Faith Formation series with the program, "Catholicism" written by Father Robert Barron beginning on April 19th in the Parish Center. This is a ten-week series which follows talks by Father Barron on a CD with a companion text book. All participants will have the opportunity to purchase the text.

Everyone is Irish on St. Patrick's Day. Chicago, New York, Boston among other cities usually pull out all the stops to celebrate the "greening of the day." The Chicago city council dyes the Chicago river green on St. Patrick's day and the parade down State street is a Chicago institution. I am sure Los Angeles celebrates as well. Here in Fullerton, our Knights of Columbus will provide a delicious corned beef and cabbage dinner in honor of St. Patrick next Saturday, March 17th at 6 pm in the Parish Center. The day should be fun even if Fullerton Creek isn't green.

I leave you with this parting thought from Joel Barker: "Vision without action is a dream. Action without vision is simply passing the time. Action with vision is making a positive difference."

In the Joy of Our Faith,
Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M.

PARENTAL NOTIFICATION- PETITION SIGNING

The parish Respect Life Group will have a Signature Gathering Campaign on March 10th & 11th outside of church at all Masses. Bishop Brown has approved signature gathering at the parish level for the Parent Notification Initiative to have it on the 2012 November General Election ballot. This initiative will require a doctor to notify parents 48 hours prior to an abortion being performed on their minor daughter. A girl under 18 cannot get a flu shot, a cavity filled or an aspirin dispensed by a school nurse without a parent knowing. But a doctor can perform a surgical or chemical abortion on a minor girl (under 18) without informing her parents. On a daily basis, older men impregnate teen girls and then pressure them to have secret abortions to cover up crimes of statutory rape. Many teens suffer emotional and medical consequences as a result. Please support this effort. It only takes a minute.

A NOTE FROM THE PRINCIPAL...

Dear St. Juliana Parish Community,
I want to thank our Falcon Gala auction chairs, Cyndee Shank, Megan Cecil, and Regina LeVecke for all their hard work and dedication. It was truly an amazing evening that had all the pageantry of "Run for the Roses". I would also like to thank all who attended the Gala; your support of Saint Juliana School is truly a blessing.

On Saturday we celebrate "You Are My Sunshine", our first annual Father/Daughter dance. On Sunday, in the School Office, we have open enrollment for the 2012/2013 school year from 10am-1pm. (See New Student Application info below.)

The virtue for the month of March is compassion. When we have compassion we show love to everyone, forgive others, and help those in need. The word compassion is mentioned 145 times in the Bible. Our quote of the month comes from American poet and theologian Fredrick Buechner, "Compassion is the knowledge that there can never really be any peace and joy for me until there is peace and joy for you."

Lent is a time of reflection, a time to seek God and place ourselves in communion with Him. I came across this beautiful prayer from Saint Teresa of Avila that I would like to share with you and your family this Lenten season:

"Christ has no body now, but yours.
No hands, no feet on earth, but yours.
Yours are the eyes through which
Christ looks compassion into the world.
Yours are the feet
with which Christ walks to do good.
Yours are the hands with which Christ blesses the world."

As we continue with the Lenten season let us always remember that we are the embodiment of Christ.

Blessings to you and your family,

Mr. Manuel Gonzales, Jr. M.A.
Principal

ST. JOSEPH'S TABLE

St Joseph's Table Celebration
Palm Sunday, April 1st

Throughout the Catholic Church St. Joseph has always been regarded as the family protector. According to legend, during the Middle Ages a terrible drought and famine plagued the people of Italy. Many died of starvation. The people prayed to St. Joseph and begged his intercession in their plight. When the rains came and new crops grew they showed their gratitude by making sure no one went hungry. So continues the promise to celebrate his feast day. The honored Italian St. Joseph's Table Celebration at St. Juliana will be a bake sale after all Sunday morning Masses on April 1, 2012. Plan ahead to stop by the bake sale, in the Parish Center, for a variety of delicious homemade goodies.

Invite your friends and family to the bake sale!

....stock-up on goodies for Easter!

Thank you in advance for your generosity!

RCIA SCRUTINIES

This Sunday at the 9am Mass we celebrate the 'First Scrutiny' for those in our catechumenal process who are preparing for initiation at the Easter Vigil. Next week, at the 11am Mass, we celebrate the 'Second Scrutiny,' and on March 25th at the 5pm Mass we celebrate the 'Third Scrutiny.' The three scrutinies are amongst the most ancient prayers in the Christian liturgical tradition. As early as the second century, Christian communities would help those who had been chosen for Baptism to prepare for their initiation by laying on hands and prayer. These very moving and powerful prayers ask God's protection on those who will soon become full members of our Catholic Church through the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. Please continue to hold in your Lenten prayers the Elect who count on you for support in making their faith journey.

BLOOD DRIVE - "THANK YOU!"

God bless you and thank you for your support!

Many of you participated in the Knights of Columbus/St. Juliana Blood Drive held Sunday morning, February 26th. Thanks to you, it was a huge success! 44 pints of blood were donated! It is through generous donations like these that we are able to maintain the blood supply in our community. We never know when we or one of our loved ones will need it. Giving blood is a very anonymous gift ~ you do not know who you are helping. Again, on behalf of the Knights of Columbus and St. Juliana, your generosity is greatly appreciated!

RCIA ELECT SPOTLIGHT CASSANDRA HEISE

Cassandra Heise graduated from UC Berkeley last summer. Towards the end of her college career there, she began to attend mass at the UC Berkeley Newman Hall with a friend. After graduating and coming home she found that she truly missed going to mass and her heart and soul ached for it. She felt God calling her to be closer to Him and He led her to St. Juliana's! In addition, the love and closeness of Catholic families that she has witnessed made her want to become Catholic because this is what she wants for her own future family. She is so grateful for all the nice people she has met so far, especially her sponsor, Catherine Haydon, who has helped her out a lot through this process. She above all else is looking forward to the sharing of the Blessed Sacrament with everyone.

ANOTHER RCIA ELECT SPOTLIGHT CHANTAL BOROWSKI

"My parents were raised in the Catholic church in Quebec, Canada. They moved to California over 40 years ago to make a life in the States. Growing up, my family went to various Christian churches, so I always had the foundation of knowing Jesus, but we did not attend a Catholic church. I married Blake, a cradle Catholic, at St. Juliana Church in 2003. Blake has attended St. Juliana Church since 4th grade. After attending an the Engaged Encounter Weekend, I was intrigued more by the Catholic church, but I never did anything about it. Almost 9 years later, Blake and I now have 2 children, Zoe (age 6) and Cashlin (age 4). We have always talked about bringing up our children knowing God and with the foundation of church. Ultimately, it was the love for our children that gave me the extra push to join RCIA. I had no idea how much I would enjoy it, and how much it would fulfill a spiritual void. Our family attends mass regularly, and it is a great feeling. I look forward to our children growing up attending St. Juliana."

CATHOLICS COME HOME MINISTRY

Have you been away from the Catholic Church? Has it been a while since you've joined us for Mass or any other parish activities? Is my own spirituality enough, or do I need something more? Do you have lots of questions about faith and church? You may be hearing God's loving call to return to the active practice of your Catholic faith. We can help you. This ministry reaches out to inactive Catholics who wish to consider returning to the Church and to the sacraments. We offer support and guidance through a series of non-judgmental growth sessions. For more information please contact Deacon Gerhard Stadel @ 714-870-5714, Sean Graham at 714-572-8232, or the Parish Office 714-879-1965.

For more info on our programs, and happenings, visit www.sjfaith.org
