THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*“If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, ‘I do not need you,’ nor again the head to the feet, ‘I do not need you.’
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ’s body, and individually parts of it.”* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

~ FROM THE PASTOR ~

Our eighth grade and kindergarten classes graduated last Friday. I had the privilege of celebrating both ceremonies. We have so much to be proud of as a parish community for the gift of Catholic education. We work hard to maintain and protect its vitality. It's expensive, time consuming, and frequently energy sapping. The payoff is priceless. Besides the academic excellence that is so essential, there is the religious dimension that must never be minimized. The two go together and are forever linked. Catholic education is not simply an alternative educational system, it is a religiously value driven and faith based Catholic educational system. When students and/or parents lose that connection or think it can simply be relegated to the teachers or pastoral staff, the school community teeters on a weak foundation. Here at St. Juliana we must never forget, minimize or denigrate that connection. Never!

The author Dean Koontz in one of his books has an interesting insight. He writes: "Some people think only intellect counts: knowing how to solve problems, knowing how to get by, knowing how to identify an advantage and seize it. But the functions of intellect are insufficient without courage, love, friendship, compassion, and empathy." These are the kinds of values that we promote as Catholics in our education, our theology, and our practice both at Sunday Mass and in our daily discourse.

At the eighth grade graduation I told the students a story about the "Grandfather and the Kite." On his 16th birthday grandpa gave his grandson a strange, surprise gift. When the grandson opened the gift he found a kite. Disappointed, he asked his grandfather: why a kite? His grandfather explained that the kite symbolized the ability to look "up." Since the grandson seemed to look down a lot, grandpa thought that flying the kite would force him to look up.

It seems that we look down more than we think. Looking down is often an indication that we live life from moment to moment mostly with what is in front of us. Looking down doesn't always mean we are looking at our toes...rather mostly not looking ahead or beyond what is in front of us.

Living life with what is in front of us is different for all of us. There is a certain kind of immediacy with living life in front of us. It is often unplanned and may not have any thought of the future or what is ahead of us (looking up). For young persons, living life "in front of you" is about having fun, making friends, having nice clothes or shoes, concern over body image, up-to-date technology, having and spending money, being popular, competing especially with regard to grades.

When we look up or ahead, we experience life as it could be... we see life not just as it is in front of us, but what lies ahead of us. It is not what is happening to us at the moment, it is what we are creating in advance.

Life ahead of us is all about "possibility." God has planted inside of us the "grace of possibility." When we live life looking up, looking ahead, dreaming with possibility, God adds a second grace: ability. When we face obstacles or life gets too hard as we pursue our possibility, we find incredible and unexpected strength and courage. Like a mantra, we keep repeating: "I can do this." "It's not impossible."

Living life as it unfolds "in front of us" has very little possibility because we are comfortable. Living life "ahead of us" is hard work. It is a challenge but has great rewards.

I believe this applies not only to students on the verge of new experiences in their academic careers but to all of us, especially as a parish family. What an enormous treasure we have here at St. Juliana if we pursue our "possibility." Even those of us who are seniors....it's not over. Yes, we may think we "paid our dues," but just think of the collective wisdom, talent, and practical acumen of senior members of the parish. We need to look up to them and seek their advice, practical knowledge, and good sense.

In an around about way, I received news that Annunciation Catholic School will not reopen for the 2012-2013 school year. This decision was made because of a projected drop in an already low enrollment. The letter from the Superintendent of Catholic Schools sent to parents advised, "If you would like to have your student continue his or her Catholic education, we will be happy to facilitate a transfer to St. Pius V School, St. Justin Martyr School, Our Lady of Guadalupe School or any other local diocesan elementary school." While St. Juliana is not mentioned in the letter, our academic excellence and our financial security along with our stable enrollment are well known. We have had a number of applicants which will be an asset to our school. We send our thoughts and prayers to the parents at both St. Philip's (our sister Servite parish) and St. Mary's.

An unknown author shares this wisdom with us that may have some consolation for the many disappointed parents: "There are things that we never want to let go of, people we never want to leave behind. But keep in mind that letting go isn't the end of the world, it's the beginning of a new life."

A movie that is getting a great deal of attention from Catholic groups such as the Knights of Columbus is For Greater Glory. This motion picture filmed in Mexico tells the epic, untold story of the Cristero War and a nation's quest for religious liberty. Supreme Knight Carl A. Anderson writes in Columbia Magazine: "For Greater Glory is a powerful film that provides a compelling account of a forgotten era...It tells a story of enduring relevance, and is a 'must-see' viewing for all who care about faith and liberty today." We hope to have a showing here. It is still in local theaters.

Happy Father's Day! Pam Brown writes; "Dad's don't need to be tall and broad shouldered and clever ... ~ love makes them so!"

A "THANK YOU"
- FROM FR. PAUL GINS, O.S.M.

The wonderful expressions of good luck in Missouri, have a safe journey, the hugs, kisses, cards, and gifts are sincerely appreciated. The last four years at St. Juliana have been filled with moments of celebration and sadness. To those who had hoped that I would celebrate their funeral, glad you are still with us. Current and former parish and school staff members are a godsend, thank you. Please continue to invite young folks to a life of service in the Church. It takes a minimum of six years to become a Servite priest. I would hope the Lord is calling some of those I have met over the years to this vocation.

A NOTE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Dear St. Juliana Parents and Parishioners,

This year has been one of memorable growth for me. As I end my first year at St. Juliana's, remembering all the events such as Fall Festival, Advent Program, Catholic Schools Week, Falcon Gala Auction, Fish Fry, the Talent Show, First Communion, May Crowning, the amazing Spring Sing, and finally Graduation, I am in awe of the community you are, and I thank you from the bottom of my heart for your welcoming spirit and all of the support you have given me this year.

I thank you for entrusting your children to us for their spiritual and academic formation. We are so blessed to have this faculty and staff. I believe we do a fantastic job teaching your children. Collaboration is a beautiful thing when we are all working toward the same goal.

As we anticipate the close of this school year, I would like to thank Carole Cassell and the Parent Club for their outstanding accomplishments. I look forward to working with Megan Shank and the new slate of officers for 2012-2013. Thank you also to the new School Board established this year. I know next year will be just as wonderful and productive.

God has blessed me in so many ways in allowing me to share in this community. I pray that you never lose the sense of uniqueness and community you have now. Your children are the light of St. Juliana School. Their joy and anticipation as they come to school each day is wonderful to watch.

As many of you have heard, Annunciation School in Fullerton was closed as of last Thursday. We have had many families contact us, hoping to find space for their children to continue their Catholic education. We are working with them and the Diocese to accommodate as many as possible. Please keep them in your prayers during what has to be a very frightening time.

Have a safe, restful summer with your families. I look forward to seeing you all on August 28th.

Thank you again, and God Bless.....

MARY'S JOURNEY

Families take Mary's statue for a week and pray the rosary together each night. Mary's Journey is on a mission to welcome prayer back into families. Saying the rosary and meditating on the mysteries allows us to become aware of the life of Jesus, as witnessed in the eyes of his Mother.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL FOOD PANTRY ~LOW ON FOOD!

Fifty-two families-in-need visited our St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry the first Thursday of June and the pantry is very low on food. We desperately need:

- 1.) Cereal,
- 2.) Peanut Butter,
- 3.) Canned Tuna

These items provide protein—and are in high demand!

Other items needed include:

- 1.) Canned Vegetables (including tomatoes and beans),
- 2.) Canned Fruit,
- 3.) Mac-and-Cheese,
- 4.) Canned or Boxed Dinners.

During the summer months the shelves at Second Harvest Food Bank are also low, making it difficult for families in need to acquire food from the Food Bank. Families visiting our St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry are always very appreciative of your generosity.

Please leave items in the box in the vestibule of the Church.
