THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*“If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, ‘I do not need you,’ nor again the head to the feet, ‘I do not need you.’
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ’s body, and individually parts of it.”* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

~ FROM THE PASTOR ~

Enclosed in the bulletin this week is a dated copy of The Catholic Worker newspaper. I have included it so that you will have an opportunity to know something of the Catholic Worker movement begun by two deeply committed Catholics, Peter Maurin and Dorothy Day in 1933 in response to the devastating effects of the Great Depression and the societal ills created by the Industrial Revolution and the Communist Revolution in Russia.

Dorothy and Peter began the Movement in response to the communist threat in the 20's and 30's with thousands of workers unemployed and with men, women, and children homeless and destitute. Besides publishing the social teachings of the Catholic Church and essays commenting on social problems of the day in The Catholic Worker, Dorothy and Peter established Houses of Hospitality run entirely by unpaid workers and volunteers to house and feed the nameless thousands living from day to day without basic necessities.

The Catholic Worker movement was the Catholic answer to the growing attraction of socialism among workers who had little recourse. Based on the great social teachings of the church as espoused by Pope Leo XIII in his social encyclical, Rerum Novarum (Latin for "On the New Things") and Pope Pius XI in his follow-up encyclical, Quadragesimo Anno (Latin for "In the 40th Year") Dorothy and Peter and their many associates gave practical reality to the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy advocated by the Church for centuries,

Peter and Dorothy embodied in their personal lives both in spirit and deed the Works of Mercy. In an essay written by Peter and published in The Catholic Worker he writes: In the first centuries of Christianity the hungry were fed at a personal sacrifice, the naked were clothed at a personal sacrifice, the homeless were sheltered at a personal sacrifice. And because the poor were fed, clothed and sheltered at a personal sacrifice, the pagans used to say about the Christians, "See how they love each other."

The Spiritual Works of Mercy are: to admonish the sinner, to instruct the ignorant, to counsel the doubtful, to comfort the sorrowful, to bear wrongs patiently, to forgive all injuries, and to pray for the living and the dead.

The Corporal Works of Mercy are: to feed the hungry, to give drink to the thirsty, to clothe the naked, to ransom the captive, to harbor the harborless, to visit the sick, and to bury the dead.

The celebrated social teachings of the Church upon which Peter and Dorothy founded The Catholic Worker were penned by two renowned Catholic social reformers: Pope Leo XIII and Pope Pius XI.

Pope Leo XIII lived from 1810-1902 and was Pope from 1878-1902. In 1891 he issued his famous social encyclical Rerum Novarum. It addressed the condition of the Working Classes. The encyclical discussed the relationship and mutual duties between labor and obtaining capital, as well as government and its citizens. Of primary concern was some betterment for "The misery and wretchedness pressing so unjustly on the majority of the working class." It supported the rights of labor to form unions, rejected communism and unrestricted Capitalism, while offering the right to private property. Pope Leo XIII was influential in overcoming child labor and establishing the protection of children and worker's rights, especially the 40 hour week.

Pope Pius XI was born in 1857 and died in 1939. He became Pope in 1922 and wrote 32 encyclicals. His most famous one, Quadragesimo Anno was chosen to highlight the 40th anniversary of Pope Leo XIII's encyclical which paved the way for the historic social reforms of 19th and 20th centuries. The reforms outlined in both encyclicals and ones that followed had far reaching effects in society both within and outside of Catholic circles. In the encyclical Pius XI addresses the ethical implications of the social and economic order. He describes the major dangers for human freedom and dignity arising from unrestrained capitalism and totalitarian Communism. Pius emphasizes the principal of subsidiarity and the importance of the "Common Good."

All this being said, it is my hope that as a parish community we will always find ways to promote social justice both within our parish, the Fullerton community, and in the public forum where countless men, women, and children are in need of common necessities and the dignity of work and workers is upheld. Through your generosity we are making significant progress in our outreach programs. In this election year hopefully we will participate in the Catholic Bishops' Faithful Citizenship program to further be a voice promoting the "Common Good."

Once again our Knights of Columbus will sponsor the blood drive this weekend. My special thanks to Brian Burley and the Knights for providing this service to help pass on the gift of life.

Your generosity last Sunday in the Building Fund second collection will be used to help pay down our debt of $1,200,000. We should easily be under one million dollars by this time next year. This weekend our school second collection is enabling us to add to our scholarship fund for needy parents. Thank you to all who make the effort to share your treasure. It is not always easy.

Our Servite Secular Order will meet this Wednesday, July 25 at 7 pm in room 3. The OSSM is the lay branch of the Order and new applicants are welcomed at the meeting. If you have an interest and want to learn more come to the meeting or speak to Catherine at the office and we will put you in contact with the prior and prioress, Dave and Heather Lazaro.

Now that we are in the air-conditioning season, it is so important to keep the church doors closed while services are taking place. The ushers will make sure the doors are closed once Mass starts. At the end of Mass when everyone has left they will make sure the doors are closed. Each one needs to help because often the ushers are helping others or cleaning the church at the conclusion of Mass.

A quote from the Dalai Lama: "Compassion is what makes our lives meaningful. It is the source of all lasting happiness and joy. And it is the foundation of a good heart, the heart of one who acts out of a desire to help others. Through kindness, through affection, through honesty, through truth and justice toward all others we ensure our own benefit."

In the Joy of Our Faith,
Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M.
Pastor

P.S. Vacation Bible School was an amazing event this last week. We hope to see you all back next year! God bless all our children...young and older.

God bless your discernment.

"ANGELS IN EDUCATION"

Over the years the cost of a quality Catholic education has increased dramatically and the availability of a quality Catholic education has fallen dramatically. Over the last number of years we have seen the closing of schools at St. Boniface and St. Anthony Claret in Anaheim and St. Mary, St. Philip Benizi, and Annunciation in Fullerton. We are at a very crucial and critical time for Catholic education and for Catholic schools. We, as Catholics, must support our Catholic schools. If Catholic schools are to survive they must become our ministry. School families are unable to do it all on their own. They need us and we need them.

This year we begin our annual appeal Angels In Education to assist with the financial needs of Our School. Your gift will give the gift of Catholic education to our children. A portion of your donation will benefit the Juliana Education Fund that provides financial aid scholarships to those families who have demonstrated financial need. A portion of your donation will be used for the current operations of the school in the areas that our principal, Mr. Gonzales, consider most urgent and important. The remainder of your gift will be put into the Falcon Fund that is our Endowment Fund for Saint Juliana School.

We sincerely ask for your help with our Angels In Education appeal this year. Your donation directly assists Saint Juliana Falconieri School. The students of our school are the future leaders and caretakers of our community and our world. Your contribution creates a legacy for our future. We hope that you will consider giving to Saint Juliana Falconieri School through our Angels in Education Annual Appeal. Your generosity to our school is tax deductible and will be so acknowledged.

FAMILIES NEEDED TO HOST STUDENTS FROM CHINA

Mater Dei High School is expanding its international student population and is in need of families to host students from China.

Besides the quality, holistic, American education they will receive at Mater Dei, the home stay component will be another cornerstone of ensuring this program's success. Placing students with families who love and support Catholic education, and wish to share that can cultivate our students' understanding of the English language and American culture.

We invite YOU to be a host. This program allows you and the student to gain rich experiences through the melding of your different cultures. A monthly stipend is provided to offset the cost of hosting a student in your home. If interested, please contact Janet Lee at (714) 957-3776 or at jlee@materdei.org before July 27. Thank You for your support!
