THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

The parish Fall Festival is in full swing this weekend and I hope you plan on participating. Beside the rides, games, and good food and drink, there is always the opportunity to meet parishioners, foster new friendships, and renew old acquaintances. At festival time it is usual that some former parishioners who have long moved out of the Fullerton area will return to see old friends. The most enjoyable aspect of the Festival for me is observing the young children and teens having fun. Our young ones are fearless, and even with stomachs filled with pizza, cotton candy, popcorn, and slurpees, they have the courage to ride the Zipper and other thrill rides designed to sicken even the bravest among us.

I was handed an envelope the other day from a benefactor who often worships with us here at St. Juliana and who from time to time shares her musical talents with the choir. She read in the bulletin that I want to purchase processional candlesticks for the altar servers to carry in procession during our weekend Masses. The candles I have in mind are beautifully crafted and can be carried easily by our acolytes. Enclosed in the envelope was a check for $100 designated for the purchase of the candlesticks. If you would like to help, any donation would be welcomed. I know there are parishioners who are inspired to finance a particular need. In the last three years, benefactors have come forward to pay for the statue of St. Peregrine, the painting of the St. Juliana statue, the Holy Oils Ambry, new communion cups, the electric candles and stands, and of course our new church organ. These designated gifts, along with your support to the PSA and other fund raisers, have helped us become a truly wonderful Stewardship Parish.

Next weekend we will begin our yearly October Mass count. The ushers will be tallying all who attend Mass during the month of October. The purpose behind this yearly event is to measure trends in church attendance across the United States. In reviewing the St. Juliana count over the past three years the total attendance for three years is fairly stable. In 2009 the total attendance was 6,308 with an average of 1,577; in 2010 the total attendance was 5,871 with an average of 1,468; in 2011 the total attendance was 6,305 with an average 1,576. Encouraging those who come to Mass infrequently will help us raise our October count as well as offering an opportunity to further their relationship with our Lord and his Body the Church.

October is also Respect Life Month. Through the efforts of Barbara Legas, Claire McKellogg, and our Respect Life team, St. Juliana has been a model parish in support of respect life issues. Abortion is one of many issues that come under the umbrella of "Pro-Life." War, elder care, death penalty, poverty and quality of life are added issues related to both the institutional (political) and moral/ethical (religious) dimensions of how we take care of each other and stand up for the rights of those most vulnerable in Society. We may even include issues related to Religious Liberty. In order to better educate ourselves and to keep before us the larger picture of how our Catholic Church views these matters, we have invited Keith Cotton, Birth Choice Health Clinic's clinic manager to talk at all the weekend Masses October 13 and 14.

You may have heard or read that Pope Benedict XVI has appointed a new bishop for the Diocese of Orange to succeed outgoing Bishop Tod D. Brown who officially retired last year at the age of 75. Bishop Brown has endeared himself to both the priests and laity of the Diocese by his gentle, caring, and responsible leadership for the past 14 years. The Diocese of Orange is the tenth largest Roman Catholic Diocese in the United States. It is comprised of 62 parishes and diocesan centers and has a population of 1.2 million Catholics.

The new Bishop is Bishop Kevin W. Vann, the current Bishop of Fort Worth, Texas. He will be installed as the fourth Bishop of Orange in December. A native of Springfield, Illinois, Bishop Vann is an accomplished pianist, an expert in canon law and a gifted organizer. When installed as Bishop in 2005, the Diocese of Fort Worth served 400,000 area Catholics. Under his leadership the Diocese has become a larger and more dynamic Catholic community serving 700,000 Catholics, more than 50 percent Hispanic. He is recognized for innovative parish-based and diocesan initiatives and a leading member of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' Committee on Migration. Working within the Texas Catholic Conference, Bishop Vann has encouraged comprehensive immigration reform in the State of Texas and nationally. His outreach to all immigrant communities, including the growing Vietnamese and Asian populations now present in Texas, will be important assets when beginning his assignment in the multi-cultural Diocese of Orange. Bishop Vann is fluent in Spanish and Italian and is developing his Vietnamese language skills.

In response to Bishop Vann's appointment as his successor, Bishop Brown said: "The Diocese of Fort Worth has enjoyed a dynamic period of growth and the demands for comprehensive pastoral services there are not unlike those we have experienced here in the Diocese of Orange. Bishop Vann enjoys an enviable record of success and I am exceedingly pleased by his appointment as my episcopal successor."

One of Bishop Vann's on-going duties will be to continue oversight of the "Catholization" of the Crystal Cathedral to be renamed: Christ Cathedral. Bishop Brown has asked pastors to arrange for a date when parishioners could visit the Cathedral as a group. A tentative date for St. Juliana is January 19th at 1 pm. Details and a date confirmation will follow after the New Year.

Parishioners who attend the Saturday evening five o'clock Mass may have noticed that Fr. Mike Pontarelli, O.S.M. and Fr. Aaron Riomasos have been the celebrants for the past two months. Fr. Luke has had one or two Masses. I have not been the celebrant. That is not by choice. The reason for my absence has been the availability of Fr. Mike and Fr. Aaron. Because of other commitments they were available only on Saturday evenings. While I am grateful for their help, I hope to be back in the loop and take my turn to celebrate with you. Since most parishioners have their favorite Mass time, this is the only time I have the opportunity to see the Saturday night "regulars."

With the Presidential election in about six weeks every American will have the opportunity to exercise his or her right to vote in a free democratic society. That is a good thing and as Catholics we are called to Faithful Citizenship. Faithful citizenship refers to the responsibility we each have to form our consciences, and to use those informed consciences in making all of our decisions, including voting decisions. Church leadership has an obligation to help us to form our consciences and by doing so, helps us become faithful citizens.

The U.S. bishops identify the following as "fundamental problems" of our day—and as significant issues in the upcoming election: Abortion and "other threats" to those who are weak or vulnerable; Threats to religious freedom, namely "renewed efforts to force Catholic ministries—in health care, education, and social services—to violate their consciences or stop serving those in need;" Efforts to redefine marriage away from "the permanent, faithful, and fruitful union of one man and one woman;" The current economic crises and all that flows from it; A "broken immigration system;" "Wars, terror, and violence," with a special emphasis on "the absence of justice, security, and peace" in the Middle East.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops created a website of resources for all Catholics: www.FaithfulCitizenship.org. There you will find the full text of the bishops' statement, prayers and other resources for parishes and individuals.

A parting thought from David Hawkins as published in, Bits & Pieces, a division of Lawrence Regan Communications Inc.: "Make a gift of your life, and lift all mankind by being kind, considerate, forgiving, and compassionate at all times, in all places, and under all conditions, with everyone as well as yourself. This is the greatest gift anyone can give."

In the Joy of Our Faith,
Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M.,
Pastor

The goal of this Edge Night is to help the youth understand the Catholic Church's teaching on solidarity and call them to action in living it out. The night focuses on love of neighbor and how Jesus Christ shows us not only the dignity of humanity, but also how to respond to the needs of those around us.

EDGE is open to all middle school youth, grades 6-8. We meet in the Newman Center located in the parish school. Call Mike McHenry for more information, 714-879-1965.

SCHOOL HAPPENINGS

Dear St. Juliana Parish Community,

Halloween is just around the corner. Attendance at the St. Juliana School Back to School Night was fantastic! Thank you for your support and the commitment to your children's spiritual as well as intellectual growth.

Our school theme for the month of October is RESPECT. This is also Respect Life Month, so our theme is most appropriate. Human life is sacred and the dignity of the human person is the foundation of the church's social teachings. October is the month of the Holy Rosary too~the students will be praying the rosary daily.

ITBS Testing is coming to an end at St. Juliana School. We expect results around the beginning of November. We will use the results to determine areas of concentration in the curriculum for the coming school year. The results reflect a snapshot in time for each student. It is only one piece of the puzzle in determining how best to maximize the learning for all students.

Our sixth grade school students will be attending Astrocamp this month. Please keep them all in your prayers as they travel to and from Astrocamp. The annual 'Trunk or Treat' will be October 26th in the parking lot. Contact the school for information if you are interested in participating in this annual event. Please restrict the amount of candy sent to school with any students following Halloween.

All persons coming onto campus at any time to meet, talk with students or teachers, etc. must sign in at the School Office. No parent, relative, guardian, friend, etc. may enter campus without checking in with the School Office. This includes all those who volunteer for any activity at any time. We have only the student's safety in mind. Your cooperation is appreciated.

We keep in heart and mind those in our community who are in need of prayers. Prayers mean so much to those who need them. I personally want to extend my gratitude for your outpouring of love and support to my family. Your love and support has given me the strength to persevere. May God always continue to bless you and your family, and the St. Juliana Community.

The school also wants to wish our pastor Fr. Frank special birthday blessings on October 3rd. God Bless you!

Sincerely,
Mr. Manuel Gonzales, Jr.
Principal
