THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

I received a phone call recently from Beverly Housman, the daughter of Audrey Daigle. Beverly called to inform me that her 80 year old mother died and would I put a notice in St. Juliana's parish bulletin. Audrey worked for many years as cook and housekeeper for Father Bob Vidal and a short time for Father Jude. Her husband, Chet was a handyman and worked for the parish in maintenance. Let us remember Audrey in our prayers for her many years of service to the parish.

In a recent edition of the Orange County Register I happened upon a short announcement that the City of Fullerton will pay $40,000 to allow the National Guard Armory on South Brookhurst Road, which serves as a homeless shelter from December through March, to be open to the homeless population up to four weeks sooner. The money will pay costs incurred by Mercy House, the nonprofit group that operates the shelter. Our Knights of Columbus Council has served the Armory for many years. The Knights are asking for your help not only to provide comfort to the homeless but to sort and deliver clothing and other necessities. If you are willing to devote extra time to this ministry and have the means to help in this effort, please contact the office at (714) 879-1965 or Grand Knight, Brian Burley at (714) 738-8036.

On a related topic, you may have heard of the Catholic Worker, Isaiah House. This Catholic based outreach organization in Santa Ana is committed to nonviolence, voluntary poverty, prayer, and hospitality for the homeless, exiled, hungry, and forsaken. The volunteers are always in need of helping hands to prepare food for those who seek shelter and nourishment. The Catholic Worker movement was founded by Peter Maurin and Dorothy Day during the Great Depression to aid the destitute and unemployed.

St. Juliana parishioners made a commitment about 10 years ago to give Isaiah House a helping hand on every second Friday of the month in preparing the evening meal. Parishioners have graciously given their time to prepare food and contributed clothing, monetary gifts, and accessories. Unfortunately, volunteers have diminished and now the six or seven who remain find it difficult to commit every month. There are months when we only have two or three volunteers, and sad to say, sometimes none. The ideal would be to have as many volunteers as possible to take turns with at least five to six at a time on the day we are assigned.

Isaiah House is located in the city of Santa Ana at 316 S. Cypress Ave. Volunteers leave from St. Juliana most of the time in carpools at 3:00 and return around 6:30pm.

Isaiah House is located in the city of Santa Ana at 316 S. Cypress Ave. Volunteers leave from St. Juliana most of the time in carpools at 3:00 and return around 6:30pm.

I urge you to consider this worthwhile outreach organization. Three and a half hours of your time is needed to help prepare the food. Monetary gifts or food donations are accepted but not necessary. All the food accessories and ingredients are already provided and a designated individual at the house is assigned to guide you in what needs to be done. The main task is to prepare salads, vegetables and fruit. The meal is then served to about forty women at the house and kitchen clean-up follows. Other volunteers serve about 150 at the Civic Center.

Please contact Barbara Dietterle, the St. Juliana Coordinator at (714) 525-2208 or Deacon Gerhard, her assistant at (714) 870-5714 for more information or to volunteer. I plan on going the next second Friday.

This will be a busy weekend with the Capital Campaign Commitment Drive, the Knights of Columbus Pancake Breakfast and I.D. Drive, and World Mission Sunday (transferred from last week). It is definitely a "hard at work" weekend and I hope you will participate with an open heart and mind.

Celebrate Halloween as a Family. Take time to help your children understand the deeper significance of the All Saints/All Souls connection. Remember that All Saints is a holy day of obligation. Attending Mass as a family will emphasize the Catholic nature of the holiday, and you can include a visit to the family cemetery plot or the graves of deceased relatives to offer prayers and remembrances.

Please support the Renee Bondi Concert next Saturday and the Young Ladies Institute (YLI) Nut Sale. Both are good causes.

I read this funny quip taken from the Random House Book of Jokes and Anecdotes:

Mr. Crowley had just been approved for a mortgage on a unit in a swank downtown high-rise that was very selective about its residents. He appeared before the co-op board for an interview hoping to seal the deal. "Do you own a piano?" "No." "Do you play any musical instrument?" "No." "Do you sing in the shower?" "No." "Do you listen to loud music?" "No." "Do you like to host loud parties?" "No." "Do you have any children?" "No." "Do you own a cat, dog, bird, or any animal that makes noise?" "No," said Mr. Crowley, "but I think I should warn you that sometimes I sneeze."

In the Joy of Our Faith,
Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M.
Pastor

NOTES FROM MUSIC MINISTRY BY PHI TRAN, DIRECTOR OF THE YOUTH BAND

When someone tells me, "I can't sing," I often repeat a quote I heard from an enthusiastically tone-deaf priest: "If God didn't want you to sing, he wouldn't have given you a voice. And God doesn't care how well you sing, so why should anyone else around you?" He or she laughs at me as much as that congregation laughed at his saying, for they all knew it was true. God has blessed us with the ability to give our love and gratitude to Him in the form of our voices -- and not just by speaking, but by singing.

Phi Tran

Of course, it's hard to find someone who says, "I don't like music." We all have our preferences of music that we like, varying by age, not only because of the words that connect us to the music, but because of how it's put into song. Oftentimes, a song that may have been considered popular decades ago probably gets a pass from teenagers today. Sometimes, however, among the new ones musicians play, older songs can be made popular again through covers of today's musicians who love those songs and want to bring them to the current generation.

Being part of the Youth Band is one of the biggest blessings I've ever experienced in my life because I am one of those musicians. Having come from three Diocese of Orange parishes with incredible music ministries and mentors, I have been humbled to transform the Youth Band into a true ministry, serving God and congregation first, ourselves last. Our calling is to make worship relevant to every person, bridging gaps between tradition, history, and the present. We introduce new music that is spirited, truthful, and modern, yet we are stylizing timeless hymns and congregational favorites in more prayerful, joyful, and reflective ways that amplify our Sunday readings. We pray, study Scripture, play the occasional laser tag, attend conferences, and of course, rehearse, and participate at Mass.

We invite you to the Sunday 5pm Mass and pray with our music/sound ministry. Our Youth Band continuously seeks help with both music and managing our sound equipment. If you are in middle school, high school, college, post-college, or young-at-heart and think God may be calling you to our ministry, please e-mail me at pixel@pixeliph.com, call/text me at (714) 725-9908, or come to our Mass. A servant's heart is absolutely essential. All instruments welcome. We especially are in need of a drummer! We prefer vocalists/instrumentalists who have some musical experience and are willing to dedicate time to developing their talents. No experience required for sound equipment management.

No matter what Mass you attend, here or elsewhere, we hope that you will sing along as God leads us in that joyful song of salvation, whether it's a morning celebration with a choir and organ, or an afternoon worship with a band. We love it when we can hear you, and so will our Lord.

CATHOLICISM 101

The first use of the term, "the Catholic Church" is found in the letter of St. Ignatius to the Smyrnaeans, written about the year 110. The words run: "Wheresoever the bishop shall appear, there let the people be, even as where Jesus may be, there is the universal (katholike) Church.

DIOCESE OF ORANGE

St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Church Campaign Newsletter

October 26 & 27, 2013 • Volume 8

This Weekend Is Commitment Weekend!

Our For Christ Forever Campaign Commitment Weekend takes place this weekend here at St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Church. Please consider your pledge to the campaign today. If you have not had an opportunity to make your pledge, please complete one of the pledge envelopes available in the pews and place it in today's collection.

Why is Pledging Vital?

- > A pledge allows you to make a continuous sacrifice that adds up to a significant contribution over a period of time.
- > A pledge makes payments less of a burden than a one-time gift.
- > A pledge gives the parish and Diocese an accurate estimate for future planning.

Your pledge is a statement of your intent to give to the best of your ability. The Bishop and our Reverend Frank Falco O.S.M. know that when you make your pledge, you will do your best to fulfill it. A 10% down payment is encouraged but not necessary.

How do I make my Gift?

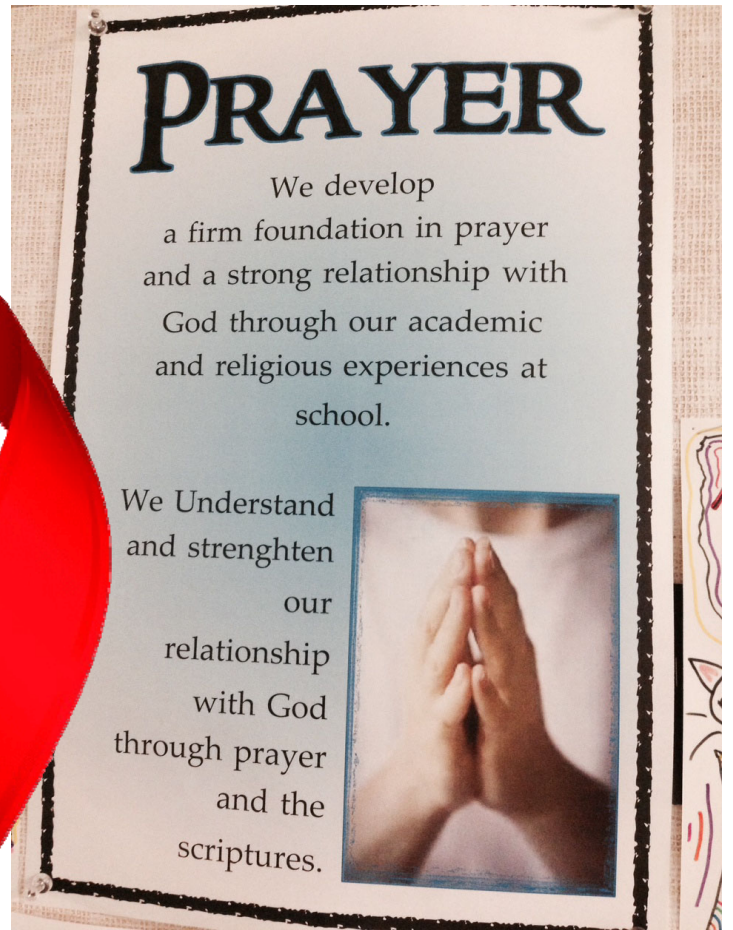

To assist you in making your decision, Suggested Gift Plans are presented below. Keep in mind that while no pledge is too small or too large, it should have some relationship to how generous God has been to you and your family.

ISAIAH HOUSE ~ CATHOLIC WORKER

Many of you may have heard of this Catholic based outreach organization called Isaiah House or Catholic Worker in Santa Ana, that is committed to nonviolence, voluntary poverty, prayer, and hospitality for the homeless, exiled, hungry, and forsaken. They are always in need of helping hands to prepare food for the unfortunates.

We the parish of St. Juliana Falconieri made a commitment about ten years ago to give them a helping hand every second Friday of the month in preparing food for an evening meal. Through the years we have had a number of parishioners who graciously gave their time to prepare food and also contributed clothing, monetary gifts, and other accessories. For the past three years our volunteers have diminished to about five to seven who have a difficult time committing every month; therefore, there are months where we only have two or three volunteers, and sometimes none. We need five to six volunteers every month!

The Isaiah House is located in the city of Santa Ana at 316 S. Cypress Ave. We leave from St. Juliana Church, most of the time in carpools, at 3:00 p.m. and return around 6:30 p.m.

We urge you to consider this worthwhile outreach organization. We are only asking for three and a half hours of your time to help prepare the food, no monetary gifts or food donations. All the food accessories and ingredients are already provided and a designated individual at the house is there to guide us in what needs to be done. Our main tasks are preparing salads, vegetables, and fruits. We also serve the meal to about 40 women at the house and do kitchen clean-up. Other volunteers serve about 150 at the civic center.

Please contact Barbara Dietterle, the Coordinator, at 714-525-2208, or Deacon Gerhard Stadel, her assistant, at 714-870-5714 for more information.
