THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Our Knights of Columbus handled the colossal work of replacing our Breaking Bread Missalettes in the blue binders of the church, as we begin the new Church Liturgical Season of Advent, with admirable determination. It took real effort and time to separate the old hymnals from the plastic sleeves. Many of them became glued to the sleeves and had to be cut out.

The back cover of the new missalettes needed to be inserted into the binder, leaving the front cover of the new missal loose. The new binders, which we will eventually need to replace all the old binders in the church, will have only one clear sleeve in it. (If you try to insert the front page paper cover of the missal into the clear sleeve of the blue binder it damages the missal binding.) My special thanks to all the Knights who gave up their Saturday morning to tackle this project.

Your generosity to the Retired Religious Fund this weekend is a sign of your continued gratitude for the many years of service given by Religious Women and Men to both the educational and pastoral ministry of the Church. I am grateful to Sister Margaret (Peggy) Ramsden, SFCC (Sisters For Christian Community) for her presence with us this weekend at all the Masses. Sister is assigned to the Diocese of Orange in the Canonical Services department.

In last week's bulletin you received a letter from John and Maureen Kohaut, Festival Chairs, thanking all the workers, sponsors, booth captains and other volunteers in so many lesser positions during the Festival this past September. This yearly event is meant to be community building not only here in the parish but also in the larger locale of Fullerton. I don't believe there is an accurate way to measure the participation of our neighbors near and far, but I trust our efforts at publicizing the fiesta in various media brought new faces and families to enjoy the festivities. The financials so far show that we will net about $73,600. Barring any last minute surprises, that figure should stand.

St. Juliana parishioners will once again join with the staff and other volunteers to feed and minister to the residents of Isaiah House in Santa Ana on Friday, December 13th. Isaiah House is a Catholic Worker house of hospitality providing shelter and meals to about 40 women residents in the spirit of Peter Maurin and Dorothy Day who founded the Catholic Worker Movement during the Great Depression. I hope to join Deacon Gerhard and Barbara Dietterle who have organized St. Juliana parishioners as part of our outreach to the homeless and hungry for many years. I would also like to suggest that we send Christmas cards to all the residents who no doubt get very little personal mail. Once I get a list of all the names, I would like to ask you if you would be willing to write one or two Christmas cards to each of the residents. I will supply the cards and stamps. What do you think? My hope is that every resident gets at least two or three cards with a little note wishing them a Blessed Christmas. If you would be willing to do that, please call the office (714)-879-1965 or let me know when you see me. That would make me very happy and the residents too!

In last week's bulletin I introduced a brief summary of the Advent Season taken from Catholic Customs and Traditions by Greg Dues. The author has these words to say about the very popular and ubiquitous Advent Wreath: "The Advent Wreath, which may be of any size, is made of greens and is placed on a table or suspended from the ceiling. There are four candles, one for each week of Advent. The color of the candles is not an essential factor because the symbolism is primarily in the flame. It is popular, however, that three of them be violet or purple, the traditional color of Advent. One is rose, the traditional color of the Third Sunday of Advent, originally called Gaudete ("Rejoice") Sunday from the first word of the entrance antiphon for Mass... After the wreath is blessed on the first Sunday of Advent, a prayer is prayed and a candle lit. This ceremony repeats on each of the following three Sundays. Light increases, pushing out darkness, with another candle lit until all four are burning.... Wreaths have always been symbolic of victory and glory. The basic symbolism of the Advent Wreath goes beyond this. It lies in the tension between darkness and light. It represents the long time when people lived in spiritual darkness waiting for the coming of the Messiah, the light of the world. Each year in Advent people wait once again in darkness for the coming of the Lord, his historical coming in the mystery of Bethlehem, his final coming at the end of time, and his special coming in every moment of grace."

About a month ago the momentous typhoon named, Haiyan, devastated regions of the Philippines killing countless residents and destroying homes and businesses. While Catholic Charities and other religious and secular organizations responded quickly to the plight of those most affected by the disaster, these worthwhile agencies could not keep up with the supply and demand. Donations from individuals were needed to augment what organized charity could not provide. I am proud of our St. Vincent de Paul Society for their sizeable contribution of $1,000 through the auspices of the National Office of SVD. Our school children donated $741.06 along with individual St. Juliana parishioners who gave $1,775.00. Adding the gift of $1,000 from parish funds the grand total of $4,516.06 was forwarded to aid with the recovery efforts.

Monday evening our parish will celebrate our yearly Advent Reconciliation Service in Church beginning at 7pm. I truly encourage you to take advantage of this opportunity to reflect, pray, and acknowledge our need for forgiveness. Do not be afraid or apprehensive. The role of the confessor is not to censure or rebuke, but to compassionately proclaim God's mercy and absolution. The communal celebration of the sacrament is the most benign way to experience "confession." See you there!

Our Junior High Youth ministry under the direction of Scott Kambak has an exciting Traditional Advent Gathering planned for this Wednesday, December 11th from 7:30 pm to 9:00 pm in the Seven Holy Founders' room in the Parish Center. All the teens are asked to bring a small gift to be given to children in need at their own expense. This request can be a teachable moment for our youth as they begin to understand the value of sacrifice and sharing.

In the Joy of Our Faith,
Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M.
Pastor

SECOND COLLECTION 12/7 & 8 FOR THE RETIRED RELIGIOUS GUEST HOMILIST: SR. PEGGY RAMSDEN

Each year, through the generosity of Catholics across the nation, nearly 34,000 senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests benefit from the Retired Fund For Religious collection. Despite this collection, many religious communities struggle to care for their older members as health-care costs skyrocket and the number of those needing care grows. Please continue to support this collection, which is this weekend December 7th and 8th. Thank you!

CHRISTMAS FLOWERS

Christmas flowers in the church are such a delightful awakening after our Advent preparation for Christ. Please contribute to the Christmas décor of the church by using your offertory "Christmas Flowers" envelope - or specifically designate "Christmas Flowers" on any gift you would like to contribute to enable us to add more flowers, trees, and evergreen wreaths to our environment for upcoming Christmas liturgies. If you receive envelopes, please deposit the designated envelope in the regular Sunday offertory, or mark any gift as "Christmas Flowers". Thank You!

CATHOLICISM 101

We tend to think of Advent only as the season in which we prepare for Christmas, or the First Coming of Christ, but it is important that we also remember it as a celebration in which we look forward to the Second Coming of Christ. Properly speaking, Advent is a season that brings to mind the Two Comings of Christ.

VOCATION THOUGHT

Who will herald Christ in our world? Consider becoming a priest, brother, or sister. (Matthew 3:10-12)

DIOCESE OF ORANGE FOR CHRIST FOREVER CAMPAIGN

Pledge Totals Surpass $738,885 at St. Juliana Falconieri!

Our For Christ Forever Campaign Committee would like to thank all the families and individuals who have contributed so far and have made the diocesan campaign a great success. We have received $735,885 in pledges from 212 parish individuals and families. At this time, we are awaiting a response from over 1,300 of our parish families. Currently, we are at 54% of goal from only 14% of our parish. Please keep in mind that since we have surpassed our 2013 PSA goal in cash, we will now receive 25% of all monies collected up to our campaign target of $1,287,473. Our rebate will be used to pay down the Parish Center loan that currently stands at $838,503 and make some roof repairs to the Church and rectory.

DIOCESAN INFO:

As of December 2nd, we are happy to report receipt of $76.5 million in pledges from over 20,000 donors. Let's continue being BOLD by being Catholic. Thank you! TOGETHER we are doing GREAT things!

Our campaign is based on every family making an equal sacrifice, not an equal gift. Please prayerfully consider what you can do to support the campaign for both our parish and for our Diocese. It is only through prayer and sacrifice that we can make this campaign successful. Please make your gift today to help reduce the number of follow-up calls our Campaign Committee will have to make over the next few weeks.

NOTE: Pledge and Gift totals are as of 12/2/2013.

A NOTE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Dear St Juliana Falconieri Community,
"Education is integral to the mission of Church to proclaim the Good News. First and foremost every Catholic educational institution is a place to encounter the living God who in Jesus Christ reveals his transforming love and truth." (Pope Benedict XVI)

I hope your Thanksgiving was enjoyable - we celebrate Advent with hope in our hearts as we await Jesus' birth. The Advent readings remind us of the light in our lives symbolized in the Advent Wreath. Each week our lives become brighter as we light an additional candle. The readings each week call us to focus on preparation for Jesus' coming and the joy we anticipate on Christmas when the greatest gift was given.

I would like to thank the Parent Club and the golf chairs: Bob Hanz, Mike Mungaray, Marc Labreche, and Ralph Mejias for this year's St Juliana Golf Tournament. It was a wonderful event with beautiful southern California weather and great food. I would also like to thank the St Juliana Parish community who participated in our Golf Tournament. All monies raised go to benefit the art lab, science lab, technology, and other academic areas.

St Juliana faculty and students will be participating in our annual Catholic Charities Adopt-A-Family, Mary's Shelter, Toys for Tots, and St. Vincent de Paul. Students in second through sixth grades, with the exception of third grade, sponsor a family with each student receiving the name and clothing sizes for their family member. Catholic Charities has informed us that the families look to us to provide clothing rather than toys. Our goal is that each member of the family receives three to four gifts. Seventh grade students will provide a specific $20.00 gift card for the clients at Mary's Shelter. Our kindergarten, first, and eighth grades with the staff participate in the St. Vincent de Paul toy drive sponsored by the parish. They will be providing a $10.00 - $15.00 toy for those children. This year our third grade class will again be partnering with the United States Marine Corps in Toys for Tots. We are very excited to be part of this longstanding tradition. All donations need to be at school by Monday December 16th for delivery.

The Advent Program is this Friday, December 13th at 7:00pm. All are welcome to attend! Students have been hard at work preparing for an evening that celebrates the Advent season and Christmas. The teachers have worked diligently in anticipation of this event. Additional events for the month are: Parents' Day Out on Saturday December 14th and our choir and cantor Christmas show on Friday December 20th from 9-10am.

Have a prayerful Advent, a joyous Christmas, and hopeful New Year. We cannot lose sight of the reason for this season and the mighty gift of love. We are truly blessed in our faith and our ability to share it with each other. May God bless you and your families this Christmas.

Sincerely,
 Manuel Gonzales Jr., Principal
