THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*“If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
 If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
 But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
 The eye cannot say to the hand, ‘I do not need you,’ nor again the head to the feet, ‘I do not need you.’
 Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
 Now you are Christ’s body, and individually parts of it.”* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

The feast day of the Seven Holy Founders of the Servite Order is normally celebrated on February 17th. Since this date falls on the 1st Sunday of Lent, the feast day is transferred to this Monday, February 18th. Both morning Masses on Monday will be taken from the Servite missal. Following the 8am Mass we will have some light refreshments. I hope you will attend.

Last weekend I had the opportunity to participate in the annual Men's retreat at Mater Dolorosa Retreat House in Sierra Madre. There were 40 plus men from the parish in attendance. As in the past, St. Juliana was the largest group. There were five other parishes present for the weekend. All the retreatants observed the silence admirably. It requires effort to spend an entire weekend in silence. Terry Reinbold has served as retreat Captain for many years and the consistent exemplary turnout is due in large measure to his efforts and steadfastness. My hope is that more of our school dads will consider attending next year.

Thank you for supporting our second collection for the school last weekend. Your generosity netted $1,285.50 to help needy families supplement their tuition. This total does not include gifts parishioners give electronically. The complete monthly financial report will appear at the end of the month.

I hope by now you have taken one of the cardboard "Rice Bowls" from the church entrance. When you have filled your bowl as a family sacrifice or individually, please convert the coin into paper money, place it in the envelope provided and then bring the envelope to church on the last Sunday of Lent. We will then forward your Lenten sacrifice to Catholic Relief Services. Every year, the Catholic community in the United States assists more than 100 million of the world's poorest people through the Catholic Relief Services, with innovative, long term solutions to poverty, hunger, drought and disease, and with emergency crisis relief.

The "Little Black Book" distributed by the Small Christian Communities is a useful tool for Lenten reading. I hope you have taken one from the church. While these are free you may leave a donation to cover the cost.

By now the retirement of Pope Benedict XVI is common knowledge. His decision is certainly a wise one. Years of suffering and incapacitation endured by Pope John Paul II was certainly admirable but seemed like torture for the Pontiff. Pope Benedict sees his senior years more in line with practical wisdom. Most of us have worked hard all of our lives and retirement is not a sign of laziness or selfishness, rather it is an earned privilege.

On this first Sunday of Lent Fr. Henri Nouwen, writer, teacher, and spiritual director composed these words for our reflection: "His (Jesus) temptation reveals the true identity of Jesus. Jesus is the Beloved of God. This spiritual truth will guide all his thoughts, words and actions. It is the rock on which his compassionate ministry will be built. The 'Tempter' came to him (in the desert) asking him to prove that he was worth being loved. The

'Tempter' said to him: 'Do something useful, like turning stones into bread. Do something sensational, like throwing yourself down from a high tower. Do something that brings you power, like paying me homage.' These three temptations were three ways to seduce Jesus into becoming a competitor for love. The world of the 'Tempter' is precisely that world in which people compete for love through doing useful, sensational, and powerful things and so winning medals that gain them affection and admiration. Jesus, however, is very clear in his response: 'I don't have to prove that I am worthy of love. I am the Beloved of God, the One on whom God's favor rests.' It was that victory over the 'Tempter' that set Jesus free to choose for the compassionate life."

Congratulations to our children in St. Juliana School and in our Faith Formation program who celebrated the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time this Saturday. The children were so well prepared and for the most part were relaxed while participating in the ritual.

During Lent I hope you will consider celebrating morning Mass as frequently as possible. It is so heartening to see parishioners and even school children come to Mass. Also you may want to consider participating in the Stations of the Cross every Friday of Lent at 6 pm. If you come to the Fish Fry, come and pray the Stations before or after you eat.

Tickets are still on sale for the annual Get On the Bus dinner dance and auction co-sponsored by St. Juliana and the First Congregational Church of Fullerton on Saturday, March 2nd at 4pm in the Parish Center. Get On the Bus brings children and their guardians/caregivers from throughout the state of California to visit their mothers and fathers in prison. An annual event, Get On The Bus offers free transportation for the children and their caregivers to the prison, provides travel bags for the children, comfort care bags for the caregivers, a photo of each child with his or her parent, and meals for the day (breakfast, snacks on the bus, lunch at the prison, and dinner on the way home)---all at no cost to the children's family. On the trip home, following a four-hour visit, each child receives a teddy bear with a letter from their parent and post event counseling. If you are unable to attend, you may leave a donation at the office, in the offertory collection or in an envelope marked for the event.

The author Jerry Welte penned a short Lenten reflection entitled, "A Checkup with the Divine Physician" which I would like to share with you. It reads: "Lent is the season to come to the divine physician for healing. People are sometimes reluctant to go to a doctor for a checkup, in part because we tend to presume that we are okay, and in part because we are afraid to discover that we are not. We need not fear to visit Christ with our spiritual wounds and ills, however, for Jesus said, 'Those who are well do not need a physician; sick people do. I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners.' Let us open ourselves in this season of grace and mercy to the miraculous healing power of our Lord. Let us embrace our weakness so that we may be strong. May we be honest in diagnosing our ills in order to be made whole by God's love."

In the Joy of Our Faith,
Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M.,
Pastor

SERVITE SEVEN HOLY FOUNDERS

Feast of the Seven Holy Founders (February 17th)

Bonfilius, Bonajuncta, Manettus, Amadeus, Hugh, Sostene, and Alexis are the names with which were canonized the seven men who, around the middle of the thirteenth century, founded the Order of Friar Servants of Saint Mary in Florence. The Church and the Order venerate them with the title of the Seven Holy Founders. They were lay men and merchants; some were married, others single or widowed.

ORDER OF SERVANTS OF MARY
1233 ♦ Celebrating 775 Years ♦ 2008

They were animated by a strong desire for Christian perfection and belonged to the Greater Society of Our Lady. As members of this Society they served God and

Our Lady by practicing works of charity and penance. Their desire to serve God eventually led them to leave their homes and businesses and to form a community outside the city walls. About the year 1245 they moved to Monte Senario, about twelve miles from Florence, where they built a small church and dwelling. Soon other men, desirous of prayer and solitude, joined them. Because of the holiness of their lives, the seriousness of their religious commitment, and the esteem of the people, they obtained first the approval of the bishop of Florence Ardingo, and then that of the Apostolic See. From Monte Senario the Seven and their followers returned to Florence to engage in apostolic work, and at Cafaggio they built a church, the first nucleus of the present basilica of Santissima Annunziata.

Historical data about the Seven Holy Founders are not numerous; even their names, except for Bonfilius and Alexis, are uncertain. But the spiritual characteristics of their life are certain, as told in the Legenda de origine Ordinis, the oldest account of the work of the Seven Saints, transmitted by an uninterrupted tradition. These characteristics are an ardent love of God and Our Lady, humility, a spirit of service, a disposition to harmony and pardon, and an active desire to promote peace.

The Seven Holy Founders were canonized as a group by Pope Leo XIII in 1888. Their mortal remains are venerated in the basilica of Monte Senario.

Join us at this Lenten Mission as we experience
3 different speakers ~ on 3 different aspects of faith

Monday, February 25th our first presenter for the mission will be Fr. Al Baca, pastor of St Cecilia Church and the Vicar of the Office of Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs for the Diocese of Orange. Fr. Al will speak about the nature of Faith.

Tuesday, February 26th Dr. Kathy Shinhofen will return to us to speak about "Faith Growing and the Person of Jesus".

Wednesday, February 27th we will have the pleasure of welcoming Mr. Dwight Smith of Isaiah House, a homeless shelter in Santa Ana. Dwight will speak to us about "Faith Matured and Manifested in Our Life".

Don't let this Lenten season pass by without transformation in your life!

BULLETIN SPOTLIGHT

Katherine Futterer Scott is our newest St. Juliana bulletin advertiser. Katherine offers voice lessons in Anaheim. Phone # 714-624-6102. Email address achangedvoice@gmail.com.

Website: <http://katherinescott.musicteachershelper.com>. Her office hours are Sun.-Thurs. by appointment only. Katherine has been teaching voice since 2008, but just officially opened her private studio in January. Her father Eric Futterer is also a voice teacher and she was raised with constant music in their home. After she finished college, her father suggested that she try teaching singing and he offered to mentor her. She had no idea how much she would love it and what a voice geek she would become. Now she cannot think of anything more thrilling to do with her time than to help people build and repair their voices.

Katherine works with all the aesthetic aspects of the voice, from tone quality enhancement to complete vocal rebuild. She considers herself like a mechanic for voices. She teaches people of all ages to sing and to speak with greater clarity, strength, and flexibility. Her clientele ranges from beginners to professional singers. Many people assume that she just teaches children and are amazed to find that she actually teaches mostly adults. Once the emotional maturity to study an instrument has been reached, there is no time that is too late to study. She has a lady in her late 60s whose voice had completely failed her who is now singing like she is 30 again.

Katherine's business, although run by her, is a family business. Her husband Kieran is the one who made it possible for her to leave a less fulfilling career path and pursue her desire to teach. Without his selflessness, she would still be working a desk job and filling up any spare time with students. In the end it works better this way for him too. She gets to teach full time, but now has time to spend with him when he gets home from school. As long as the church supports the growth and appreciation of live music through strong music ministries, there will always be community support for music teachers. She is so grateful to the community of St. Juliana's that welcomed them when they were newlyweds and have continued to support them in their worship together.

Katherine Scott would like to offer a free introductory voice lesson to anyone who references this bulletin spotlight when they call or email her. She looks forward to participating in our St. Juliana Business Expo.

VATICAN STATEMENT
SUCCESSOR TO THE POPE

The conclave that will elect Benedict XVI's successor will have 117 members on the day his resignation becomes official, at the end of this month. There are 61 Europeans, 19 Latin Americans, 14 North Americans, 11 Africans, 11 Asians and one from Oceania among the voters. Benedict XVI will not participate in the conclave. The country with the greatest number of cardinal-electors is Italy, with 21.

Sixty-seven of the electors were created by Benedict XVI and the remaining 50 by John Paul II.

The conclave will proceed according to the rules of "Ordo Rituum Conclavis," established by Pope John Paul II's apostolic constitution "Universi Dominici Gregis."

During the time between the Holy Father's resignation and the election of the next pontiff, Cardinal Tarcisio Bertone, as the cardinal camerlengo, will have the fundamental role in governing the Church.

While the conclave is ongoing, the cardinals reside within the Vatican. They are not permitted any contact with the outside world.

Jesuit Father Federico Lombardi, director of the Vatican press office, reported that Benedict XVI will go to the papal summer residence at Castel Gandolfo when he leaves office on Feb. 28. After that he will reside in a cloistered monastery within the Vatican walls. Please keep Pope Benedict in your prayers.
