THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*“If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
 If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
 But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
 The eye cannot say to the hand, ‘I do not need you,’ nor again the head to the feet, ‘I do not need you.’
 Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
 Now you are Christ’s body, and individually parts of it.”* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Father Pat Donovan's death last Sunday morning came as a startle to everyone. When I announced it at the 11am and 5pm Masses there was a hush in Church. Fr. Pat lived in a board and care home in Irvine and was very happy with his accommodations and care. Fr. Paul and I helped to move him to his new home last April and visited with him once he settled in. When Fr. Luke arrived he visited him a number of times along with parishioners and close friends of Fr. Pat.

A vigil service will take place this Sunday evening at 7pm in church with the recitation of the Office of the Dead from the Servite ritual. Our Vicar Provincial, Father Jerry Horan, O.S.M. will be the main celebrant of the Funeral Mass on Monday morning at 10am. Father Michael Pontarelli, O.S.M. will preach. Following Mass, there will be a reception in the Parish Center and the burial will follow at the Servite burial plot at Holy Sepulcher Cemetery.

Fr. Pat lived a relatively long and healthy life. His response when asked, "How are you doing?" was always the same, "Very well, thank you!" He was a determined person in whatever project he was engaged in. Once he made up his mind he hardly ever wavered. Devoted to his teaching career and the success of his students, Fr. Pat gave generously of his time and talent to his professional career that spanned over 40 years. May he rest in peace!

On this Third Sunday of Lent we hear the Gospel words: "Sir, let this fig tree alone for one more year." Jerry Welte in his pamphlet, "Lent the Healing Season" writes: We've heard the plea countless times in movies and TV shows: "Give me another chance!" Second chances are a precious, saving gift in relationships of all kinds. Friends, spouses, siblings, students, and employees have all benefited from the mercy and faith that bids a person to give us one more opportunity to come through and bear fruit. God is our ultimate role model in this, for each of us has been given countless second chances after failing to live up to our potential or the gospel. Let us pray this Sunday: "Patient God, in our weakness we fail you, but you offer us forgiveness. Help us to share the grace of your second chances."

Rosary High School sent me a list of St. Juliana graduates who have earned special recognition in their academic standing. I am happy to share the names of these students. Principal's Honors (4.0 and above): Madison Ashbrook, Emma Bolduc, Emily Calomino, Mary Calomino, Samantha Cassell, Gianna Cross, Caitlin Effenberger, Madeline Hartnett, Victoria Hoferer, Megan Irving, Lauren La Bruna, Jessica Linton, Whitney Linton, Kelly Loughran, Caylin McCallick, Noelle Nisco, Anna Rulloda, Katherine Russell, Hannah Segal, Lauren Wesseln, Jacqueline Wyper. First Honors (3.5 to 3.99): Jaelyn Bigley, Jessica Hernandez, Laurel Hunzicker, Anastasia Mungaray, Marie Nisco, Estella Perfetti, Alyssa Santos. Second Honors (3.0 to 3.49): Jordan Alcaez, Gabrielle Cassell, Ariana Cortes, Camille Demman, Meagen Johnson, Leanna Kato, Makinna Posada, Cassidy Riehl, Emma Tice, Cristina Varela, Erica Wolfe, Kristina Ybarra, Hannah Yu. Congratulations students!

Giving blood is certainly a Corporal Work of Mercy. Not everybody feels comfortable having a needle inserted into one's arm. Yet, blood drives are relatively painless with little discomfort. Our Knights of Columbus Blood Drive last Sunday passed on the gift of life. Thank you to our Knights and parishioners who participated this year.

Three weeks until Palm Sunday and Holy Week. The schedule of Lenten and Holy Week services will be published each week until Easter (see page six of this bulletin.) Attendance at Lenten morning Masses and Stations of the Cross has only slightly increased since Ash Wednesday. Our Lenten Mission was a blessing to all who attended. However, the number present on the three evenings was less than anticipated. This is certainly indicative of the times we live in when we are too busy and overcommitted. I believe our guest speakers were well prepared, interesting, uplifting, and genuinely sincere.

There is still time to come to morning Mass on a regular basis in the remaining weeks of Lent and beyond. The Stations of the Cross, a traditional devotion, teaches us to love God and to "Turn away from Sin and be Faithful to the Gospel" as we re-live the last hours of Jesus' life on earth.

After months of preparation, the time has come this weekend for our Third Annual Get On the Bus dinner and auction. The committee formed by St. Juliana and First Congregational Church has worked hard and long. It is our hope and prayer that this fundraiser will be successful. I am sure we will have a report to share with you in a future bulletin.

You will find the latest edition of The Catholic Worker Newspaper on the bulletin shelves in church. Please take a copy home with you. The following are titles of some of the articles you will find: "Iraq: Hope amid Sorrow," "The Church and Climate Change," "Our Humanity is at Stake," "Workers in Gaza under Siege".

Theologian Karl Rahner in, "The Great Church Year: The Best of Karl Rahner's Homilies, Sermons, and Meditations" writes this Lenten reflection: The Gospel tells us what came as the result of Jesus' fast in the desert---his temptation by the devil. Its place in our Lord's life is at the beginning of the messianic activity. Before he begins to announce the kingdom of God has come in his person, before he begins to preach, he prays... Before he mingles with the multitude, he enters the solitude. Before he seeks out men and women, he first seeks the face of his Father in heaven. And he fasts....Jesus goes into the desert... (where) he leaves behind everything else that a man needs even for bare existence, so that for this once, not just in the depths of his heart but in the whole range of his being, he can do and say what is the first and last duty of humankind---to find God, to seek God, to belong to God to the exclusion of everything else that makes up human life. And therefore he fasts. Therefore through this cruelly hard act, this denial of all comfort, this refusal of food and drink, through the solitude and abandonment of the desert, through everything else that involves a rejection, a self-denial of the world and all earthly company, through all these he proclaims this fact: one thing only is necessary, that I be with God, that I find God, and everything else, no matter how great or beautiful, is secondary and subordinate and must be sacrificed, if needs be, to this ultimate movement of heart and spirit.

A parting thought from Nancy Thayer: "The universe is always speaking to us...sending us little messages, causing coincidences and serendipities, reminding us to stop, to look around to believe in something else, something more."

In the Joy of Our Faith,
Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M.,
Pastor

A Prayer for Contrition
 My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In His name, my God, have mercy. Amen.

Purple is the liturgical color for lent and advent. The color represents preparation, penitence and prayer. Purple can symbolize pain and suffering, and mourning and penitence so it fits the themes of Lenten time. It is also the color of royalty so it is also used during Advent as we prepare to welcome the king at Christmas.

LENTEN PARISH MISSION

Thank you to all the presenters and parishioners who were able to join us for the three evenings of our Lenten Mission this past week. May the Lord continue to open all our hearts as we journey to Easter.

Day 1 mission presenter - Fr. Al Baca, inspired many, including parishioner Suzie Dominguez.

Day 2 mission presenter - Dr. Kathy Shinhofen, spoke about "maturing faith".

Day 3 presenter, Mr. Dwight Smith of Isaiah House in Santa Ana (pictured below) - a homeless shelter - gave us moving testimony of faith in action.

VOCATION THOUGHT

The Spirit of God is upon you! Through baptism and confirmation God sends you "to bring glad tidings to the poor and to proclaim liberty to captives; to announce a year of favor from the Lord." Are you called to be a priest, deacon, brother, or sister? ~ Luke 1:1-4, 14-21

FOOD FOR THE POOR

Please join us this weekend, March 2nd and 3rd to hear Rev. Gary R. Norman speak at all the Masses about a ministry providing direct relief to the poor throughout Latin America and the Caribbean.

Fr. Norman will share what he has witnessed about Food For The Poor's mission to care for the destitute as a means of living out the Gospel mandate to love one another.

Fr. Norman was ordained in 1994 in the Diocese of Yakima. He has also served in the Pacific NW and Alaska. In addition to preaching for Food For The Poor, Fr. Gary is the Administrator of a parish in Washington.

Please warmly welcome Fr. Norman this weekend.

RCIA - 1ST SCRUTINY

This Sunday at the 9:00am Mass we celebrate the "First Scrutiny" for those in our catechumenal process who are preparing for initiation at the Easter Vigil. Next week, at the 11:00am Mass, we celebrate the "Second Scrutiny," and on March 17th at the 5:00pm Mass we celebrate the "Third Scrutiny." The three scrutinies are among the most ancient prayers in the Christian liturgical tradition. As early as the second century, Christian communities would help those who had been chosen for Baptism to prepare for their initiation by laying on hands and prayer. These very moving and powerful prayers ask God's protection on those who will soon become full members of our Catholic Church through the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. Please continue to hold in your Lenten prayers the elect who count on you for support in making their faith journey.
