THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*“If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
 If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
 But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
 The eye cannot say to the hand, ‘I do not need you,’ nor again the head to the feet, ‘I do not need you.’
 Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
 Now you are Christ’s body, and individually parts of it.”* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

I wake up to music every morning on my clock radio. Classical music is my preference. It's not as jolting as most popular music which defies description and the News which is generally negative and depressing. Lately, I have been trying to catch a few extra minutes of lazy time. My shoulder still hurts and most nights my sleep is interrupted. The extra few minutes affords me the illusion of extended rest but I am still blurry eyed.

The other morning when I finally got up to prepare for the 6:30 a.m. weekday Mass I opened both windows in my room and to my delight I heard a loud, clear, and vigorous medley of bird songs. This choral ensemble appeared unexpectedly and I enjoyed every minute of the soothing chirps, whistles, and melodies. What a way to start the day.

This made me think of all the wonderful surprises that await us every day. Unfortunately I have practiced the art of distraction, preoccupation, worry, and fearful anticipation for so many years, that I frequently miss out on the simple pleasures. I let slip by the God-given gifts that come without warning and are meant to revive my weary spirit and prepare me for whatever the new day brings in my work and family life. Of course this is not intentional but occurs nonetheless.

The antidote to living an obtuse life is to "wake-up" and begin to intentionally notice the commonplace....trees, smells, the sun and moon, clouds, chirps, smiles, laughter, even our own breathing. I wish I could be better at this. I know it's possible but I forget.

In a series of Lenten reflections written by Father Henri Nouwen there is a reflection entitled, "Embracing Silence" based on the text from Saint Matthew, 26:40: "So, could you not stay awake with me one hour?" He writes: "Have you ever tried to spend a whole hour doing nothing but listening to the voice that dwells deep in your heart? When there is no radio to listen to, no TV to watch, no book to read, no person to talk to, no project to finish, no phone call to make, how does that make you feel? Often it does no more than make us so aware of how much there is still to do that we haven't done yet that we decide to leave the fearful silence and go back to work! It is not easy to enter into the silence and reach beyond the many boisterous and demanding voices of our world and to discover there the small intimate voice saying: 'You are my Beloved Child, on you my favor rests.' Still, if we dare to embrace our solitude and befriend our silence, we will come to know that voice. I do not want to suggest to you that one day you will hear that voice with your bodily ears. I am not speaking about a hallucinatory voice, but about a voice that can be heard by the ear of faith, the ear of the inner heart."

The Stations of the Cross devotion is a true Lenten treasure. There are many versions of this visual aid. The underlying theme is that Jesus freely chose to suffer for us in order to teach us that when our daily walk produces pain, disappointment, adversity or the like, we are to embrace it with courage and forbearance. Unpleasant as it may seem, momentary pain and suffering can strengthen us in all sorts of unforeseen circumstances. The Redemptive work of Jesus on the cross makes it possible to see beyond the moment to the victory. The walk to Calvary was not Jesus' plan. However, he never wavered from the blessed assurance that for those who remain faithful only good awaits them.

One of the Stations dear to me but not explicitly found in the "Way of the Cross" as recorded in Scripture is when "Jesus Meets His Mother on the Way to Calvary." For centuries Catholic Tradition has upheld the Compassion of Mary. What Mother would not be beside her dying son? For this reason next Friday we will substitute the Stations for The Desolata of Mary or the Compassion of Mary. This Servite devotion traces Mary's presence with Jesus during the last day of his life. I hope you will come to pray and reflect with me as we prepare for Palm Sunday and Holy Week.

Operation Rice bowl sponsored by Catholic Relief Services (CRS) comes to end next Sunday. Our school children and teens have been very faithful to this Lenten almsgiving program. Your Lenten gifts to this Corporal Work of Mercy make a big difference. Just think of these statistics: $10 provides two weeks of food for a family of 6; $25 affords health exams for 13 kids; $50 delivers clean water for 500 families a day; $100 immunizes 157 newborn. What you gave up for Lent changes lives. Converting coin to paper money will help the office staff process your gifts to send them to CRS.

The Papal Good Friday Collection makes possible the programs that support Christians and pilgrims in the Holy Land. For 800 years the Holy See (Vatican) has entrusted to the Franciscans the care of the Holy Places for the benefit of the Christians who live there and all who come as pilgrims from around the world. In 2011 it cost over 18 million dollars to: 1) Maintain the Holy Places; 2) Social and charitable enterprises; 3) Pastoral activities; 4) Educational and scientific endeavors; 5) Liturgical, Ecumenical and Communications programs. This special collection will be taken up at the Good Friday Liturgical service.

Next Sunday Churches everywhere will overflow with worshipers who come to receive blessed Palms. The first Palm Sunday crowds gathered to see Jesus as he entered Jerusalem. In their excitement they cut branches and waved vigorously. Once the cortege passed by, many returned home unaffected. As we relive this moment in our history, the Church needs cheerleaders: Ambassadors for Christ, in St. Paul's words. With so much negativity, cynicism, and disappointment directed toward the Catholic Church in social media, we who faithfully participate in church worship and ministry need to be the hands, mouthpiece, eyes and ears of the Risen Christ. It is our responsibility to encourage those who have left the practice of their Catholic faith with words that express our experience.

In the Joy of Our Faith,
Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M.,
Pastor

RESPECT LIFE NEWS

The parish Respect Life Group and the Knights of Columbus wish to thank the 25 parishioners who spent an hour or more at the Prayer Vigil at Planned Parenthood last Saturday for the 40 Days For Life Campaign. We hope our presence there that day moved some hearts to reconsider what they were about to do. We were joined throughout the day by other individuals and groups. In the first three weeks of the Lenten Prayer Vigils, 6 babies have been confirmed as saved at this Planned Parenthood site. Over the whole country, 245 saves have been confirmed in those 3 weeks. And only God knows if other hearts were changed because of the people praying.

Dressed for Success!

This is the pope's "uniform" during his normal day-to-day activities: his skullcap is called a zuchetto; popes wear white zuchettos, cardinals wear red, bishops wear purple and priests wear black. The pope wears a white mozetta (a short, hooded cape), a gold pectoral cross and red papal shoes. Pope-Emeritus Benedict XVI gave up the red shoes once he retired.

Zuchetto

Mozetta

Gold Pectoral Cross

Pray for Pope-Emeritus Benedict XVI

O God of all time, you created days of toil and of repose.
 Graciously hear our prayer of gratitude for the ministry of your servant Benedict and grant him a time of rest from his labors.
 May he continue to be guided by your hand in his retirement, and know both health and peace.
 And when his earthly days are done, may he see your glory and rest at last in you for ever. Amen

GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION

Our parish will support Christians in the Holy Land through the Good Friday Collection. This is a pontifical collection, which is done annually on Good Friday, offering parishioners the opportunity to help protect the Holy Land and Christians living there. During Lent and Easter, our hearts, minds and prayers are especially aware of the special place the Holy Land has in salvation history. Help keep Christianity alive there by helping us serve the people who live there. Give generously to the Good Friday Holy Land Collection.

3RD GRADE IN ACTION

The 3rd grade class opened their hearts to the animals at the OC Animal Care shelter by collecting used/new blankets and towels for the shelter animals. They collected over 350 items and learned that even the smallest action can make a big difference - in this case, a place for an animal to sleep.

The 3rd graders also made these cards that are being delivered to various homeless shelters, nursing homes and to the ill in our community. The cards read, "At the Eucharist I pray for you."

Thank you 3rd graders for your small acts of kindness that have great meaning.
