THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

I would like to extend my appreciation and thanks to Mr. Ed Murphy for speaking at all Masses this weekend about vocations. Ed was recently appointed as a lay team member of the Servite Friars' vocation program. He offers great insight to vocations. Thank you for being with us this weekend.

The lilies have faded and are now gone, but the Easter Season endures. We will continue to replenish some flowers but they will be less glorious. Your generosity in the flower collection at Christmas and Easter makes it possible to decorate the altar and sanctuary with seasonal flora. The environment ministry directed by Catherine Haydon will keep on assuring us of liturgically appropriate adornment.

Mr. Ed Murphy from Servite High School and lay member of the Servite Vocation team have helped us celebrate Vocation Weekend. Thank you for welcoming him to our parish. Our local vocation ministry under the direction of John McElligott has also participated in celebrating this weekend. Other members of this ministry are: Father Luke, Jack and Terri Duffin, Dave Bigley, Mike McGranahan, Mike McHenry & Curtis Wesseln.

The school Gala/Auction this weekend is a major fundraiser for our parish school. Our hope is that this year the Gala will be as successful as in previous years. I am encouraged to see so many parishioners attend whose children are grown and no longer attend St. Juliana School. It is important for both parish and school to be one ministry.

Next weekend is the annual Crop Walk to help raise money for local and national food banks. St. Juliana parish will participate as we did last year. Unfortunately, I will be out of town. I walked last year and enjoyed giving witness. Our parish is the largest participant in this Fullerton Chapter. Our attendance at the actual walk is small. Perhaps you will consider donating and walking. You can call the office for more information.

The Pastoral Plan written by the Pastoral Council has been distributed. Extra copies are in the pamphlet rack in the back of church. If you do not have a copy, please take one. The new council for 2013-2014 will take up and help implement the Plan. All parishioners and parish organizations will be asked to take the Plan and apply it to their domain.

The Parish Center meeting rooms have been renamed. I ask that these rooms be referred to by their new names and not their numbers. The former Room One is Seven Holy Founders Room; Room Two is St. Philip Room; Room Three is St. Juliana Room; Room Four is St. Alexis Room. The glass on each door has the name of the room so there will not be confusion.

A free-bee magazine arrived in my mail box a few weeks ago. It was the spring 2013 edition of Illuminate, a magazine published biannually of Endow (Educating on the Nature and Dignity of Women). Endow is a Catholic study program that engages the intellect of women and teenage girls to help them understand their God-given dignity and respond to our culture's desperate need for an authentic feminine presence to transform every aspect of life and society.

The Executive Director and Co-Founder of Endow, Therese A.

Polakovic writes: "Dear Mothers and Daughters, Sisters and Friends: It is with a grateful heart that during this Year of Faith, Endow is celebrating its tenth anniversary. During the past 10 years, we have witnessed thousands of women and teenage girls embrace their feminine genius as they have grown closer to Christ and His Church, through the Endow program. This growth has equipped them to engage with the culture, and to exert a positive, direct, and lasting influence on society. Proudly, Endow is making a difference. With this in mind, let us unite in thanksgiving for all of the lives that have been positively affected during these past ten years. We are grateful that God had entrusted us with this important work, and we are blessed by your witness."

A contributor by the name of Michelle Schmidt who facilitates Endow Groups in Livonia, Michigan writes a column in this spring edition of Illuminate entitled: "Defining Moments." She writes: "I've always defined myself as just a lousy girl---not the son my father hoped for. And I carried a broken heart for far too long. My defining moment came when I read "Letter to Women" written by Pope John Paul II and discovered that I am God's beautiful daughter. That's why I want all my sisters---other Catholic women like me---to learn the truth that our heavenly Father loves us and longs to heal our hearts. I am so grateful for Endow and their message. I have learned to love my Catholic faith, and Endow has helped me to do that. Through leading Endow groups, I am helping to transform the culture one woman at a time"

Endow's Spiritual Advisor is Most Rev. Jose H. Gomez, S.T.D., Archbishop of Los Angeles. The address is 6021 S. Syracuse Way, Suite 220, Greenwood Village, CO 80111. The website is: www.EndowGroups.org. I would love for us to investigate if there is interest in pursuing more information about establishing an Endow group in our parish. Let me know.

The National media as well as Catholic periodicals and newspapers have done a remarkable job covering the recent events in Catholic life and culture. Pope Francis has been the topic of conversation both written and spoken: in cafés and barbershops; around dinner tables and sports events; in casual encounters and ministry groups. The excitement is understandable and the potential for good is outstanding.

One event covered by the media which was of special interest to me was the ecumenical meeting with members of different religions, including Greek Orthodox Patriarch Bartholomew on March 20th at the Clementine Hall of the Apostolic Palace. He also addressed other Christian groups and Jews and Muslims as well. Pope Francis, seated on an armchair instead of the throne usually reserved for the Pope, addressed them in these words: "The Church is aware of the importance of the promotion of friendship and respect between men and women of different religious traditions...In this, we feel the closeness also of those men and women who, while not belonging to any religious tradition, feel, however, the need to search for the truth, the goodness and the beauty of God...The more we are faithful to [God's] will, in thoughts, in words and in deeds, the more we will truly and substantially walk towards unity."

In the Joy of Our Faith,

Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M.
Pastor

PASTOR APPRECIATION

Across the nation, parishes celebrate Pastor Appreciation Day on April 21, which is Good Shepherd Sunday.

Our priests are extraordinary men who provide all of us with examples of how to follow Christ.

Please let our pastor, Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M. and our parochial vicar, Fr Luke Stano, O.S.M. know how much you appreciate their work in our parish, school and life. Gratitude is a great gift. Please share your gratitude with our priests.

ICONS OF OC - DR. SCHULLER AND THE FUTURE CHRIST CATHEDRAL

Sat., April 27th at 2pm in The Welcoming Center (Future Christ Cathedral)

Join us for a dialogue between:

Dr. Robert Schuller, Founder of Crystal Cathedral Ministries - Mina Chow, USC Professor of Architecture and Rob Neal, Chair, Architecture and Renovation Committee for The Christ Cathedral.

Free admission. Limited Seating.

Believing that architecture reflected the dignity of the person, Dr. Schuller assembled the most prolific architects of the twentieth-century to design buildings worthy of the people which inhabited them. Over fifty years later, the collection of buildings are as provocative as they are beautiful and stand as a testament to the faith of the people of Orange County. Join us for this informative afternoon.

April is national Child Abuse Prevention Month. It is most appropriate that Child Abuse Prevention Month is held during the Easter season as there is no better time than this when we experience renewal and growth that we celebrate the protection of our most valuable gift from God – our children.

This year, the Catholic Church looks back on eleven years of learning about a problem which may be decades of centuries old; the sexual abuse of minors by those who would mentor them. In the United States, the Catholic Church adopted a plan to address the issue, called the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People. It has spent billions of dollars on settlements, safe environment education, and background checks to do all it can to prevent the abuse of children in its care.

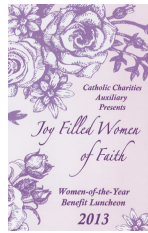

For information on how you can become more informed and involved in keeping our children safe, log on to www.rcbo.org or <http://www.usccb.org/ocyp/> or contact the Diocese of Orange, Safe Environment Office (714) 282-3069.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL WISHES YOU A HAPPY SPRING!

If you can't feed a hundred people, then feed just one.
 ~ Mother Teresa

Thank you to parishioners and friends for your ongoing generosity and support to our ministry. Your donations help us to keep the pantry stocked with food staples so needed by our clients. We continue to collaborate with Northgate Market to provide fresh produce, meats and items such as tortillas and rolls. To further assure that the Food Pantry is meeting clients' needs we have begun to gather their input and suggestions.

Donations of non-perishable foods such as canned meats, tuna, vegetables, beans, rice, pasta, tomato sauce, salsa, and cereals are always welcome. We also need new and "gently used" children's books: picture books, books for young readers and books for teens. The book program has become popular with clients and children. Perhaps your children can get involved by selecting books they are willing to gift to others. The donation bin for St Vincent de Paul is in the church vestibule.

New ventures for our ministry include collaboration with neighboring conferences to learn about other programs and services we might offer such as "job seeker skills" training. With summer fast approaching, we are planning for the camp program with a goal of increased participations by eligible children. We are also working to involve more children in Vacation Bible School.

If you are looking for a way to share your time and talent, we welcome new members at any time. If you have questions about how you can help please contact Paul Durning at 714/671-1667

We invite you to stop by the pantry any Thursday between 9:00 - 11:00 a.m. You will be impressed by the office efficiency and the friendliness of the workers and clients. Who knows -- You may even experience live music. The last few weeks a parishioner/client has entertained guests and workers with his singing and the sweet sounds of his guitar.

Thank you for your continued support.
