THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Bishop Vann's visit to the parish last Sunday was truly a delight. His warmth, concern for parishioners and staff along with his generally relaxed demeanor made it easy to communicate with him and to hear him speak of how much he enjoyed being with us. Everything about his visit indicated to me how down to earth he is. I had a chance to spend some private time with him and his support and encouragement lifted my spirits. He was impressed with all the ministers at Mass. He especially liked the music: choir, organ, cantor and congregational singing. Thanks to music director Todd Helm, choir members, organist Claudia Kellogg, cantor Monette Velasco and to all of St. Juliana parishioners who prayed in word and song last Sunday with such exuberance. The bishop was genuinely moved and wants to come spend a weekend with us as he has done in other parishes. My thanks to our hospitality committee who provided more than our usual coffee and donuts.

After months of planning, the Fall Festival continues this weekend. I wish to thank Chairman John Kohaut, the entire festival committee, booth chairpersons and all the volunteers for devoting so much time to the success of this yearly celebration. Without you, the Fall Festival could not happen. The influence of this fiesta is far reaching. The entire Fullerton community profits from our collective skill in entertaining, feeding, and providing a wholesome fun atmosphere for the entire family. We all should feel a strong sense of pride this weekend.

October is traditionally the month of the Holy Rosary. If you have not prayed the rosary recently or have not prayed this beloved devotion in the past, this may be a good time to reacquaint yourself with the rosary and begin praying it. Following the 8am daily Mass, a group of faithful parishioners pray the rosary in the family chapel room of the church. Why not join them? If you attend the 6:30am daily Mass, bring your rosary with you and I will lead the rosary following Mass on those days I am the celebrant.

The daily Mass readings last week featured selections from the Jewish Scriptures' (Old Testament) book of Ezra. A reflection that appeared in the devotional booklet, The Word Among Us for Tuesday, September 24th encourages us to appreciate the sacred space we call Church. While the Church is more than just a building, it is also the worshipping community. However, the building plays a key role in calling us to assemble and praise God in Word, Song, and Sacrament.

The reading from Ezra recalls the time when the Jewish people are returning from exile in Babylon and are in the process of rebuilding the Temple in Jerusalem. This was about 500 years before the birth of Jesus. The author of the reflection writes: "If you look around your church on any given Sunday, you will see all kinds of signs of the people who helped build it. Perhaps a plaque lists donors. Perhaps a sculptor or painter signed his work. Perhaps a friend remembers laying bricks or installing carpeting. Each of these builders invested himself or herself in the worship space. Each had a personal reason to celebrate when the church was dedicated...No matter how long our church building has been standing, each of us is also a church builder. We all bring our own particular gifts and talents with us when we approach the altar. At the same time, the Lord wants us to put our talents to work for him so that his church continues to grow and spread. In a sense, the church is incomplete without our gifts. Like the prophets in Ezra's time, some of us have the gift of welcoming and encouraging people. Some of us help make the worship space beautiful by tending the flowers and laundering the linens. Some people proclaim the word or help lead the singing. Some come together to help make long-term decisions that will affect the whole parish. Some teach CCD (PSR), while others plan social events. Even those who are not physically able to come to Mass can be intimately joined to us in prayer. And on top of all of this, we all make our worship space come to life when we worship the Lord and receive his Body and Blood...So what will you bring this week? How will you help build the Church?"

I found an article in the National Catholic Register that parents in the parish may find helpful. The title of the article is, Raising Catholic Kids. The author, Lucy Rabideau, at Catholicicing.com discusses "6 Ways to Pass on the Catholic Faith to Your Children." She writes, 1.) Teach them the basics. Your kids need to have an understanding of the basics from a young age. Basics such as...the True presence in the Eucharist, why we have saints, what the Mass is all about, and the amazing blessing the bible is to all Christians. 2.) Saturate the home. Fill your home with prayers, love, Christian virtues, and yes, even statues, pictures, medals and other reminders of our religious heroes. 3.) Make religion relatable and engaging for children. Meet them at their own level! For me, I have used a lot of crafts, activities, and songs to reach my children with the word of God at their own level. 4.) Make sure they get a good Catholic education...it has to come from you, the parent. 5.) Weave the faith into your life. Do not let the faith be like a puzzle piece in your life that could be plucked out and tossed aside. 6.) Lead by example. The "whole do-what-I-say-and-not-what-I-do thing." Yes, that's not going to cut it."

The October meeting of our JHYM (Junior High Youth Ministry) on Wednesday, October 9th from 7:30 to 9:00pm in the Parish Center, Seven Holy Founders Room promises to be a heartfelt gathering. On that night, there will be a very special presentation by a very special young man, Hal Hargrave. Hal broke his neck, incurred a spinal cord injury, in a traffic accident in 2007. Paralyzed, confined to a wheelchair, Hal stays unbelievably busy. Hal goes to college, constantly works at his recovery, and runs his "Be Perfect Foundation," which contributes greatly to the recovery of others who have suffered spinal cord injuries, and more. He is extremely inspiring and motivating. This program is made possible by the devoted leadership of Scott Kambak and I urge all of our Junior High students to attend.

Our parish participation in For Christ Forever capital campaign continues to move forward. I wish to thank Curtis Wesseln and the volunteers who worked so hard these past weeks setting up the meetings and welcoming donors. Our debt of gratitude goes out to: Betsy Bigley, Bob and Barbara Dietherle, Mitzi Demman, Bernadette Gilwee, Jack and Marquita Gyban, Christine Hoferer, Susan James, Pati Nyberg, Chuck and Louisa Pesci, and Lisa Riehl.

Kelly Storrs from Guidance in Giving attended all the meetings and her presentation as our representative with the Diocese of Orange brought a heartfelt warmth and professionalism to our collective encounters. Despite being over two thousand miles away from home and living out of a suitcase, Kelly's smile and affability helped create a friendly atmosphere so important when asking for financial support.

A final thought this festival weekend: "Of all the things which wisdom provides to make us entirely happy, the greatest is the possession of friendship." Epicurus.

In the Joy of Our Faith,
Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M.
Pastor

NOTES FROM MUSIC MINISTRY
 By TODD HELM, MUSIC DIRECTOR

Last Sunday, we had the honor of having Bishop Kevin Vann preside at the 9:00 Mass. Not only was he warm and welcoming, but he sang all the hymns and liturgical music with confidence and commitment - and he was on a microphone for all to hear! This is nothing new to our parish, of course, since we are very fortunate to have priests and deacons who do the same on a weekly basis. According to the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) published by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, "The Christian faithful who come together as one in expectation of the Lord's coming are instructed by the Apostle Paul to sing together Psalms, hymns, and spiritual canticles (cf. Col 3:16). Singing is the sign of the heart's joy (cf. Acts 2:46). Thus St. Augustine says rightly, "Singing is for one who loves," and there is also an ancient proverb: "Whoever sings prays twice over."

When I left my position at a Brethren church to come to St. Juliana many years ago, the minister mentioned that my new job would be easier, since there wouldn't be as much music to prepare for the Catholic Church. How wrong she was! We Catholics not only sing the standard hymns that our Protestant brothers and sisters sing every Sunday, but we also add all the liturgical music that is the cornerstone to our weekly celebrations. (I do acknowledge that Lutherans and Episcopalians share this quantity of music as well). To make the music of our Mass truly an act of communal prayer and celebration, I think it is important to understand the "many parts" of this "one body".

The Cantor. The cantor's job is to lead the assembly in song, with "lead" being the operative word. The cantor is not giving a concert. The only parts of the Mass the cantor sings alone are the initial antiphon and verses of the Responsorial Psalm, the initial antiphon and verse of the Gospel Acclamation, and depending on the selection, the verses of the Communion song.

The Choir. The choir has a variety of roles. In some cases, they are an entity to themselves, singing music that they have prepared to be their offering to the celebration. This happens during the Presentation of Gifts and often times during Communion. At other times, the choir is meant to be the voice of the assembly, whose job it is to encourage communal singing by the entire congregation. This is the case during all the hymns, as well as the antiphons of the Psalm and Gospel Acclamation. In the singing of the Gloria, the choir becomes not only the voice of the assembly, but also the voice of the cantor as they also sing the verses.

The Assembly. The assembly is the most crucial element to the music of the Mass, as they are meant to sing the majority of the music. It is the role of the people to sing all hymns, the antiphon of the Gloria and Psalm, and all Eucharistic music (Holy, Memorial Acclamation, Great Amen and Lamb of God). The assembly may also sing the entire Gloria (antiphon and verses) if they so desire.

We are beginning to pay more attention to the affect amplification has on the music of our Masses. You may notice that the cantors are beginning to pull away from the microphone during the parts of the Mass that are meant to be sung by the assembly. This is a work-in-progress and I am fully aware that it is going to take some getting used to, but I ask that you be patient as your ears adjust to the wonderful sounds of our congregation lifting their collective voice in praise to our Lord. Let us all be inspired by Bishop Vann and our Priests and Deacons and continue to raise our voices in song.

Next week I will be discussing how our songs and hymns are chosen.

FAITH FORMATION NEWS

We need HEROES!

Have you ever thought that it might be you that is being called to lead our children into the life of the Church? If you have ever had the slightest feeling that you would like to make a difference in the life of a child now is the time to make that happen. We are looking to expand our Faith Formation team that works with all grades in our program and we need your help. All 150 of our kids are heroes in their own right and deserve people like you to be heroes in theirs. Call Mike McHenry for more info! 714-529-1865 or email mike.mchenry@stjulianachurch.org.

CATHOLICISM 101

Every Sunday we make a solemn profession of our faith by reciting the Nicene Creed. It is a summary of faith expressed by the Councils of Nicaea (325 A.D.) and the Council of Constantinople (381 A.D.). It has been an essential element of the Sunday Liturgy since the Sixth Century.

The purpose of this Profession of Faith is to allow the gathered people an opportunity to respond to the Word of God that was proclaimed in the readings. It also calls to mind the great mysteries of our faith that we will celebrate in the Liturgy of the Eucharist. The New translation of the Nicene Creed contains a few new words that will once again challenge us, so it will take a little getting used to before it becomes familiar. One of those words is "consubstantial" which professes that Jesus and the Father are of one substance, One God. Another word that will challenge us in the Creed is "incarnate"; this too reveals that Jesus the Son of God was given a human body through the motherhood of the Blessed Virgin Mary. You will also notice when we begin the creed we will be using the singular pronoun "I" instead of "We". This change is calling us to make a personal profess our faith.

ROSARY (SATURDAYS) IN THE PARK

Come join in prayer (two Saturdays)

FIRST SATURDAY OF THE MONTH

When: October 5th at 12:00noon

Where: Acacia Park.

Call Al Esser at 714-256-5936 with questions.

AMERICA NEEDS FATIMA

Announcing the Annual Worldwide Public Square Rosary Crusade.

Join us for a Family Rosary in the Park.

Family Rosary

When: October 12th at 12:00noon

Where: Acacia Park

Bring: Rosary, chair and a friend

The rallies are focused on the idea that human efforts to solve America's problems are failing. America must turn to God for real solutions.

Our goal is to counter the destructive secular agenda, asking God to guide every aspect of our society. As human efforts have failed to solve America's key problems we ask His immediate help for our nation's leadership. God will hear our prayer, especially if we pray the rosary of His Blessed Mother. Without prayer, and specifically the Rosary, we will not find solutions to our nation's many problems.

Our priests have a holy and sacramental life. But they also have the responsibility of a CEO while running our parish, schools, ministries and, in their spare time, participate in community organizations and attend a vast number of local events. Their hours can be brutal while their days seem unending. They do not have a "weekend"...and often any time off includes being called to anoint the sick, preside over funerals, and manage other urgent matters. Our priests are truly selfless servants of God. Every breath they take is for His greater glory. These are our friends, our spiritual mentors, our brothers in Christ. They need our prayers. They need our support. They especially need our help in their retirement years.

DIOCESAN CAMPAIGN FIVE PRIORITIES (AREAS OF FOCUS)

- 1.) Christ Cathedral
- 2.) Local Parish Support
- 3.) Catholic Education
- 4.) Priest Retirement
*(See information featured below...
...notice any familiar faces?)*
- 5.) Diocesan Ministries

A PRIEST'S VOCATION IS TO SELFLESSLY SERVE CHRIST BY SERVING OTHERS.

It is our duty and honor to serve our priests in retirement. $2 million of our campaign goal will support an endowment fund for retired priests in the Diocese of Orange. Learn more about the service and selfless work of our priests and how campaign funds will be allocated.

PRINCIPAL'S NOTE

Dear St Juliana Community,
 We welcomed our students back to the new school year this last month! In choosing St. Juliana Falconieri School, families continue to demonstrate a commitment to our School Core Values. The faculty, staff, and students strive to exhibit these characteristics on a daily basis. Additionally, our faculty and staff work closely with parents to emulate these values and promote our Mission Statement within the context of the teachings of the Catholic Church.

This week, in particular, school has been extremely busy with 6th grade at AstroCamp (pictures of our children preparing to leave via bus are in this bulletin on the next page), ITBS testing, festival set-up and a lot of schedule changes. I would like to thank the parents and students for their support and patience. Everyone did a fantastic job making sure children were here on time and ready for ITBS testing. In addition, I appreciated how everyone, including those who attend morning Mass, assisted in making the carpools run smoothly, as all the Fall Festival rides arrived in our parking lot.

I wish to thank all of the St. Juliana parishioners who have participated in the Angels in Education Program. Your generosity and spirit of giving will help fulfill the "wish lists" of our dedicated faculty.

We also welcome our twenty-two NEW FAMILIES to St. Juliana School, some of which are coming from out of state. I am grateful for the New Family Mentoring Program which helps make new family transitioning to the school so much easier.

Together let us pray that God, who has begun this good work in us, continue to guide our efforts. May we always be strong and courageous with the Lord.

God Bless,

Manuel Gonzales Jr. M.A.

The Mercy House Interfaith Shelter Network (ISN) provides shelter, meals, bus passes, job training, counseling, etc. to qualified adults in North Orange County. From Oct. 5-25 they will be staying at Brea Congregational Church at night. This time we have the opportunity to provide dinners and also eat with the clients as the nightly hosts.

If you are interested in preparing dinners for 12 as a family or with a partner or donating money for food, please contact Barbara Dietterle (714-292-4920). Thank you for any support you can give!

Sue Fenwick is planning another trip in mid Oct. to deliver more donations of dry food, diapers & other baby supplies, Depends, hygiene products, over the counter drugs, and more school supplies. Please call Barbara Dietterle if you would like to donate for this trip. We appreciate your GENEROSITY and PRAYERS!
