THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
 If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
 But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
 The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
 Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
 Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Dear Friends,
As Knight of Columbus member and fellow parishioner George Santoro returned from LAX Tuesday afternoon, he proclaimed ...”The Eagle has landed!” George graciously volunteered to accept the task of safely delivering Fr. Frank back to us after his return flights from his Pilgrimage to the Holy Land. Needless to say, as this bulletin finalizes and is ready to publish, Fr. Frank is resting from his long journey home. You will see him on the altar this weekend. Welcome him home! ... Next week he is back at his desk writing his insightful column and hopefully, sharing all the news of his recent adventure and journey! ~ The Parish Office

REFLECTING ON GOD’S WORD

To be a disciple of Jesus Christ means to learn from him. He is the teacher, we the students; he is the master, we his servants. But what is it we are to learn? One important title for Jesus is the Lamb of God who has come to serve by taking away our sin. He serves by leading us to participate in the holiness of God. We are to do the same for others.

Jesus came to understand his own calling by reading and praying the book of the prophet Isaiah, especially the four poems found there called the Servant Songs. Today we hear part of the second song in which the servant professes how he was formed as servant from the womb, not only to bring back Israel to God, but to be a light to the nations, so God’s “salvation may reach to the ends of the earth” (Isaiah 49:6).

Those who serve Jesus as disciples are to join in this work of bringing God’s salvation to the world. Paul recognizes this in his greeting to the Corinthians, noting his call to be an apostle of Christ, one sent by God to the church at Corinth, which has been made holy in Christ and called to be holy. Paul is sent not only to them, but to “all those everywhere who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ” (1 Corinthians 1:2).

God’s will is our holiness. By responding to the call to know Jesus as the Lamb of God, we accept the invitation to participate in this holiness and become the vehicle for inviting others to dwell there.

LIVING GOD’S WORD

When at Mass, we call on Jesus several times as the Lamb of God—at the beginning in the Gloria and twice in preparation for Communion. Pray for our world this day to recognize Jesus as the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

LIVING STERARDSHIP ON THE PARISH

In the 1940s, Antoine de Saint Exupéry wrote a story for children, The Little Prince, that many adults appreciate. The Little Prince inhabits a small asteroid, where he spends his time caring for one beautiful rose and rooting out baobab trees, which threaten to destroy life around them. The Little Prince visits other planets and then comes to Earth, where he meets the Fox. The Fox asks the Little Prince to tame him, explaining that taming means being responsible for someone. The Little Prince says he understands taming because of the rose that he loves, cares for, and protects. The Fox says the rose must be special because of all that time devoted to it. The Fox also tells the Little Prince that the most significant things in life are seen only with the heart, and he warns him not to forget a key truth: You are responsible, forever, for what you have tamed. We have each established ties with our parish on some level, and whatever time and abilities we devote to God and to each other make those connections stronger. We obviously need our parish, or we wouldn’t be here. Our parish is our spiritual home and a source of life through worship, friendships, and shared labor. The ties that we establish with our fellow parishioners form that essential connection that is invisible to the eye. The parish, in turn, needs our time, our devotion, care, and protection, and our monetary support to fulfill its mission. The good news is that God has “tamed” us and is responsible for us in the here and now and on into the future. It seems only right that all of us, in turn, are responsible for God’s church, God’s people, and God’s world. Are you doing your part?

LIVING STEWARDSHIP NOW - BEGIN ANEW

Do you go to church to get, or do you go to give?
Copyright © 2010, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

We surround ‘beginnings’ with ceremony and observance. We break ground for the new building. We cut ribbons and step over thresholds. We bear gifts welcoming the new neighbor, the new infant. Beginnings hold such promise for us. No matter how difficult the past, we are filled with hope. The aphorism is true: hope springs eternal. We are ready to begin anew.

Today, Jesus is introduced to us, not as the babe of Bethlehem, but as God’s chosen and beloved Son, the Lamb of God.

Hopefully you enjoyed some of these reflections over the past few weeks. Fr. Frank’s column will return next weekend!
Blessings from the Parish Office.

CATHOLICISM 101

John the Baptist is "more than a prophet." In him, the Holy Spirit concludes his speaking through the prophets. John completes the cycle of prophets begun by Elijah. He proclaims the imminence of the consolation of Israel; he is the "voice" of the Consoler who is coming. As the Spirit of truth will also do, John "came to bear witness to the light." In John's sight, the Spirit thus brings to completion the careful search of the prophets and fulfills the longing of the angels. "He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain, this is he who baptizes with the Holy Spirit. And I have seen and have borne witness that this is the Son of God. . . . Behold, the Lamb of God."

DIOCESE OF ORANGE FOR CHRIST FOREVER CAMPAIGN

Pledge Totals Surpass $845,880 at St. Juliana Falconieri!

Our For Christ Forever Campaign Committee would like to thank all the families and individuals who have contributed so far and have made the diocesan campaign a great success. We have received $845,880 in pledges from 283 parish individuals and families. At this time, we are awaiting a response from over 1,100 of our parish families. Currently, we are at 62% of goal from only 19% of our parish. Please keep in mind that since we have surpassed our 2013 PSA goal in cash, we will now receive 25% of all monies collected up to our campaign target of $1,287,473. Our rebate will be used to pay down the Parish Center loan that currently stands at $816,744.68 and make some roof repairs to the Church and rectory.

DIOCESAN INFO:

As of December 27th, we are happy to report receipt of $79,064,792.55 in pledges from over 21,914 donors. Let's continue being BOLD by being Catholic. Thank you! TOGETHER we are doing GREAT things!

Our campaign is based on every family making an equal sacrifice, not an equal gift. Please prayerfully consider what you can do to support the campaign for both our parish and for our Diocese. It is only through prayer and sacrifice that we can make this campaign successful. Please make your gift today to help reduce the number of follow-up calls our Campaign Committee will have to make over the next few weeks.
