THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

GIVERS AND RECEIVERS

Today’s liturgy celebrates the marvelous magnanimity of God. We hear the familiar story of the child Jesus receiving gifts, but we are the ones who are gifted. For our part, we must be like the magi and not only be open to the gift but be willing to go after it, even in the dead of winter.

REFLECTING ON GOD’S WORD

They were men in love with the lights of night—astrologers, star-gazers, meaning-makers tuned in to the signs in the heavens, as Matthew tells it. A strange star moving across the sky led them into Israel. Arriving in Jerusalem, they asked where the newborn king of the Jews was, so they could offer homage.

Herod was less than delighted, indeed “greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him,” at hearing of a new king on the block (Matthew 2:3). But he assembled the chief priests and the scribes, who remembered that the prophet Micah had proclaimed that the Messiah would be born in Bethlehem.

So they set out again, with Herod’s duplicitous request whispered into their ears. The star reappeared and led them to the house where the child and his mother were. Falling down in worship, they offered gifts, and went back home. End of story—as we like to remember it.

Of course, that is not the end. Receiving no word, Herod is enraged and orders the death of all children under the age of two. Joseph, Mary, and the child flee to Egypt. Power does not welcome competition, even in the form of a child.

But God wills all people to know salvation. Jesus came to draw all into the reign of God and to empower them to live the God-life that is the Father’s gift. The darkness of evil continues to threaten but it will not overcome as long as there are those who seek the light, follow it, and allow it to lead them to the child.

BLESS YOUR DOOR ON EPIPHANY

The gospel tells us that the magi found Christ “on entering the house.” The door to your home is a holy threshold. You can bless those who come in and go out by inscribing above the door in chalk the first two numbers of the year+C+M+B+the last two numbers of the year. Tradition tells us that the letters stand for the names of the magi: Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar. Adolph Adam points out that it may also mean “Christus mansionem benedicat” or “May Christ bless this dwelling.” It’s appropriate to bless your door in January—janua means “door” and the first month is the door to the new year.

After inscribing the doorway, say this prayer:

God of Bethlehem and Cana,
God of Jordan’s leaping waters,
in baptism you bring us
into your family.
You wed us and embrace us
as your beloved.
May we fill this place
with kindness to one another,
with hospitality to guests,
and with abundant care
for every stranger.
By the gentle light of a star,
guide home all who seek you
on paths of faith, hope and love.
Then we will join the angels in proclaiming your praise:
Glory in heaven and peace on earth,
now and for ever. Amen.
Then sing a Christmas carol.

Living God’s Word

We pray that the light of God’s love, shown to us in Jesus Christ and placed within us with the gift of faith, may lead others to this same faith. We also pray that we may continue our own journey into the mystery of God and find Christ waiting for us at journey’s end.

PLEASE PRAY FOR ALL WHO ARE ILL AND IN NEED OF OUR LOVING SUPPORT IN THIS COMMUNITY, PLEASE PRAY FOR ALL WHO ARE ILL, especially all the names listed in our Book of Healing.

LITURGICAL ENVIRONMENT

Do you notice the changes in the décor of the church at each liturgical season? And if so, have you ever wondered who does the decorating?... Or how all the flowers, hangings, banners, etc. come into place especially at Christmas and Easter?

...And who keeps all the plants and flowers alive and watered and fresh looking for everyone to enjoy?

Maybe you've never thought much about it.

Here at St. Juliana Church there are "behind the scenes" volunteers who make up our Liturgical Environment Ministry. The ministry's goal is to make our church environment conducive to prayer and worship according to the liturgical seasons.

Presently there is a need for someone to lead this important ministry. Are you artistic? Do you enjoy being creative? Would you like to spend precious time in the church creating a beautiful space for our liturgies? If so, we need you. Please contact the Parish Office for more information 714-879-1965.

No decorating experience necessary - just a creative heart and a willingness to serve. Please discern this valuable ministry.

The astrologers brought gold, frankincense, and myrrh. What treasure do I have to give to the Lord? Is he calling me to be a priest, brother, or sister? (Matthew 2:1-12)

MARY'S JOURNEY

Jan 5 Stewart and Rita Semple, 7:30am Mass

MARY'S JOURNEY MISSION GOAL:

- To pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life
- To strengthen the family in love, faith and charity
- To pray for our church and our families to grow in holiness service
- Your own personal intentions

Families take Mary's statue for a week and pray the rosary together each night.

Saying the rosary and meditating on the mysteries allows us to become aware of the life of Jesus, as witnessed in the eyes of his Mother. If you are interested in signing up for a week please contact Nina Visconti, 714-572-4152 or nvisconti@roadrunner.com

"WELCOME HOME!"

HAVE YOU BEEN AWAY FROM THE CATHOLIC CHURCH?

Has it been awhile since you've joined us for Mass or any other parish activities? Is your own spirituality enough, or do you need something more? Do you have lots of questions about faith and church? You may be hearing God's loving call to return to the active practice of your Catholic faith. We can help you. This ministry reaches out to inactive Catholics who wish to consider returning to the Church and to the sacraments. We offer support and guidance through a series of non-judgmental growth sessions.

For more information please contact Deacon Gerhard Stadel @ 714-870-5714, or the Parish Office 714-879-1965.

CATHOLICISM 101

How have people expressed their quest for God throughout history?

In many ways, men and women have given their religious beliefs and behavior; in their prayers, sacrifices, rituals, meditations and so forth. These forms of religious expression, despite the ambiguities they often bring with them are so universal that one may well call man a "religious being". See Acts 17:26-28. (CCC #28)

“THE GOOD NEWS” VIA E-MAIL

You can stay connected to the heart and soul of our St. Juliana Catholic Community through email. We have created a weekly “The Good News” email to keep our parish and school informed on-line. Whether it is our Sunday bulletin, the weekly readings of the Gospel, or parish dates and information, you now have the opportunity to receive updates every week through Constant Contact. Join the 300 parishioners who are already receiving “The Good News”.

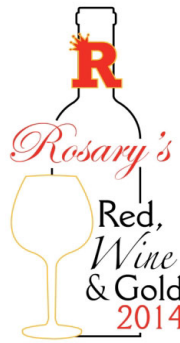

Go to www.stjulianachurch.org and click on “The Good News” on the home page to give us permission to send you “The Good News” and other parish information. Your email address will be safeguarded. If you know of parishioners who have moved or students who are away at school and they would like to receive the latest on the happenings here at St. Juliana, please have them contact us with their email addresses. For further information please contact Jan Young 714.879.1965.

LEGACY PAVERS

Have you ever considered leaving a legacy at our Parish by purchasing a courtyard paver for in front of the Parish Center?
A legacy paver is a great way to remember or honor someone. A copy of the order form is in the church vestibule, Parish Office, and on the parish website, www.stjulianachurch.org.

ROSARY HIGH SCHOOL “RED, WINE & GOLD”

Please join us for Rosary High School's Red Wine & Gold, a fun evening featuring wine, beer and food tasting in Rosary's Karcher Center. The event is scheduled for Saturday, January 18 from 6:30pm – 9pm. Along with food from some of the area's best restaurants, wine from Napa Valley and Washington State, and beer from Valiant Brewing Company, the night features silent and live auctions, a mystery wine grab and raffles. The event was created by St. Juliana parishioners Jack & Marquita Gyben eleven years ago. This year, we are offering a special VIP reception immediately preceding the event at 5:30pm. Anyone who sponsors the event at $1,000 or more, is invited to this exclusive reception featuring wine & food not available at the main event. Tickets are only $75 in advance and $ 85 the week of the event and at the door. To make reservations or to find out more about the event, visit www.rosaryhs.org/redwinegold. MANY "THANKS!"

Due to bulletin publishing deadlines, during the holidays the bulletins published early... so as we finalize this particular bulletin (several weeks ago), there were many 'saints' frantically finishing final touches in the Church and Parish Center to make Christmas extra special. (We hope you are still enjoying the wonder of Christmas this Epiphany weekend!) There are just no words that can ever adequately express all the sentiments of gratitude for all of our parish family that came forward, with joy in their hearts and a spirit of giving, to make everything so beautiful this Christmas season! The décor, the music, the lights, the energy, and the awe and wonder that is the true meaning of Christmas - expressions of joy that are reflective of the birth of our Lord! Thank you, Thank you, Thank you! Mothers, Fathers, Children, Grandparents, all the Ministry Volunteers, Parish and School Staff, Musicians, Deacons, Priests...everyone just came together in God's perfect plan, to give us all such special blessings this Christmas. Please know, no matter how big or small your part in all the preparations, the community of St. Juliana Falconieri extends our gratitude for the abundant blessings bestowed upon us all, expressed in all the works of goodness!! May the season of Christmas continue to grace your lives as we celebrate the Epiphany this weekend, and the Baptism of our Lord next weekend. God be with you all—and thank you again!!!
