THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

The Get On The Bus presentation was well received by St. Juliana Parishioners last Sunday. I am grateful to all who stayed for the video production highlighting the various components of this program. My thanks to Pat Huber from GOTB and parish representatives, Barbara and Bob Dietterle for setting up the program! It was certainly heart wrenching. I could hear sniffles from nearby viewers and some wiping tears from their eyes. If you haven't purchased your Dinner/Dance/Auction ticket, there is still time. This fundraiser is in conjunction with First Congregational Church of Fullerton who for years was the sole sponsor of GOTB. Three years ago, at the invitation of First Congregational Church, St. Juliana became a co-sponsor and provided the much needed space to expand the Benefit Dinner and Auction.

As you have heard and seen last week at church and in the bulletin Get On The Bus brings children and their guardians/caretakers from throughout California to visit their mothers (on Mother's Day) and fathers (on Father's Day) in prison. The money raised helps to provide transportation, travel, accessories, food, etc., for the children and their parents. Volunteers for the dinner are needed as well as donations of gift cards from restaurants, movie theaters, stores, sport shops to be used as items for the auction. These gifts along with the purchase of tickets can be handled by the parish office staff.

The Lenten Fish Fry dinners are in full force. The attendance the last few Fridays has been very encouraging to the school parents and volunteers who have devoted weeks of preparation and hours of cooking, serving, and cleaning-up to this fundraiser for our school. We are proud of the school community and recruits who believe that the sacrifices they are making will in the end benefit all the children of St. Juliana parish.

This Tuesday, March 18th is the last guided study evening on "Rediscovering Catholicism." Curtis Wesseln, Barbara Dietterle and Mike McHenry have co-directed this Lenten series in the Parish Center, St. Alexis Room. This final session will be at 7:30 p.m. You are welcome to attend even if you were unable to participate earlier. Bring your book with you.

During Lent we attempt to intensify our acts of charity and our fasting. Prayer is the third pillar of Lent. We may not be able to excel in all three pillars but we try our best. It is helpful to have some planned incentives. Daily Mass, Stations of the Cross, Rosary and Benediction, Adoration are all available for those who are serious about the Lenten discipline. The daily Mass readings contain a wealth of spiritual nourishment.

On Monday mornings during Lent following the 8 a.m. Mass, Mike McHenry, our director of Faith Formation, leads a study of the Lenten Scriptures. The program consists of time to read, pray, share and journal our way through Lent in the Seven Holy Founders Room. Much of this information is in the body of the bulletin but it is my intention to highlight it for you and hope that you will attend.

I hope you are using your Operation Rice Bowl banks. This program is worldwide and most parishes here in the Diocese of Orange participate. One heartfelt story is told about a family in Malawi, Africa. Timothy Machicka, his wife, and five children live in this country in southeastern Africa. More than half of the people in Malawi live on less than one dollar per day. Timothy's family was no exception. He struggled to grow potatoes and corn on his small plot of land, and did whatever odd jobs he would find to earn money. Still, often Timothy's family only had one meal per day. Then Timothy joined an agriculture program run by Catholic Relief Services (CRS). Timothy learned that chili peppers can grow without much water and will sell well at the market. Timothy's chili harvest was very successful, and he is proud to give his family what he couldn't provide before: three meals a day, and clothes and blankets for the children.

The attendance at the Stations of the Cross on Friday evenings at 6 p.m. has been rather sparse. I encourage you to participate. Perhaps you can combine a visit to the weekly Friday Fish Fry and the Stations of the Cross. This Lenten devotion has a long history in the church, obviously dating back to the Via Dolorosa walked by Our Lord.

My prayers and those of the entire St. Juliana parish community are with the Rosary High School students injured in the stage collapse at Servite High School on March 8th. While this accident certainly startled family and friends as well as both school communities, we are grateful that most injuries were not life-threatening. Nevertheless, this experience was certainly traumatic for the girls and not to be minimized. Word of the accident traveled across the country. I am sure this mishap will be corrected and future events on stage will be successful.

In a recent edition of the Orange County Register an article caught my eye entitled: "Stop Yelling!" The staff writer, Roger Bloom suggests, "Five Ways to Stop Yelling at your Child. 1) Be self-aware and have a plan. For example, take deep breaths or count backward from 100. Recognize when you are getting angry, employ your coping mechanism and make a conscious decision to behave in a different way; 2) Take a timeout. Go to another room for a few minutes to calm down. When you return, and are calm, talk about the situation or dispense consequences matter-of-factly; 3) Find a different way to react. Think about the times you have yelled, and then try to construct alternative scenarios for how you might have handled the situation; 4) Talk with your child afterward. Explain why you got angry, apologize for yelling, and strategize with the child about how you both could have handled the situation better; 5) Think back on times you were able to manage your anger and how you felt about that. Next time you are angry, think about how you want to look back on your behavior or imagine telling a respected friend how you handled the situation.

The philosopher David Hume wrote: "He is happy whose circumstances suit his temper, but he is more excellent who can suit his temper to any circumstance."

In the Joy of Our Faith,
Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M.
Pastor.

"THANK YOU" FROM MICKEY ROSE

My dear family and friends of St. Juliana Church and School,

 How does one ever express the thanks and gratitude I have for all the prayers, kind words and acts of generosity shown to me and my family through my husband Jerry's illness and death?  Thank you for the continued prayers. You too are in my prayers.
 With love, Mickey Rose

DEAR FRIENDS IN CHRIST,

I am blessed to have recently celebrated the anniversary of my first year as your shepherd here in our local Church of Orange. I am filled with gratitude when I reflect on how welcome I feel while meeting and sharing time with many of you in our 62 parishes and centers while learning of the wonderful works of ministry and outreach that are impacting our communities right here in our portion of the Lord's vineyard.

I am grateful for your response to my request last year to support our For Christ Forever Capital Campaign. Your faith is evident as you share the gifts that God has blessed you with. It is now time for us to refocus on our annual Pastoral Services Appeal (PSA) that provides vital support for many of the ministries and services that serve thousands here in our midst as well as provide critical support to all parishes and centers. I invite you to review the important information (in the next column) that describes these ministries.

Our theme for the 2014 PSA is Proud to be Catholic - Sent to Serve and reminds us that as disciples of Jesus Christ living our faith, we are sent to serve in the name of our Lord. Being sent implies action and when I reflect on so many examples of faith in action that have a profound impact on thousands in our diocese, I feel very blessed to share our faith. Our own Pope Francis calls our Catholic faith a light "capable of illuminating every aspect of human existence."

We have the challenge and opportunity to make a great impact through our many Catholic parishes, ministries, institutions and agencies, all united in faith, and our pride in our faith becomes an outpouring of Christ's love for those who most need our love and care.

Thank you for your past generosity and your participation in the life of the Body of Christ. Let us continue to reach out to all our brothers and sisters and let them know that through us, they might experience the love of Christ. I count on your prayerful, continued participation in the PSA this year.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Kevin W. Vann

CROP WALK 2014

We're looking forward to another great Crop Hunger Walk on Sunday, April 27, 2014! It's our opportunity to raise awareness concerning hunger and food insecurity issues in our local community and around the world, and to help do something about it as a unified Fullerton area community.

It is exciting to see multiple faith communities and organizations, young and old, come together to raise funds and awareness concerning some of the most pressing needs in our world today. Once again, 25% of all the funds raised through our local CROP Walk will stay right here in our community to help support the ongoing work of Pathways of Hope.

Mark your calendars to join us. St. Juliana has had a team of walkers for several years, and we have a great time, along with helping this wonderful cause. The walk begins at 1:00pm, and only takes about an hour. Watch the bulletin for more information, but mark your calendar...and call the Parish Office so we can get you signed up for our team!
