THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A few weeks ago members of the parish staff and I attended the three day Stewardship Conference sponsored by the Diocese of Orange and the Orange Catholic Foundation. We listened to the presenters, watched video's on Stewardship in action, collected written materials, and had an opportunity to talk to "experts" in the field of Stewardship. The most revealing information in this field for me was the different definitions of Stewardship. It is not all about money!

I have asked Suzanne Wulff (Business Manager), Curtis Wesseln (Advancement and PSA), Mike McHenry (Director of Faith Formation), and Bill Jason (Pastoral Council Liaison) to meet together and write about their combined experience and the pertinent information gathered at the Conference and share it with you in this column. I hope you find it helpful.

In the Joy of Our Faith,
Fr. Frank Falco, O.S.M.
Pastor

(The following is a collaboration of information compiled by the team listed above, who attended the Stewardship Conference.)

As we perused the main floor of the Stewardship Conference, we were all taken-back by all the number of parishes that had representation from their communities from throughout California, Nevada, Washington, and Hawaii. It was wonderful to see that we are all "Proud to be Catholic." The conference promised to provide us with a wealth of insight and practical tools to revitalize our parish and we were not disappointed.

What does stewardship look like? The answer to this question could be different for each and every member of a parish community. Stewardship can be a faith response and it can be love in action. Stewardship is not a "treatment" to strengthen our volunteer and financial numbers but it is a lifestyle that each one of us is called to be an active participant in the journey of our parish. The goal of every parish should be to become a "Total Stewardship Parish." We must recognize that all is a gift from God and we must live in gratitude knowing that we are here to be a good steward of His gifts. We need to be and become the best version of ourselves and be able to answer His universal call to holiness.

We found ourselves drawn to the following programs: Building an Engaging Parish: From Theory to Practice; Journey of a Total Stewardship Parish; Stewardship in Religious Education and Catholic Schools: Generous Hospitality and Welcome---the Root of Engagement; Family Comes First, Stewardship and our Catholic Family; Beginning a Planned Giving Effort in Your Parish: and Recognizing, Recruiting and Training Gifts of Time and Talent.

St. Juliana needs to become a more welcoming parish with an emphasis on hospitality and treating our new parishioners as our family. Welcoming and belonging is much more than just coffee and donuts. It is engaging our newest members, tapping into their unique strengths and talents and giving them an opportunity to do what they do best. As individuals and a community, we must build on our strengths and God-given gifts. When parishioners feel a strong engagement to their church community and a deep sense of belonging, there is an exponential increase in their service hours.

As we welcome our newest members into our community, we must also reinvigorate those that have lost their energy along the way. We hope every parishioner will develop a deep sense of belonging and make the parish an important part of his/her life and his/her family's life. To that end, there are four important questions that can be the foundation of our parish:

Meeting needs –

What do I get from this community?

Making a contribution –

What do I give?

Being part of the community –

Do I belong?

Mission of the community –

How can we grow?

Only one third of a parish congregation goes to Mass weekly. Thirty-two percent of Catholics attend Mass only once a year, on either Christmas or Easter. We need to partner in the mission of placing God first in all things, proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and growing in holiness through prayer, sacraments, and service. We need to have M.A.S.S.- "Make all Sundays Special". Let's welcome our family back home and smile and say hello when they arrive.

There was so much more information gathered at the Stewardship Conference than we can share with you here. Our promise to the community of St. Juliana is to put these ideas into practice in our everyday parish lives. Our leadership is committed to transforming St. Juliana into a more welcoming and engaging parish and strengthening our sense of community. We will need the help of everyone to make this a success and we will reach out to you in the coming months.

We thank you for your support and for having the opportunity to serve you.

Peace to you all~

Suzanne Wulff, Business Manager
Curtis Wesseln, Advancement and PSA
Mike McHenry, Director of Faith Formation
Bill Jason, Pastoral Council Liaison

RCIA INFORMATION

R.C.I.A. (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) classes for 2014-15 begin the end of August...at the end of the summer. Summer is a time to recharge our internal batteries ~ soak up some sun, play golf, go to the beach, spend some relaxing time with family and friends, etc. Summer can be such an enjoyable time to rejuvenate our soul!

Summer is also a time to take stock of our lives. How is your relationship with Jesus these days? Do you turn to Him for strength?...for guidance?... for forgiveness?

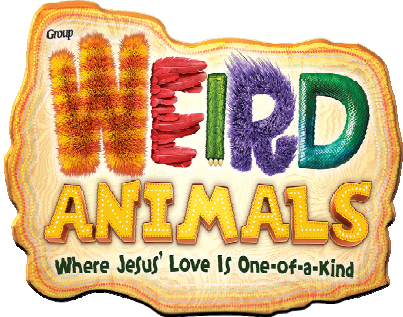

Please spend some time this summer reconnecting with Jesus. Pray everyday with purpose. Strive to be an intentional disciple of His. If you or someone you know is searching for a way to connect with our faith and are interested in being baptized in the Catholic Church or have not completed all Sacraments of Initiation (Eucharist and Confirmation) and wish to do so, please call our Parish Office at 714-879-1965 and ask to speak with a RCIA Team Member. We are gathering a list of names and interviewing candidates now for the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) 2014-15 sessions which will begin the end of August. We look forward to talking with you and assisting in your discernment.

Note: We are always looking for men and women who feel called to be RCIA Sponsors. A Sponsor walks the journey with an RCIA Candidate through their year of faith formation...it is a very rewarding experience! Please contact the Parish Office if you have ever wondered how to sponsor an RCIA candidate and would possibly be interested in doing so.

THE FOUR SIGNS OF A DYNAMIC CATHOLIC / CHAPTER SUMMARY ~ GENEROSITY

- ♦The happiest people I know are the most generous people I know.
- ♦God is generous, and generosity is at the heart of the Christian life.
- ♦Generosity begins with gratitude.
- ♦Dynamic Catholics live in a state of gratitude. They have an overwhelming sense that their lives have been blessed.
- ♦The world draws us into a conversation about all that we don't have, but God invites us into a conversation about all that we do have. We are at our best when we are grateful.
- ♦When we speak about generosity at church we usually do so in the context of stewardship, and we talk about three categories: time, talent, and treasure. Stewardship is the careful and responsible management of something entrusted to one's care. As Christians, we are taught that our time, talent, and treasure are all on loan to us---and that one day we will have to account for the way we managed them.
- ♦Don't let what you can't do interfere with what you can do.
- ♦Generosity is a trademark of Dynamic Catholics. They are generous with their time and talent and with their money and possessions, but their generosity goes way beyond these commonly defined areas. They have not just a spirit of generosity, but a spirituality of generosity that reaches deep into every corner of their lives. Generosity is central to their value system, and they often think in terms of how they can do the most good with what they have at their disposal.
- ♦The 7% are generous lovers, parents, and grandparents. Their neighbors and colleagues at work often acknowledge them among the most generous people they know. They are generous with their praise and their appreciation. They are especially generous with their encouragement. They are constantly encouraging people all around them. The scope of their generosity reaches into every aspect of life.
- ♦Establish giving goals. Give one percent more of your income this year than you did last year to your church and favorite charities. Increase this giving percentage by one percent of your income each year until you reach a tithe of 10 percent (or until it simply is not possible or prudent for you to give any more). Goals bring out the best in us. We have goals for everything else; isn't it time we had some generosity goals?
- ♦The third sign of a Dynamic Catholic is Generosity.

Thank you for your continued generosity to the various fundraising efforts, special collections and PSA.

Our diocesan assessment is $108,000.

We have officially met our goal—now, every pledge paid and received over $108,000 will be returned to St. Juliana.

Some generous parishioners have offered a matching gift opportunity for all our parish staff, school families, and school staff. They will match dollar for dollar every pledge from $10-$75 up to at least $11,000 to encourage 100% participation from all of us.

Please join in making a pledge to our PSA 2014 campaign. Cut out the pledge info above, and remit to the Parish Office, attn.: PSA .. or contact the Parish Office at 714-879-1965 should you need additional PSA pledge information.

8TH GRADE IN BOSTON & WASHINGTON

PAROCHIAL ATHLETIC LEAGUE-TRACK MEET

The participants of the PAL Tract meet from last weekend were honored at flag ceremony (above)...the 1st graders ran for their classmate. Very kind & touching!

VOCATION ESSAY CONTEST

St. Juliana Vocation Committee sponsored an essay contest, the subject of which was Pope Francis. Sixth, seventh and eighth grade students were asked to read an article about how Pope Francis 'walks the talk' of our faith. Each student was then asked to write about how Pope Francis touched him/her; how his actions challenged him/her; and what he/she could do to follow Pope Francis' lead.

Please go to www.stjulianaschool.org (under Spiritual Life / Vocation Essays) to read all 1st, 2nd & 3rd place essays.

7th grade essay winner, Rachel Linton

Last week you read the 1st place, 8th grade winner's essay. We proudly present to you the 7th grade first place winner this week, Rachel Linton. Enjoy her article below!

Dig Deeper with Pope Francis

"Pope Francis is a truly inspiring man. His example of how he lives and teaches shows that he is not like other popes. He prefers to live like an ordinary person and teach not only verbally, but also through the Internet, like on Twitter. Pope Francis seems especially unique to me because his words and actions challenge me to become more like him and more like Christ.

Pope Francis has done so many things already during his time as Pope that amaze me. However, the one action that has touched me the most has to be the lifestyle he has chosen for himself. As Pope, he has the privileges of riding in the popemobile and living in the papal apartments. But Pope Francis does not care about these perks of being Pope. He has decided to use a Ford Focus as his transportation and live in the Vatican guesthouse. He knows that being Pope is not about the material items but about being close to the people.

Pope Francis' words and actions challenge me to really step back and look at myself and make sure I am living like a good Catholic should. He has a Twitter account where millions can see his quotes, prayers, or invitations. One quote I saw in this reading selection is: "True charity requires courage; let us overcome the fear of getting our hands dirty so as to help those in need." This challenges me to think of others and to not worry only about my needs and problems. Another tweet says: "To be saints is not a privilege for the few, but a vocation for everyone." This means that everyone is called to help out and to live as saints but we think that only a few are supposed to take on this task. These are assisting me to be the best Catholic I can possibly be, and I know Pope Francis is responsible for those wonderful quotes.

I can do many things to follow Pope Francis' lead. Since he is very focused on making life better for the less fortunate, I feel that helping them will make me follow his example the most. Outside of Church and school, there is one thing I have wanted to do forever, and I am finally old enough. That is to help at a place called Crittenton. This is a place where young single mothers live with their children and where the children are cared for when the mothers go to school, so they can get an education and a job. People, like my mother and two older sisters, volunteer there to help watch and play with the young children. They have done it for about a year now, and I have always wanted to do it as well, but there is a rule that you have to be thirteen years old to volunteer. I'm that age now, and I think volunteering there would be an amazing way to follow Pope Francis' lead to help the less fortunate. I hope that will help me appreciate the work that he is trying to teach all Roman Catholics.

Pope Francis asks us to be a little more like Christ. Through his seven lessons, we learn how he lives and works and how he wants us to do the same. Through his example, I think I can dig a little deeper and really show people what a great role model he is to me. I hope I can live out my Catholic faith the way Pope Francis wants all of us to."
