THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE, O.S.M.

THE FEAST OF ST PHILIP BENIZI

August 23 is the Feast of St. Philip Benizi. That was only yesterday! TODAY, the Servite Secular Community here at St. Juliana Falconieri Parish is leading us in celebrating the feast.

St. Juliana and St. Philip are saints of the Servite Order. The Servite Order is properly known in the Roman Catholic Church as the "Order of Friar Servants of Mary." It is popularly known as the Servite Order. In the Diocese of Orange its members are Fr. Luke and me at St. Juliana, the priests at St. Philip Benizi Parish in West Fullerton and the priests and brothers at Servite High School in Anaheim. We sign "OSM" which means Order Servants of Mary after our names. Perhaps you were educated by Jesuits who sign SJ (Society of Jesus), Dominicans who sign OP (Order of Preachers), Franciscans who sign OFM (Order of Friars Minor), Sisters of Saint Joseph of Orange who write CSJ, or Holy Cross CSC (Congregation of the Sacred Cross). Some of the faithful have created another signification for the letters, for example, CSC might mean Cash Sweet Cash.

Our Catholic Church in Orange paints an interesting triptych of the Servites in the City of Fullerton. Mary, the Mother of Jesus is central to the spiritually to the Servites. So paint this in your mind: Saint Juliana on the East (we are first for the sun rises in the East!), St. Mary's the Mother Parish in the Center, and St. Philip Benizi in the West where the sun sets. A rather curious three sided painting!

Not long ago I told you a bit about the life of St. Juliana. Early biographers tell us that St. Philip was born on the feast of the Assumption of Mary, August 15 in 1233 – the very day of the great appearance of Mary to the original Seven Holy Founders of the Servites. He was a native of Florence, Italy, the son of Giacomo Benizi and his wife Albaverde. Little is known about Philip's early life. It is recorded that when he entered the Order in 1254 he was well educated having studied philosophy and medicine in Paris and a doctorate in Padua. Education aside, he wished to pursue holiness. He was known for his life of service, humility and devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary which attracted him to the Servites.

As he grew in the Order he wished to be a humble member simply working in the gardens and land at Monte Senario, a foundation of the Order above the city of Florence. In time his education and background became known and he was sent to study theology and be ordained a priest in the Order. Within eight or nine years Philip was elected as the leader, the Prior General of the Order, in 1267. He was the Prior General for eighteen years.

During that time he continued to be known as a humble friar and a priest of great simplicity. In one story he gave his tunic to a leper who upon receiving it was cured. Another part of his history records that on the death of Pope Clement IV in 1268 a history records that on the death of Pope Clement IV in 1268 a number of cardinals believed Philip to be a candidate for the office of pope. One historian tells us that of hearing this, Philip hid! He was not elected pope. Artistic representations of St. Philip today depict him with the Cross which was his guide, the only book he needed for life, and a papal tiara resting at his feet. There is such a statue of him on the Great Colonnade, those huge arms in St. Peter's Piazza.

Another important part of his life is the miracle of the bread. While Philip was on his way to visit the houses of the Order in Germany, he came to a place where there was neither bread nor water. Moved to pity in the sight of people overcome with heat and hunger Philip prayed to the Lord to provide nourishment. On finishing his prayer, Philip looked around where he was and noticed some "very white bread and a jar of water." His prayers were answered.

This is the bread that is provided to you by the community of Secular Servites today (after the Sunday morning Masses.)

I encourage you to visit with the Secular Servites. Learn our Tradition from them. I am proud of our Community of Secular Servites at St. Juliana Parish. I encourage you to meet them and consider joining their community.

SERVITE "THANK YOU!"

Please accept our sincerest thanks and appreciation for your check in the amount of $7,989.00 representing the most generous donations received from the parish community of St. Juliana Falconieri, to assist us in our continuing support of our Servite Missionaries in Kwazulu-Natal, Republic of South Africa.

Both the Servite and Parish Communities of St. Juliana Falconieri Parish have the gratitude of all the Servites, especially those ministering in South Africa. They are most appreciative of both the spiritual and financial assistance, from our province ministers, which enables them to continue their various ministries to the people they serve.

The parishioners are remembered in the prayers of all the Servites, especially those serving in South Africa. Please continue to pray for an increase in Servite vocations both in the United States and South Africa.

Faternally,
Bro. Michael Callery, OSM
Mission Procurator

PS. Fr. Mike also sends his sincere gratitude for the generosity of this parish. Thank you!

- To pray for our church and our families to grow in holiness service
- Your own personal intentions

Join us for prayer and for a study group the 3rd Tuesday of each month in the Children's Chapel of the church, following the 7pm Knights of Columbus rosary and benediction. We have chosen The Way of Perfection, Study Edition. Based on the writing of St. Teresa of Avila, OCD, a Carmelite Sister and a Doctor of the Catholic Church. The book will go deeper into the formation of our prayer life. For more information and registration, call Nina Visconti, (714) 624-4799 or email: Nina.Visconti11@gmail.com.

CATHOLICISM 101

Catholic social teaching is based on and inseparable from our understanding of human life and human dignity. Every human being is created in the image of God and redeemed by Jesus Christ, and therefore is invaluable and worthy of respect as a member of the human family. Every person, from the moment of conception to natural death, has inherent dignity and a right to life consistent with that dignity. Human dignity comes from God, not from any human quality or accomplishment. -Catholic Social Teaching: Challenges and Directions (uscbb.org). In light of the recent turmoil in the far away places of the world and in our own country, the Church forever stands vigilant over the fact that all life is sacred. Pray this week that we will all be mindful of the inexhaustible love and grace of God in all corners of the world.

A MESSAGE FROM DIOCESE OF ORANGE DEAF COMMUNITY

On behalf of the Catholic Deaf Community, I would like to extend our gratitude in offering our Community a home for the past 12 years. The Deaf Community has thrived because of the generosity of St. Juliana. Over the past 12 years at St. Juliana, the Deaf Community has been able to provide a sacramental preparation program for those individuals that are deaf or hard of hearing and have been able to participate in the countless liturgies that have been celebrated. I would like to thank the Pastor Fr. Mike Pontarelli, OSM, Deacon Gerhard Stadel and Suzie Lazuka for their continuous support. I would especially like to thank Mr. Bob Cardinali. The past 12 years, Bob has set up the sacristy for our Masses and has personally trained our students to become altar servers. He is truly living his baptismal call. We as a Community of faith, as a Church, are better for having Bob in our flock. May God continue to bless him and his family.

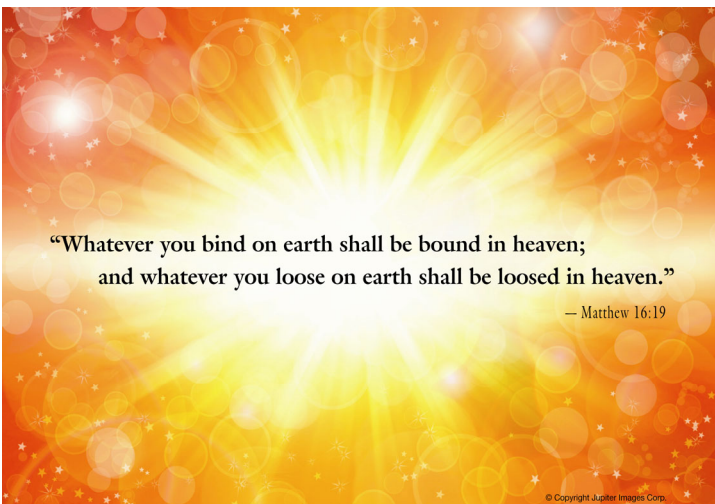

In September, the Deaf Community will begin a new journey. Our sacramental preparation program and Mass will take place at our new home: Mater Dei High School, 1202 W. Edinger Ave., Santa Ana, 92707. The sacramental preparation classes will begin at 8:45am to 10:45am which will then be followed by Mass at 11:00am in the Mater Dei Chapel. The proximity to our ever growing community will allow many more individuals to unite in the mission of the Church. Although a new path has appeared which offers our community the opportunity for a new evangelization, we will never forget the road we traveled to get here. Please continue to pray for our ministry as we will continue to pray for our family at St. Juliana.
