THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE, O.S.M.

The readings this Sunday, 19th Ordinary Time Cycle A, remind us that we sometimes look for God in the wrong places or walk right past Him – looking for Him in the wrong places. Truly after an earthquake we are humbled, shamed, or simply caught off-guard and exclaim: “Oh, m-y GOD!” as if to inquire “Oh, m-y GOD what have I/we done to deserve this?” God did not cause an earth-quake to punish any of us, a drought to teach us a lesson, or strike lightning to kill, or cancer because we are bad. He doesn't cause rain because we washed our car. That simply isn't the God we worship; He wishes our safety for He loves us.

As we gather for Eucharist, we pause and call to mind the times we have missed God. Missing the mark is called “sin.” When have we lived for some-one who is not God, when have we longed for some-thing that is not God? Whom or what have we made into an idol? When have I diminished not only my Christian life but my human life? If the purpose of Christian living is: “to know, love, and serve God in this world so that I will be happy with Him in heaven” (a question with a star next to it in the Baltimore Catechism and many of us know what that means), when have I missed that mark?

The Penitential Act of the Mass is not to replace the Sacrament of Penance but to remind us that we do gather to receive God's all merciful love. Part of that act is to be mindful that God has forgiven our sins. We do not deserve this great gift, but we rejoice in His goodness and love. We need to recall when we were aware of His presence and give thanks for the graces we have received. We also need to recall when we missed His presence and promise to do better the next time.

Thus the Penitential Rite serves to remind us of a basic reason we have to give thanks to God. The emphasis is on the reconciliation Christ has won for us rather than on our sins. Listen, for example, to the language of the Roman Missal for the invocations to the Penitential Rite: “You were sent to heal the contrite; You came to call sinners; You plead for us at the right hand of the Father; You came to gather the nations into the peace of God's kingdom; You come in word and sacrament to strengthen us in holiness; You will come in glory with salvation for your people; You came to reconcile us to one another and to the Father; You heal the wounds of sin and division.” Or simply: “Lord have Mercy, Christ have Mercy, Lord have Mercy.” These invocations always focus on Christ and on God's forgiveness. This gives us good reason to give God thanks. May Almighty God have mercy on us, forgives us of our sins, and help us to be more aware of His presence, His grace, His love, His mercy in our ordinary gum-chewing daily life. AMEN!

Now, go off and honor a God moment. Watch the sun-rise, the sun-set, kids flying kites, hear the harrumph of the ocean, hold a baby until he/she falls asleep in your arms, walk the dog and talk to a neighbor, or sit on a bench at Disneyland and smile. Whatever makes you say: “WOW” just might make you aware of God's presence.

It is only after a “WOW” moment of recognizing God can you begin to pray honestly: “Glory to God in the Highest.”

VOCATION THOUGHTS

Do not be afraid, have faith and trust the Lord's call. Consider being a priest, brother or sister. (Matthew 14:22-23)

MISSION COLLECTION "THANKS"

Father Joseph Arackal V.C. and all the Vincentian Missionaries thank you for your prayers and generous mission offerings on August 2 & 3. We want to thank especially Fr Mike and Fr. Luke and the parish staff for their most generous and gracious assistance and kind hospitality. Your support and encouragement will help the missionaries to face the enormous challenges in bringing food, shelter, education and most importantly the Gospel message to the poor. Your offerings will help the Vincentian Congregation to carry out their many missionary, educational and charitable activities in the mission countries and will help them educate young men studying for priesthood. If you would like to help an individual seminarian in his studies for priesthood you may write: Vincentian Fathers, 210 5th Ave SE St. Cloud, MN 56304-1004. (Email-vcfathers@yahoo.com) If you did not have an opportunity to make an offering or would like to make an additional offering you may make your offering through the general parish collection in a specially marked envelope. Thank you very much for your generous support. Your generosity will always be remembered where it counts most – at the Altar.

RCIA

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

RCIA is a process by which the community initiates into its midst non-baptized adults, baptized adults from another faith seeking full communion with the Catholic Church, and those preparing for full initiation through the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist. RCIA is primarily a journey of faith that begins with wondering, asking, and seeking; continues through hearing God's word, studying, discussing, and praying; and leads to a commitment through the sacraments of initiation to a life of faith and love in communion with Catholics throughout the world.

Contact the Parish Office if you or a loved one have been praying about joining RCIA. Classes begin August 18th.

CATHOLICISM 101

The Patron Saint

Few practices of the Catholic Church are so misunderstood today as devotion to patron saints. From the earliest days of the Church, groups of the faithful (families, parishes, regions, countries) have chosen a particularly holy person who has passed on to intercede for them with God. Seeking the intercession of a patron saint does not mean that one cannot approach God directly in prayer; rather, it's like asking a friend to pray for you to God, while you also pray except, in this case, the friend is already in Heaven, and can pray to God for us without ceasing. It's the communion of saints, in actual practice. Scripture urges us to pray for one another; and, as Christians, we believe that those who have died still live, and therefore are capable of offering prayers as we do. This Monday was the feast day of St John Vianney, the patron saint of priests. Let us all pray with St John Vianney for the health and strength of all priests, especially for Fr. Luke and Fr. Mike!

MESSAGE FROM THE DIOCESE OF ORANGE BORDER CRISIS FOR CHILDREN

What Is the Border Crisis All About? How Can I Help the Unaccompanied Children and Families?

Central American children from El Salvador, Guatemala and Honduras are migrating alone to the United States in record numbers. While not a new phenomenon, the number of children who are making the perilous journey alone has increased exponentially - 6,775, on average, arrived between 2003–2011, and upwards of 90,000 are projected to arrive in Fiscal Year 2014 (Sept). Multiple factors are contributing to the increase in forced child migration including: a lack of strong social institutions and civil society support, abuse in the family stemming from pressure on family units due to violence and family separation, a lack of viable economic and educational opportunities, and environmental factors affecting crop production. However, the overriding and overwhelming factor is generalized violence and corresponding breakdown of the rule of law threatening citizen security and creating a culture of fear and hopelessness.

Parishes in the Diocese of Orange continue to pray, learn, and respond generously through the following:

- Praying for humanitarian relief, justice, and compassionate welcome:
 - Prayer: Migration of Unaccompanied Children (from Sisters of St Joseph of Orange): <http://www.sistersofmercy.org/resources/prayer-world-refugee-day-june-20-2014/>
 - Education and prayer resources from CRS: <http://crs.org/guatemala/unaccompanied-minors-an-alarmsurge-in-numbers/>
- Charitable Giving to agencies addressing root causes and caring for emergency needs:
 - Catholic Relief Services: crs.org/guatemala/unaccompanied-minors-an-alarmsurge-in-numbers/
 - Catholic Charities USA: catholiccharitiesusa.org/
 - USCCB/Migration & Refugee Services: <http://bit.ly/1zO7YNA>
 - Passing On Hope: <http://bit.ly/1xYiKOP>
- Contacting Political Leaders to truly humanitarian responses to the needs of these unaccompanied children and refugee families, through Action Alerts from:
 - Catholic Legislative Network: capwiz.com/cacatholic/home/
 - USCCB-JFI: capwiz.com/justiceforimmigrants/home/
 - Catholics Confront Global Poverty (CRS): <http://www.confrontglobalpoverty.org/>
- Advocating for just, compassionate, and comprehensive immigration reform that includes an earned path to citizenship, protections for minors, family unity, worker justice, due process, humanitarian concerns, and that addresses root causes. Contact the Office of Life, Justice, and Peace, Diocese of Orange (714-282-3105, eramirez@rcbo.org). Learn more at www.justiceforimmigrants.org.
- Responding by collecting and sending donations to the border (La Purisima Parish), hosting community forums to inform and protect all immigrants (Our Lady of Guadalupe, La Habra; St Polycarp, Stanton; Immaculate Heart of Mary, Santa Ana), and being ready to assist as needed with receiving and caring for children and families in need. Thank you for all that you are doing to witness to the life and dignity of our immigrant sisters and brothers.

For more information, please contact the Office of Life, Justice, and Peace, Diocese of Orange (714-282-3105, eramirez@rcbo.org).
