THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

The seasons of the Church like the Gospels themselves are meant to shake us up. Today’s lesson of the end of time wakes us up as it shakes us up. Frankly, it disorientates me. Advent is the time to prepare for an important arrival: Are we preparing for the infant Jesus or the already lived and died Risen Lord? For whom or what are you preparing?

As you go through the season of Advent to Christmas time, reflect on this question: “What is important and why?” While those amusing and annoying advertisements are showing us a lot of stuff we need to buy, how much spent on how much more stuff will make a real difference in your life? The ads and marketplace scream: “If you don’t want to be left out buy this today, wear this now, make your life easier with one of these, do this and you will have a better forever.” Of course, it’s all half price the day after and reduced even greater after that. The media will report how much money was spent, how much was charged, and how many extra workers were employed.

Yet how will we know how many Christians renewed their faith in Jesus? How will we know how many not-yet-Christians began conversion because of the witness of the faithful who “kept Christ in Christmas?”

This Advent how do you prepare to receive the gift that is Jesus? What will your belief cause you to do that will shake up your family and friends?

We really are free to do as we choose. As many chose to buy even through credit, will you chose to believe in the Kingdom of God and reform your life accordingly?

Following with the theme above, we might be free to choose but we cannot evade the consequence of our choice. After every Mass this weekend a petition to introduce a California State referendum to overturn California’s Assisted suicide law will be available for signatures of registered voters in the County of Orange. When the law goes into effect, it will allow a terminally ill, mentally competent adult to obtain a prescription for a life-ending drug provided two doctors confirm the diagnosis and prognosis, and other safeguards are met. Simply stated, a law declares an action legal/illegal, not moral. If the petition is signed by the required number of voters and filed with the Secretary of State, a challenge to the law approved by the Legislature and Govern can be placed on the statewide ballot. It is important that only voters in Orange County sign the petition and that your information is printed clearly.

I provide the following from the letter of the Catholic Bishops: To Live Each Day with Dignity: A Statement on Physician-Assisted Suicide. You may find the entire letter on-line.

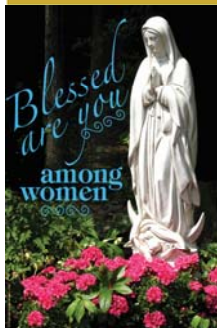

“To live in a manner worthy of our human dignity, and to spend our final days on this earth in peace and comfort, surrounded by loved ones—that is the hope of each of us. In particular, Christian hope sees these final days as a time to prepare for our eternal destiny.

“Today, however, many people fear the dying process. They are afraid of being kept alive past life’s natural limits by burdensome medical technology. They fear experiencing intolerable pain and suffering, losing control over bodily functions, or lingering with severe dementia. They worry about being abandoned or becoming a burden on others.

Our society can be judged by how we respond to these fears. A caring community devotes more attention, not less, to members facing the most vulnerable times in their lives. When people are tempted to see their own lives as diminished in value or meaning, they most need the love and assistance of others to assure them of their inherent worth.

The healing art of medicine is an important part of this assistance. Even when a cure is not possible, medicine plays a critical role in providing “palliative care”—alleviating pain and other symptoms and meeting basic needs. Such care should combine medical skill with attention to the emotional as well as spiritual needs of those facing the end of life.”

THE SPIRIT MUSIC GROUP -NEWS - CHRISTMAS MASS HELP NEEDED

The Spirit Music Group from the 11am Mass would like to extend an invitation to those parishioners who enjoy singing or play an instrument to join us for a one-time commitment at the 4pm Christmas Eve Mass in the Church.

If your interested in being part of our “contemporary choir”, a small commitment is required. We ask that you attend 2 or 3 rehearsals which will be held on Sunday December 6th, 13th and 20th from 12:15pm to 1:00pm.

If interested or if you have questions, please stop by the choir loft after the 11am Mass or contact us as follows:

Joan Wismer at 714-336-5522 or
Donna Fairrington at 714-390-5121

When we sing, we pray twice - we would love to add your voice to our choir for the most holy of Mass, the Christmas Eve Mass!

CHRISTMAS FAMILY SPONSORSHIP

Is your family looking for a special opportunity to sponsor a family-in-need in our community for Christmas? Please pray with your family, and if you have any questions, contact the Parish Office at 714-879-1965 for details.

CHRISTMAS USHERS NEEDED

The ushers are in need of volunteers to assist with the Christmas masses (see Mass times on page 6.) There is a total of 7 Masses Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. This is more than we can handle alone.

If you are able to help, please contact the Parish Office at 714-879-1965 or Head Usher Kirk Heide at 714-553-0762.

GIVING "ON-LINE"

In the world we live in, few of us carry cash or have our checkbooks handy - we use electronic forms of paying for many things. Have you ever considered donating to the Church electronically? Simply go to the parish website at www.stjulianachurch.org and click the blue box titled ON-LINE GIVING, the process is easy to follow. Register and begin on-line giving today! It's a lot easier than remembering your checkbook. Consider end-of year tax deductions and charitable giving as the 2015 year comes to a close. We are most gracious for your generosity.

"GOOD NEWS" VIA E-MAIL

You can stay connected to the heart and soul of our St. Juliana Catholic Community through email. We have created a weekly "The Good News" email to keep our parish and school informed on-line. Whether it is our Sunday bulletin, the weekly readings of the Gospel, or parish dates and information, you now have the opportunity to receive updates every week through Constant Contact. Join the 300+ parishioners who are already receiving "The Good News".

Go to www.stjulianachurch.org and click on "The Good News" on the home page to give us permission to send you "The Good News" and other parish information. Your email address will be safeguarded. If you know of parishioners who have moved or students who are away at school and they would like to receive the latest on the happenings here at St. Juliana, please have them contact us with their email addresses. For further information please contact Jan Young 714.879.1965.

LEGACY PAVERS

Have you ever considered leaving a legacy at our Parish by purchasing a courtyard paver for in front of the Parish Center? A legacy paver is a great way to remember or honor someone. An order form is enclosed in this bulletin. A copy of the order form is in the church vestibule, Parish Office, and on the parish website, www.stjulianachurch.org.
