THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A MESSAGE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M.

It's been my long standing opinion that Alice In Wonderland should be read annually. It keeps one from going mad. I haven't read it yet this year! I suggest the Annotated Alice, notes by the logician Martin Gardner. Humpty Dumpty and Alice exchange a nifty argument over the use of words. Humpty insists in a rather scornful tone: "When I use a word, it means just what I choose it to mean – neither more nor less." Alice counters: "The question is, whether you can make words mean so many different things."

Making words mean what we choose them to mean causes a lot of difficulties, especially in matters of faith. I enjoy the post-Easter Scripture lessons so much precisely because they are so personal dealing with "minds open to understanding and hearts burning within" as Jesus opens himself to the first believers. The gospel lesson of Thomas the Apostle is so important; he was present with Jesus, the Master Teacher, for perhaps three years, day after day, city after city, and parable after parable. Yet Thomas initially had great difficulty with faith in the Resurrected Jesus. What could it mean? He had not yet encountered Jesus as the others had. He lets this difficulty be known when he tells those disciples: "Nope, not until I see and touch him. Your experiences are your experiences. I want my own." Perhaps Thomas was from Missouri: the Show ME state! This lesson of journey to faith continued last week. Some disciples were walking along, troubled to terrified. Jesus is with them, but they did not recognize Jesus as he appeared. He tells them: "Look at me, it is I. Ghosts are not like I am. Let's read the Scriptures with a new understanding, let's share a new meal, and let's gather as a new community. You are witnesses to these new things." Today, Jesus presents himself as a new kind of leader; a servant leader. The servant leader knows his followers as his followers know him. As you are loved, serve others.

So, a faith experience continues with each of us. We gather in faith, our hearts set on fire and our minds are open when we read Scriptures, when we share a sacred meal we get strength to proclaim the Lord, in the community gathered we are a people of faith-filled joy. Jesus does the gathering and the leading. In love he does the choosing and the forming a new people who are faithful to his name.

By "faith" let's mean the way we come to knowledge of God and Jesus. Faith is not theology yet it does not have existence without some interpretation. For all Thomas knew, those disciples could have a distorted experience of the Risen One.

Sometimes we have to make words do a lot of work. Faith must do a lot of work! Faith is the work of a relationship with the One who moves each of us to understand the Scriptures, share a meal, and enjoy new life in a community. Faith means trust Jesus the leader.

Personal faith, totally fascinating, utterly confusing. Our faith words mean a lot, especially when they mean a relationship with Jesus who leads us by the examples of service and love.

At the beginning of the Holy Thursday liturgy I announced that the collection taken that night would be used for the under-served in our community and that it would be shared with St. Philip Benizi Parish, our brother Servite parish in West Fullerton. Your generosity allowed us to send a check for $1000.00 to serve the needy in that parish. Fr Donald Siple, OSM, pastor of St. Philip and I thank you for your on-going generosity.

The experience you have of Jesus must be the experience of the One who moves you to an experience you never thought possible.

Make it the tradition handed down by someone who is involved and passionate about his/her commitment to God, Jesus, and salvation. Thomas listened to the disciples; their testimony was that of passionate believers, convinced that they knew Jesus in a new way. The same is true for those disciples on their way to Emmaus. Their faith experience is personal knowledge.

So, faith is not primarily about a creed, a list of what it is that we believe. Faith is an intentional relationship with the Lord of Life.

'When I use a word,' Humpty Dumpty said, in rather a scornful tone, 'it means just what I choose it to mean — neither more nor less.'

'The question is,' said Alice, 'whether you can make words mean so many different things.'

'The question is,' said Humpty Dumpty, 'which is to be master — that's all.'

Alice was too much puzzled to say anything; so after a minute Humpty Dumpty began again.

'They've a temper, some of them — particularly verbs: they're the proudest — adjectives you can do anything with, but not verbs — however, I can manage the whole lot of them! Impenetrability! That's what I say!'

'Would you tell me please,' said Alice, 'what that means?'

'Now you talk like a reasonable child,' said Humpty Dumpty, looking very much pleased. 'I meant by "impenetrability" that we've had enough of that subject, and it would be just as well if you'd mention what you mean to do next, as I suppose you don't mean to stop here all the rest of your life.'

'That's a great deal to make one word mean,' Alice said in a thoughtful tone.

'When I make a word do a lot of work like that,' said Humpty Dumpty, 'I always pay it extra.'

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

This Sunday, April 26th
The purpose of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publically fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), to the Religious life in all its forms (male and female, contemplative and apostolic), to societies of apostolic life, to secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life, in the particular sense of mission "ad gentes".

This year marks the 51st Anniversary of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTRY

Dear St. Juliana Family,
Our parish is of urgent need of additional Extraordinary Eucharistic Ministers at all the masses, ESPECIALLY AT THE SUNDAY 5:00 P.M. MASS.

This spiritual ministry witnesses the Real Presence of Christ in the action of sharing in the Eucharistic meal of Christ's sacrifice by assisting the priest in bringing the sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ to the people of God at Mass.

We are also in need for additional Extraordinary Eucharistic Ministers for the Sick and Homebound.

If you are interested to join this ministry, please call the church office at 1-714-879-1965 or Deacon Gerhard Stadel at 1-714-870-5714.

VOCATION ESSAY CONTEST

St. Juliana Vocation Committee sponsored an essay contest, the subject of which was Pope Francis. Sixth, seventh and eighth grade students were asked to read about the 10 things (sounding remarkably like "New Year's resolutions") Pope Francis asked Vatican employees to do in 2015. Each student was then asked to write a letter to Pope Francis, addressing 3 of the 10 'resolutions' and how he/she could apply each to his/her own life.

Today, the Committee is pleased to highlight the 1st Place essay for 8th grade, written by Alessandra Santiago. Congratulations Alessandra! (The 1st place essay for each of 6th and 7th grade will be published in the May 3rd and May 10th Sunday bulletins.)

Dear Pope Francis,

I am deeply grateful for being given the opportunity to write this letter to you. My name is Alessandra Santiago and I am 13 years old. I live in the state of California, which is in the United States of America. I attend St. Juliana Falconieri School, which is a private Catholic school. Everyday I learn what it truly means to be a Catholic, and I am writing to you because I have recently been reflecting on your teachings. Your words and actions strengthen, encourage, and challenge me to become a better Catholic.

"Take care of your spiritual life, your relationship with God, because this is the backbone of everything we do and everything we are." This encouraging quote reminds me that God is the focus and most important thing in my life. God is the reason I can live out the amazing gift of life. By going to a Catholic school, I am constantly reminded to strengthen my relationship with God. Everyday I try to become closer to God, while facing obstacles such as acceptance and faith. I also tend to notice signs that God is watching out for me and wants the best for me. You strengthen me to become closer to God, become a better person, and help others find a strong need for God in their own lives. The result of all people having an unbreakable bond with God is a strong, lively Church with the goal to live eternally with God in Heaven. I have a great sense of gratitude toward God for giving me a wonderful life and a chance to live it with Him.

"Take care of your relationships with others, transforming your faith into life and your words into good works, especially on behalf of the needy." Having people that love and care for me makes life extra special, and I want to make them feel the same way by showing them how valuable my relationships with them are to me. As Catholics, we are called to spread values of faith, hope, and love. I believe that love is the most important out of these three because nothing has meaning without love. If a relationship is not connected with love, then it is not a true, valuable relationship. I'm not a very social person, and this makes it hard to show people how much I really care for them. I know in my heart, as does God, that I'll never let anyone down, especially those who need me the most. God is all-loving and I believe God works through me to spread love by creating amazing relationships. You encourage me to use my faith and talents to help those who are poor in spirit, in need of love, and spiritually challenged. God gives us amazing people in our life for a reason, but we must realize the true love in each person. We must find God in all people.

"Watch out for anger that can lead to vengeance; for laziness that leads to existential euthanasia; for pointing the finger at others, which leads to pride; and for complaining continually, which leads to desperation." Anger, laziness, pride, and desperation are common feelings when I'm in hard situations. This quote reminds me of the consequences of acting in these ways. You challenge me to avoid these feelings with forgiveness, faith, humility, and acceptance. I must forgive others for their wrongdoings, have strong faith to live the life I am called to live, show humility for my strengths and others' weaknesses, and accept the hardships in life. I find it hard to forgive when I've been badly hurt and easy to procrastinate when there is work that needs to be done, but you teach me that I must live an optimistic and faithful life devoted to God. When I lose my path, and sin, God always directs me back to Him either through the people I meet, or in my own thoughts. You encourage me to have a more positive outlook on life. God never gives me a task I can't handle. I might not always notice it, but there are greater positives in life than the hardships I face.

Pope Francis, your encouraging words teach me how to strengthen my relationship with God and challenge me to become a better Catholic. You've made me realize how many amazing things I can do as a Catholic, and I am deeply thankful for that. You are such a wonderful role model for all Catholics and I aspire to become an amazing person like you. Thank you for taking the time to read my letter. God Bless.

Sincerely,
Alessandra Santiago

WITH US AFTER ALL MASSES THIS WEEKEND!

Third World Gifts & Handarts will be having a sale of fair trade products, including those of Homeboy Industries/Homegirl Catering, following our Vigil Mass on Saturday, April 25 and all masses on Sunday, April 26. This assistance directly supports the survival of thousands of artisans and food producers, as well as their families. They operate a gift shop in Orange and can be reached at 714/464-0556.

During their visit, you may bring these donations for their ongoing collection drive for Catholic missions serving the poor in Mexico, and low-income Native Americans in northern Arizona: clothing, blankets and linens (freshly laundered, please); school supplies; new backpacks; hygiene products, baby items; housewares and nutritious foods. Thank you!
