VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of

St. Juliana Falconieri

Catholic Community

is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation
and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel,
celebrating the Sacraments,
educating, serving,
and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A MESSAGE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M.

Holy Trinity Sunday, I find preaching difficult on this Sunday. For all my years as a priest and homilist I wished that the pastor would give the "Sermon on the Amount" – you know the money talk on this Sunday. Now, I am a pastor! And the deacons aren't preaching this Sunday! Yikes! What to do? Regarding the Holy Trinity in "priesT school" (pronounce that "T" clearly) wisely we were taught: "Make fewer than three heresies and keep people awake, you'll be great!" Three Persons, One God, rather complicated. In "priesT school" I once wrote a riveting, dynamic, insightful, as yet unpublished paper on this theological matter by its name and term: "The Hypostatic Union". I won't recite it here. Perhaps it's best to be speechless.

Our God often leaves us speechless. He is after all, ineffable! That excuse won't work either. It's best to claim our God as full of "wonder and awe" - not a mystery in the sense of the tax code or a new computer, but an inspiration to live our lives more fully with greater meaning than without God.

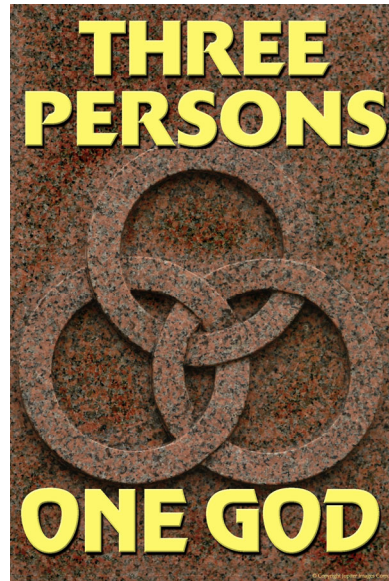

Once walking along the sea shore Saint Augustine once came upon a little girl, who did not recognize him to be a future saint. The story is told this way: the little girl dug a hole in the sand along the shore. When Augustine encountered her, she was pouring water, one bucket after another, into the hole. He asked: "What are you doing?" "I intend to pour the entire ocean into this hole, she responded. "You can never do that!" he said. "Neither can you explain the Trinity," replied the girl.

Guess that won't get me off the hook. As a freshman at Servite High School, a certain friar was our freshman theology teacher. He explained: "Today's topic, gentlemen, is the Most Blessed Trinity. It's like this - one source of power with three distinct functions. Here is the metaphor: you have one electrical outlet. Into the one outlet you put a three-way-plug. Into that plug you connect a fan to cool the body, a light so you can read the book, and a toaster so you can heat the bread. That's the Trinity, one source of energy, three separate functions!"

The most important words of the lesson: "it is LIKE this" – "metaphor." Images of what the Trinity is like are the best insights we have. However, all analogies and metaphors limp. Choose one that limps the least!

Let us all pray that we will come to know and respond to God's love for us as He the Father Creator, the Son Redeemer and the Holy Spirit Indwelling sustainer of all life.

Beyond that we can't say much. God is after all ineffable.

This collection is for the purpose of assisting parishes in the Diocese of Orange that exhibit ongoing needs that cannot be paid for by their ordinary income and have urgent needs (such as repairs and maintenance.)

All money donated to this collection is put into a restricted fund that will be administered by a group consisting of laity and clergy of the diocese. Parishes with needs as stated above will apply for grants from this fund to be used for their specific needs. SOLEMNITY OF THE HOLY TRINITY

The Trinity is the central mystery of the faith—but it’s no ordinary mystery that Agatha Christie or anyone else can solve! The Trinity is one of the ‘mysteries that are hidden in God, which can never be known unless they are revealed by God’ (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 237). So how is it possible to access this mystery? In addition to learning more through the Catechism and scripture, you can draw closer through prayer. Next time you pray the Sign of the cross, allow yourself to enter into this mystery in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
