THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A MESSAGE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M.

It's that "they're going back to school" time of year. And I am happy! The campus is b-o-r-i-n-g when the school is closed for vacation. Administrators, faculty, staff, volunteers, parents, and students you all give the place life, hope, and purpose. I am very grateful to each person who is part of Catholic Faith Formation at St. Juliana Falconieri Parish. Without seeing you, I don't see the long and sure future of the Catholic community. With you, I know, with a guarantee, that the next generation will be formed and those who are formed will continue their conversion. When Catholic education is in session – Roman Catholic grammar school and Roman Catholic School of Religious Education programs – I know the Catholic community has potential, promise, a future. To deprive the community of its learning and learners is to rob its future.

I am very proud of our Catholic educators! You form not only the mind but the soul. You instruct how we are to understand anything and how we are to know God. You teach as Jesus did: how to love ourselves, each other, and care for the planet itself. You teach not only good citizenship but also good moral behavior. The goal of good religious moral decisions is not to escape getting caught when doing something wrong; it's to gain heaven and see God. Make all your moral choices with the Beatific Vision as your guide. The obligation of religious education is the opening of the mind and soul to know God and His wonderful intention for each one of us, the crown of creation.

As the school year progresses, I want to see you all in Mass, week day class Mass and Sunday with your parents and family. During the school year I want to hear: "GO FALCONS" as our teams compete and win athletic contests and titles. This school year sing, dance, and smile. As classroom students, prepare your mind and soul for the future ahead of you. Administrators, faculty, staff, volunteers, parents, students, God bless you! Welcome back! Welcome home! GO FALCONS!

As the school year commences we have a lot of activities at St. Juliana Parish. St. Philip bread and water is blessed and distributed this weekend after the morning Masses. St. Philip Benizi, the name of the parish of west Fullerton under the care of the USA Servite Province of brothers and priests – Philip was a Prior General of the Servite Order. Let us pray for Fr. Don Siple, OSM pastor, Fr. David Gallegos, OSM and Brother Arnaldo Sanchez, OSM who minister there and Fr. Jerry Horan, OSM who lives in the community and ministers in the Diocese of Orange as Vicar of Faith Formation.

The Pennies From Heaven collection continues, we thank you for your generosity to the protection of life from conception to natural death.

The Fall Festival is revving up and gaining momentum. How might you be involved in the year's Fall Festival? The Festival is September 25, 26, and 27. We want you to celebrate with us on those days.

RCIA is beginning. Do you know of an adult or family who should be part of the Catholic community who isn't? Let's talk with those folks soon. Catechists are needed for the Faith Formation Classes at St. Juliana. Are you available to be a catechist? Registration for Confirmation is continuing. Youth Ministry formation classes are starting soon. Consider what you can do as a family to know and live your faith in the community of St. Juliana Falconieri, Fullerton. For more information regarding Faith Formation, please contact Mr. Mike McHenry.

DIACONATE INFORMATION

Did you know, in addition to our permanent deacons, Deacon Gerhard Stadel and Deacon Chuck Doidge, parishioner Pete Lauder has been in the Diaconate formation for the past five years and will be officially ordained a permanent deacon on October 17th?! Please keep Pete, his wife Jan and the Lauder family in your prayers as they complete the last phase of the diaconate formation.

Pete & Jan Lauder

The ministry of permanent deacons has become an essential part of our parish life today, yet for centuries until 1967, this deeply traditional ministry had virtually disappeared. Every priest had first to be ordained a deacon, but the notion that one could actually embrace a permanent vocation to the diaconate was lost.

The primary ministry of the deacon is to the welfare of the community, especially its poor, and his role in sacraments and preaching flows from that. His principal role is to animate and promote the ministry of all the faithful. Ninety percent of permanent deacons are married, although the discipline of celibacy for clerics means that if a deacon is widowed, normally he cannot remarry, nor can an unmarried deacon marry once ordained. The deacon does not preside at Mass nor may he absolve sins. Nor, since anointing of the sick is linked theologically to penance, may he anoint.

Sometimes we are slow to engage with a tradition: Trent approved permanent deacons in the 1560s, but nothing was done until the 1960s. The vitality of the long delayed restoration has greatly enriched the Church, particularly in the United States, where the majority of the deacons in the world serve.

PRAYER REQUESTS

PLEASE PRAY FOR ALL WHO ARE ILL AND IN NEED OF OUR LOVING SUPPORT IN THIS COMMUNITY: especially Judy Watson, Carl Martorana, Teresa Martorana ... and all the names listed in our Book of Healing.

PLEASE PRAY FOR ALL THOSE WHO HAVE DIED, especially ...and all those listed in our Book of Remembrance ... May their souls rest in peace. Amen

CATECHISTS NEEDED

Elementary AND High School Teachers needed

Our Faith Formation Program is need of Catechists, for our Elementary and Confirmation Programs, to shepherd the children and teens of the parish into a deeper relationship with Jesus and the church.

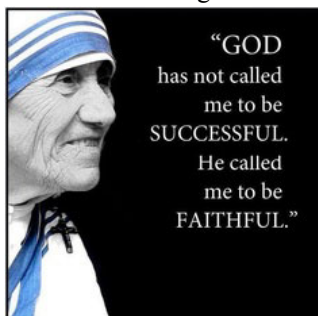

WHAT DOES A CATECHIST DO?

A catechist...

"...responds to a call, is a witness to the gospel, is committed to the Church, fosters community, are servants of the community, and have knowledge and abilities to carry out their ministry."

Training will be given here at the parish and you will have the opportunity to receive certification through the Diocese of Orange. This is a volunteer position.

We also have a great need for assistant shepherds to aid the main teacher in guiding the children through their sessions.

If this interests you in the very least please attend our orientation session on Sunday, August 23rd at 12:45pm (just after the 11am Mass) in the Seven Holy Founders room, upstairs in the Parish Center. Plan on attending the 11am Mass and the rest is easy!
