THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."*

(1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A review of the Sacraments

For the past several weeks, we have weathered a short course on the seven sacraments of the Roman Catholic Church. Let's review and finish! The "old" definition still works: "A sacrament is an outward sign instituted by Christ to give grace." The sacraments point to something greater than what is happening before our eyes. The acts and items and prayers of the sacraments reveal our salvation. The oil, water and prayers of Baptism, bread, wine, and words of consecration of Holy Eucharist, the chrism and prayers of Confirmation, the confession of sin, act of contrition, words of absolution of Penance, the healing oil and prayers of the Sacrament of the Sick, the chrism, prayers, and laying on of hands of Holy Orders all point to the grace of God which we receive through the "merits of Jesus Christ."

Through the sacraments we Catholics are led to conversion and from conversion, to salvation. They are the chief ways that we "find God." God reveals himself in our gestures and through the "ordinary things" of water, oil, bread, and wine. Yet these very ordinary things, as signs, point away from themselves to some One much greater. And that much greater is God. The grace of the sacraments make us holy. Therefore, the one baptized becomes a "new creation."

We use language and the ordinary to reach God. What other means do we have? Be attentive to the presence of the sacred in each sacrament. It is God who is speaking to us; God is acting, God is our direction. Put another way, the sacraments point the way to God to the Beatific Vision, the end of our life's journey.

This language and direction might be new! It can be a challenge. Don't Christians simply seek Jesus Christ? Well, yes and no. In "the Last Discourse" John 14-17, Jesus makes it clear that to see him is to see his Father. It is precisely in the conversation with Philip that Jesus says: "Have I been with you so long, and yet you do not know me, Philip? He who has seen me has seen the Father..." God is revealed in Jesus. If you forget all the rest, please remember this: "The greatest gift God has given to us is that in Jesus, God has let us in on the secret of who He (God) is and what He is all about." Our journey is toward God, it is the face of God that we seek. Listen to who we address in the prayers of the Mass: "We give you praise, FATHER (capitals are mine) most holy for you are great..." "You are indeed Holy and to be glorified, O God..." "Therefore, holy Father as we celebrate the memorial of Christ your Son..." The problem, if problem, is the right word, is this: we are made Christians, we are asked to believe in Jesus Christ before we become Theists, believers in God. Too often, we confess "absolute" belief in Jesus but remain unable to express understanding or belief in God.

We belong to the Christian Church, specifically the Roman Catholic Christian Church. Many people today claim a certain spirituality, a belief in God. At the same time, many people do not belong to any religious community, any community which is a confession of faith and a cult of worship. In our community we believe in God and as a community we celebrate the many ways that God continues to reveal Himself so that we are in a relationship with Him. Some of those ways are called sacraments. Let us celebrate our conversion – with knowledge, emotional response, and moral acts because through a prayerful reception of each sacrament we encounter and deepen our relationship with God and Jesus, His Son. As we celebrate the sacraments, let us "put on the personality of Jesus." We are changed and for the better. If not, why would we do it?

INSPIRATIONAL THOUGHT

GRATITUDE

Surely we can all recall at least a few days in our lives when things were going so well that nothing could put us in a bad mood. Maybe it was the day a very special person asked us to the senior prom, or perhaps it was our wedding day. Maybe it was the day we learned that we were expecting a long-awaited child, or the day we got an overdue promotion. There was elation in our hearts and lightness in our step, an extraordinary vitality throughout the day. We probably got on the phone right away to tell at least a few key people about our good fortune.

This is surely how Naaman and the leper must have felt when they were rid of their terrible diseases. They were hard-pressed to contain their gratitude, and although they were both unfamiliar with the customs of a foreign land, they had the good manners to thank the people responsible for their cures.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

This month, parishes around the country will conduct the “October count,” a measure of attendance at Sunday Mass. The measure has been taken for many centuries, and in some European dioceses it is possible to measure the level of engagement in worship by the population over the course of many centuries. Long ago, it was also the custom to track “Easter duty” by a statistical report. Penitents would receive a kind of chit at confession, which they would then turn in at their parish church when they received Holy Communion during Easter time.

Long ago, of course, Communion was fairly rare in the life of a Catholic Christian, perhaps only once a year. The chits would be tallied by parish priests and reported to the chancery, which in turn would hold on to the records and include the statistics in a report to the Vatican every five years. Nowadays, the October count has proved especially critical in the life of our Church as bishops use the figures to measure the vitality of church life, to sketch parish boundaries, and even to decide when to close, merge, or form new parishes.

JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY

October 9, 2016

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jubilee of Marian Devotion

This weekend, the Jubilee honors Mary under the title Pope Francis suggests, “Mother of Mercy.” Recall the Good Samaritan Gospel. Priest and Levite saw suffering but showed no mercy. Recall the rich man, who never saw Lazarus right before his eyes, and showed no mercy. Today, Jesus sees ten lepers from afar and shows extraordinary mercy. Mary’s entire life, declares Francis, was modeled on Jesus, “Mercy-Made-Flesh.” Indeed, standing at the cross, Mary saw Jesus’ mercy take flesh when Jesus showed mercy to the executioners. So Pope Francis recommends we frequently pray the Salve Regina, Hail, Holy Queen, asking her to ever look upon us with mercy, so that we might be worthy to gaze upon the face of her merciful Son Jesus. May we do so not only in eternity, but here and now, opening our eyes to see Jesus in others, and our hearts to serve Jesus in others by loving deeds of unconditional mercy. —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Salve Regina

Hail Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our life our sweetness and our hope.

To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve; To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears.

Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us and after this our exile show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary!

V- Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God

R- That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Shortly before they graduate, St. Juliana's 8th graders travel to Washington D.C. These student travelers work throughout the school year raising funds to help cover the cost of their trip.

A “Parents’ Night Out” (PNO) event is one of the new ways 8th grade students fundraise.

During a “Parents’ Night Out” children can be dropped off in the Parish Center beginning at 6:00pm and picked up any time before or by 10:00pm.

Children are played with and supervised by 8th grade babysitters and on-duty parents.

"WOMEN IN GOD'S SPIRIT"

WINGS (Women IN God's Spirit) meets on Wednesdays in St Martin de Porres Parish Hall. Free childcare and light refreshments are provided beginning at 8:40 and the program begins promptly at 9am.

On October 12th, our very own Fr. Sy will answer your questions about why we do what we do as Catholics; he will cover a variety of topics our members ask about. This was a very popular session last year and Fr. Sy always has more in store for us.

A ministry of faith and fellowship that began at St. Martin 28 years ago, WINGS now includes women from many Orange County Parishes, in all ages and stages of life.

You can register when you come or find our forms in the Church vestibule or office. Membership in WINGS is $50 per year (you can visit to check us out for a week). Contact WINGS moderator Becky Curry at wings@smdpyl.org (714) 961-1687 for further information.
