THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."*

(1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Since Pope St. John Paul II has died, many people of our age have suggested that he be titled “The Great.” There were three “great” popes – St. Leo I, St. Gregory I, and St. Nicholas I. Let me introduce you to two.

Pope St. Leo the Great, born in the early years of the 400’s was pope from 440-461. He carried on the Church’s mission with theological clarity. The growth of our Church required the deep theology (understanding of God, Jesus, and Holy Spirit) that St. Augustine provided. So, what made Leo great was his theological presentations against various heresies. In those early days of our faith, the explanation of Jesus’ union of human and divine natures was quite unclear. The fancy name for this is the “hypostatic union.” I wrote a riveting paper in “Priest School” about this; unless you aren’t sleeping well, don’t ask me to share it. Pope St. Leo gathered the Council of Chalcedon in 451 to clarify the mystery of the Incarnation explaining that Jesus is one person: true God perfect in that nature and true Man, complete and perfect in that nature. Jesus must be acknowledged as having two natures “without confusion or change, without division or separation.” You can’t picture Jesus as a small man with an extra big halo, or a big man with a small halo. Jesus is one hundred percent equal in both natures.

In his leadership Leo the Great famously met Attila the Hun at the gate (remember the rhyme) of Rome preventing the sack of Rome in 452. Rome was later sacked by Genseric, a vandal. The city, although occupied, was not burned.

Leo the Great was the first pope to be called “pontifex maximus”. He argued the primacy of Peter over all the other apostles as is found in the Gospels and New Testament. Thus the pope became the primary ruler of the whole Church. All ministry is passed down from the pope in Rome, the bishop of Rome.

Lastly, Pope St. Leo the great was the first bishop of Rome to be buried in St. Peter’s.

Pope St. Gregory the Great is known as the first medieval pope. His reign was from 590-604. St. He was born into a wealthy Roman family where he was raised. He was part of the highest order of politics in the city. Gregory left his wealth to monasteries. He even converted his own palace into a monastery where he lived a life of asceticism and study. During his papacy he established the importance of Rome in the Western World and Christianity. He became the ruler of central Italy and prepared the way for control of the future papal states.

During his time veneration of saints and relics became popular. He was impressed with the liturgy of the Benedictine monks and their way of life and preserving the faith with a variety of traditions. Although it is clear that he encouraged good liturgy and liturgical music, several church historians conclude: “The notion that he invented Gregorian chant is a legend.”

I learned his motto: “Servus servorum Dei” (Servant of the Servant of God) as a school boy at St. Catherine’s Academy. Gregory the Great is one of the saints in the chapel’s long mural “Assent of Truth.” Gregory was concerned with the spiritual goods of the Church and strengthened papal primacy over the churches of the West. His model of leadership was collegial, which was different from the hierarchical rule of Leo before him. Consider the difference of a round table discussion against a pyramid of descending power. The hierarchical model would again take shape during the Middle Ages. Under Gregory’s reign the Roman Church spread throughout Europe, especially to the Anglo-Saxons. It is said of Gregory that it took Caesar six legions to conquer Britain; Gregory used only about forty monks. Lastly, he left a huge collection of theological and spiritual writings that would influence medieval thought.

In short, he was great because through his leadership the Church became the predominate force in shaping a new civilization; a political and cultural and social unity. Europe would become distinctively Christian by the religiously spiritual, political, and social order established by the direction of Pope St. Gregory the Great.

November is such a fantastic month! Remember the saints. Remember the souls. Remember how your Catholic faith is shaped by so many people who are “justified in the hands of God.” Give thanks to God for all He has done and continues to do for each of us. Celebrate the Veterans of our Nation and Church. Remember, Give Thanks, Celebrate the presence of God among us.

SECOND COLLECTION

Nov. 19 / 20

Diocesan National Needs Collection

"Reach out and share that those we reach may share."

This collection combines the Catholic Campaign for Human Development, the Catholic Communications Campaign and the Catholic University of America.

Each parish is part of the Church Universal; it is the Catholic Church in a particular place. The bishops of the United States created the National Needs Collection so that, by combining resources, we can more effectively carry out our mission as Catholics. Each collection is worthy of your support. Each collection represents our community of faith at work in the world, saving souls and improving lives.

The bishops encourage us to view the National Needs Collection in the light of stewardship and of sharing. God has given us our light and our prosperity, all we need and more. It is right and just that we give something back through these collections, helping people in our own country and around the world to live better and to grow in the love of Jesus.

Thanksgiving Help

God, when I have food, help me to remember the hungry;
When I have work, help me to remember the jobless;
When I have a home, help me to remember those who have no home at all;
When I am without pain, help me to remember those who suffer.
And remembering, help me to destroy my complacency; bestir my compassion, and be concerned enough to help;
By word and deed, those who cry out for what we take for granted. Amen.

GRATITUDE

Let us remember that, as much has been given us, much will be expected from us, and that true homage comes from the heart as well as from the lips, and shows itself in deeds.

POPE FRANCIS’ JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY - OFFICIALLY CONCLUDES THIS WEEKEND

November 20, 2016

Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Today Luke, evangelist and by tradition artist, sends us forth from this Jubilee Year of Mercy with an unforgettable portrait of Christ the King. The setting for Jesus’ “royal portrait” is the cross. From this “throne,” the crucified “crown prince” welcomes by “executive pardon” the kingdom of mercy’s first citizen, a fellow criminal. The “Good Thief” requests neither deliverance nor salvation, or even forgiveness: “Remember me when . . .” (Luke 23:42). “Today you will be with me,” King Jesus promises, “in paradise.” (23:43). Paradise, even for non-believers, is an image of creation contentedly in harmony with self, fellow creatures, and Creator. Today, we “good thieves” beg Jesus to remember us. We promise to remember that, although Jesus’ kingdom will be fulfilled only when Jesus’ returns, that kingdom begins today in the paradise that will flower from this Jubilee Year of Mercy. We disciples, having been embraced unconditionally and undeservedly by Jesus’ mercy, must now go forth to embrace all others, unconditionally, with that same unflinching mercy. —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

MERCIFUL LIKE THE FATHER

Dear Brothers in the Lord,

On December 3, 2016 the "Dynamic Catholic Institute" will be holding a very important event entitled "Living Every Day with Passion and Purpose" at the UCI Bren Center.

As Matthew Kelly mentions "Our mission at Dynamic Catholic is to re-energize the Catholic Church in America. We are doing it a community at a time. This event will attract people from across the Diocese and beyond."

I have met Matthew Kelly a number of times over the years and he maintains an office in the Tower of Hope on the Christ Cathedral Campus. He has been a speaker in a number of our parishes here in the Diocese. His zeal, sense of mission and love for our Faith can be a great opportunity for us as we seek now to reenergize our evangelization efforts across the Diocese later this year.

I plan to attend this event myself and certainly would encourage our parish priests, leaders and religious to take advantage of this event as the season of Advent begins.

Gratefully yours in the Lord,

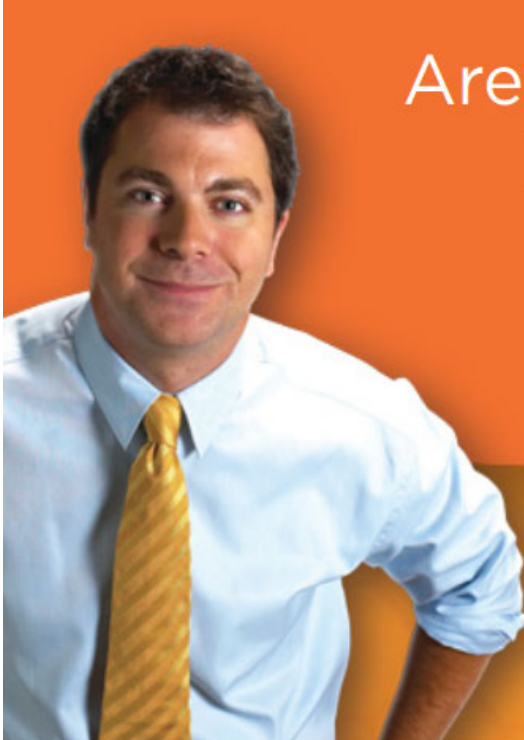

Most Reverend Kevin W. Vann, J.C.D., D.D.

TRUE STEWARDSHIP

The gospel message proclaimed throughout the New Testament invites us to live in harmony with the world. This is a challenge to care for the world and be stewards of all that God has given us. Like generations before us, we are entrusted with the care of the earth so that generations to follow may enjoy the same gifts. Sometimes, however, we are absorbed into the ways of the world. When we are of the world, we rely heavily on the power of wealth, beauty, fame, and accumulation of material possessions. We want earthly possessions and carelessly turn our hearts from the responsibilities of stewardship and conservation.

The gospels challenge us to walk away from the world so that we might inherit our share of God's kingdom. How we live our lives directly reflects our love for God.

WINGS

"WOMEN IN GOD'S SPIRIT"

WINGS has planned a Special Morning - don't miss it!

WINGS invites you to join us for Thanksgiving Tea on November 23rd when we will have an expanded refreshment table and a time of fellowship and music in a program led by our own Terrie Backes, Music Director. This day before Thanksgiving tea has become an anticipated tradition and this year will provide a focus on our blessings to prepare our hearts before the busy-ness of the holiday. What a great way to begin the Advent Season!

WINGS (Women IN God's Spirit) meets on Wednesdays in St Martin de Porres Parish Hall. Free childcare and light refreshments are provided beginning at 8:40 and the program begins promptly at 9am.

A ministry of faith and fellowship that began at St. Martin 28 years ago, WINGS now includes women from many Orange County Parishes, in all ages and stages of life.

You can register when you come or find our forms in the church vestibule or office. Membership in WINGS is $50 per year (feel free to come as a visitor for a week). Our full schedule of fall speakers can be found in the church vestibule. If you must miss coming to WINGS, our speakers are usually recorded and can be found on the church website: www.smdpyl.org

Contact WINGS moderator Becky Curry at wings@smdpyl.org (714) 961-1687 for further information.
