THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
 If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
 But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
 The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
 Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
 Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MICHAEL PONTARELLI, O.S.M.

“Remember, Lord, your Church, spread throughout the world, and bring her to the fullness of charity, together with Francis our Pope and Kevin our Bishop and his brother bishops and all the clergy.”

We pray those words of petition, in the Third Eucharist Prayer and similar words in the other nine Eucharistic prayers. It’s part of the great “Apostolic Succession” of our Church. It reminds us of those who, in the prayerful intention of The Roman Canon, Eucharistic Prayer I, “guard, unite, and govern (the Church) throughout the whole world.” Priests celebrate the Eucharist because the office of Christ who is at once Priest (Sanctifier), Prophet (Teacher), and King (Ruler) is passed from the pope to the bishop to the priest.

The Pope appoints bishops; the Ordinary Diocesan Bishop and any auxiliary (helper) bishops. This is completed within a process that begins with the local diocese, then the national conference of bishops and finally to Rome. The Diocese of Orange is large; an ethnically diverse congregation of 1.3 million Catholics we are the 10th largest diocese in the USA. Currently we are led by Bishop Kevin Vann who is our Ordinary bishop, and two retired bishops, Tod David Brown and Dominic Luong. Ordinary is not a derogatory term, it means he is THE bishop all others are bishops under his direction.

On November 23, 2016 in a communication from Rome, Fr. Tim Freyer a priest of the Diocese of Orange was named as an auxiliary bishop to Bishop Kevin Vann. Bishop-elect Freyer grew up in Huntington Beach and has been a priest in the county’s diocese since 1989. He will be ordained as a bishop Jan. 17 at St. Columban Catholic Church in Garden Grove. He will then no longer be bishop-elect but Bishop Tim. He is fluent in Spanish, has been a priest at several parishes throughout the county, including St. Hedwig Parish in Los Alamitos, Our Lady of Fatima in San Clemente, St. Catherine of Siena Parish in Laguna Beach and St. Mary’s in Fullerton. He was an accomplished pastor and good shepherd at St. Boniface in Anaheim. His current assignment is Episcopal Vicar for Priests. In this ministry he cares for priests as a “priest’s priest” - he sees to the general welfare of priests, that they are getting care in their retirement and being saved from “burn out” in their assignments. He mentors newly ordained and young pastors (the older ones are another story). He prepares the annual diocesan priest retreat and community days of priest renewal. It’s a real ministry, a huge help to all of us priests! He serves as a chaplain to the Anaheim Police Department. While at St. Boniface, he founded a center to care for the needy in central Anaheim.

Holy See appoints
Auxiliary Bishop for the Diocese of Orange,
Rev. Timothy Freyer.

Auxiliary Bishop Tim will be helpful to Bishop Kevin Vann as together they lead us to God.

The Roman Church is always full of rumor and intrigue; expect another auxiliary bishop for service in the Diocese of Orange!

“I’ll be Home for Christmas” is a favorite Christmas song. Do you know someone who is waiting for a compassionate invitation to come to our parish home for Christmas? Following the re-decorating of our church building, it’s a good ministry that fills its pews with people on a journey to God. Come home for Christmas.

(EVERYONE IS WELCOME TO ATTEND ANY SERVICE)

The following Penance Services are all at 7pm:

December 13 - at St. Boniface Church

December 14 - at Our Lady of Guadalupe, La Habra

December 15 - at St. Mary's Church

December 16 - at St. Philip's Church

December 19 - at St. Pius V Church

December 20 - at St. Justin Martyr Church

December 21 - at St. Anthony Claret Church

The Sacrament of Penance offers a new possibility to convert oneself to the Gospel and recover grace that was lost by sin.

Who must go to confession? Each of the faithful is bound by an obligation to confess mortal, serious sins, at least once a year. Confession of everyday faults (venial sins) is strongly recommended by the Church.

Mortal sin: a sin whose object is grave matter and is committed with full knowledge and deliberate consent.

Venial sin: a less serious wrong doing, disobeys the moral law.

Begin with an examination of your conscience. Before you enter the confessional, prayerfully reflect on your words and deeds since the last time you received the sacrament. Knowing the Ten Commandments and the Gospel of Jesus, when have you "missed the mark?" When have you done a do not do – or when you could have practiced a virtue or performed an act of mercy but did not? When did you misuse God's creation? What have you done that gives you guilt?

Tell these faults to the priest. Listen to any advice, counsel, or guidance that the priest might give you.

Receive your penance, the act that you must do to repair any harm your sin has caused and to re-establish yourself as a disciple of Christ.

Receive the absolution of your sins, be reconciled with God, the Father of mercies, and the Church as the priest prays the prayer of absolution for you.

Be prepared to pray an Act of Contrition: these or similar words: My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy. Amen.

As you receive the grace of absolution and pray to "avoid whatever leads to sin" recover a new relationship with the Lord and reform your life.

Children are played with and supervised by 8th grade babysitters and on-duty parents.

They will be served a hot dog lunch and snacks.
