THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

~ A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M. ~

I've got Good News for you. Not every day of the week good news!

No day, not one day of our faith, is more important than Easter Sunday. No event in all of history is more important than Easter, not a single one.

The Resurrection of Jesus is our faith! Christmas says: "It's the most wonderful time of the year!" Easter says: "WOW! ALLELUIA!" Christmas says: "He is born, let's celebrate! Away in a manger, let's go and adore him." Easter says: "He is risen from the dead. Death has no power. When death comes, life is changed, not ended. Let's sing a new song. Let's sing ALLELUIA!" Our sins are forgiven, we are immortal!

And nobody saw the resurrection. There is no eye-witness to the most amazing event ever! It is known by its effects.

Where is Jesus? He is not dead in the tomb, the most likely place for the crucified Jesus to be. No, he is alive - as the Word of our community, as the hope of our community, in the action of our community, Jesus is alive as the joy of our community today. Jesus is who gathers us together today.

Today, this Easter morning you made a decision and you acted on it. You made the decision nothing is more important to you than the Resurrection. You made a decision to imitate the first disciples and hurry from your beds to that place where you hope to find the Lord. You came to this Church community looking for Jesus so that you might love the Lord more deeply and as a disciple follow him more clearly.

YOU ARE ALIVE!

You have joined with other disciples because you want to hear good news, you want to be free from the worry that life ends with death. You want to sing the "ALLELUIA" song. You want to be guided by the Word and nourished at the Table of the Lord. This is important to you - or else you would not have done it. You love the Lord!

Today, this Easter morning, in faith and belief, you hear and sing aloud what is most joyful to you, that oldest and most important hymn of all of Christianity - ALLELUIA! HE IS RISEN!

May the Good News of Easter bring you to worship today and for the rest of your life.

Together with Fr. Luke and the deacons, with the community of ministers and miniseries here at St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community, I greet and welcome you this Easter Sunday and every day. May you find and follow the Risen Lord in this faith community.

God bless you!

ALLELUIA!
HE IS RISEN!

WE WELCOME THOSE BAPTIZED AT THE EASTER VIGIL! — HERE ARE SOME OF THEIR THOUGHTS, AND WHAT DREW THEM TO OUR FAITH.

Graham Wilson

This path to Catholicism has brought an anchor to my spiritual path that has been needed in my life for a long time. It has brought more awareness of others and a light to a healthier state of mind and being.

Jake Woodruff

"I wish to join the Catholic Church to pursue our God, and learn more of his ways. ...To find what's hidden within our Bible, to understand more than before."

Mirae Woodruff

I wish to join the Catholic Church in order to seek God, in the hope that I might feel my way toward him and find him. Yet he is actually not far from each one of us. Acts 17:27. This best reflects my journey as I now become a member of the Catholic Church.

Suboohi Wadalawala

I first attended mass at St. Juliana's last year in June. I loved it. The very next week I enrolled myself in the upcoming RCIA program. Since then, I have been blessed to participate in a variety of ministries, prayer groups and services; and have learned much about the Catholic Church and my own faith. I continue to relish this journey - with immense gratitude to this community, and to God, for placing me here.

Julie Bagdonas

Going through the RCIA Program here at St. Juliana has been a journey that has given my faith reason and structure through the teachings of the church's traditions and sacraments. I feel so connected to the body Christ here at St. Juliana's and felt God's love in all the people who have volunteered to teach us each week. Such wonderful role models. I look forward to following in your footsteps. Faith in action. God bless you all!

Christina Cline-Chavez

I began feeling the need to live a more Christ-centered life, and the Catholic Church has been an indescribable source of strength and inspiration. There is so much to learn about the Catholic faith... The RCIA program is the "tip of the iceberg," and I'm excited to learn more about our fascinating faith as my journey in Christ continues.

HELP! HELP! HELP!

One of the most popular raffle items (after the money prizes) at the Fall Festival is the Respect Life Doll House. EASTER TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

Fifty years or so ago, it was popular to teach that every Sunday is a "Little Easter." Today, after several decades of intense liturgical reform, it is more proper to think of today as a "Big Sunday." On every Sunday of the year, the Church is obliged to assemble, keeping the day holy. In most places, we hardly attain the goal of gathering all who are in Christ by baptism. Look around today and see what a Big Sunday looks like!

Our tradition speaks of remembering, anamnesis, as the antidote to "amnesia," the tragic forgetting of who God is and who we are as God's most beloved creation. On this Easter day, we are at our very best. We remember who God is, and we remember who we are in God's eyes: beloved sons and daughters, reborn to eternal life in baptismal waters. We rekindle our candles and reclaim our baptismal promises. As a "Big Sunday," today also reflects the character of festivity and leisure that should mark every Lord's Day. We wear "Sunday best" today, and we may take some time, especially in the northern states, to stroll through a budding garden. It is truly a "Big Sunday," and how different our lives would be if we took its values and traditions forward into all the Sundays of our lives. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

CATHOLICS COME HOME MINISTRY

HAVE YOU BEEN AWAY FROM THE CATHOLIC CHURCH?

Has it been awhile since you've joined us for Mass or any other parish activities? Is your own spirituality enough, or do you need something more? Do you have lots of questions about faith and church? You may be hearing God's loving call to return to the active practice of your Catholic faith. We can help you. This ministry reaches out to inactive Catholics who wish to consider returning to the Church and to the sacraments. We offer support and guidance through a series of non-judgmental growth sessions.

For more information please contact a priest or deacon through the Parish Office at 714-879-1965.
