VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

ST. JULIANA FALCONIERI CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

Sixth Sunday of Easter

*Whoever loves me
will keep my word,
and my Father
will love them,
and we will come to them and make our dwelling with them.*

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

~ A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M. ~

Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist are the three Sacraments of Initiation into the Roman Catholic Church. The “Good work of God” that is begun in Baptism is completed with Confirmation and Holy Communion. Once initiation is complete the Christian is, as St. Augustine put it, “another Christ.” The fully initiated Christian is described as “A chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a purchased people to proclaim the praises of him who has called you out of darkness into his wonderful light, you who were not a people are now the People of God.” (I Peter 2.9-10).

Baptism is the cause of Confirmation. The Sacrament of Confirmation “perfects” Baptism in as much as it completes baptism. In the prayers of the celebration, the bishop instructs the candidates that they are called to be “witnesses to Christ and more perfect members of the church.” Baptism is the cause of Confirmation.

Historically, Baptism and Confirmation were linked together as one ceremony. The ceremony included the prayer over the one to be initiated (laying on of hands), the anointing with oil and the seal of the Holy Spirit. This was all celebrated by the local priest. Confirmation became a separate ritual in the mid- 400s, when it was celebrated by the bishop who made his rounds to all the churches in his region to visit and pray with the faithful and collect donations (read taxes!). Various reflections, theologies, of the sacrament have influenced its meaning today. Our understanding and celebration of the Sacrament is primarily a result of the Council of Trent in 1547 and its Catechism in 1566.

Confirmation is the celebration of Christian maturity. In it one accepts the faith and the responsibility that comes with being an adult disciple of Christ and a member of his Church. The Sacrament of Confirmation enables the faithful one receiving it, who was most likely baptized as an infant, the opportunity to make a public witness of his or her intentional conversion and growth in a religious journey toward Jesus. While the infant was baptized passively, he/she is rather active in Confirmation.

Let us pray that our newly Confirmed will be “sealed with the Gifts of the Holy Spirit” especially with courage to continue to grow in the faith resisting temptations to do otherwise. Often we joke to those who receive First Holy Communion, they are not receiving their “last communion” – for those who are confirmed may your Confirmation not be a graduation ceremony where the confirmed have completed the course requirements and leave, commencing life outside of the Church and the Holy Spirit.

In the Sacrament of Holy Eucharist we remember what has been passed onto us: “That Jesus took bread and wine...That he blessed bread and wine...that he shared the bread and the wine...and asked that these actions be continued in his memory” (I Cor. 11: 23-26). Eucharist refers to the entire gesture of giving thanks, for that is what the word means. The Eucharist is THE MEAL of THANKSGIVING. As Confirmation consigns Baptism, in the Eucharist we give thanks to God for all that He has done in the past, does in the present, and will do in the future.

Holy Communion allows members of the Church to be in full communion with the Church. First Communion is a beginning of a continuing communion, not an end in itself.

The easy definition and description of Holy Eucharist is that it represents the Last Supper of the Lord. As Baptism is celebrated at the command of Jesus: “Go and make disciples” (Matt. 28:19-20), Eucharist follows Jesus’ command “whenever you do this, remember me.” It is the word of Jesus that produces this sacrament. Because of this, the Eucharist is the Real Presence of Jesus as bread broken and wine shared. When we associate our understanding of the Eucharist with the Last Supper, the true meaning of Holy Communion will come to light.

Be especially careful not to refer to the Eucharist as a symbol. Once consecrated the bread and the wine are changed in substance (transubstantiation) into the body and blood of Jesus. The Body of Christ we share is the Body of the risen and glorified Jesus, thus it is a sharing in his resurrection. The Bread that we share and the Cup from which we drink is real food, the Real Presence of Jesus.

If you received First Holy Communion or the Sacrament of Confirmation this weekend – the St. Juliana Falconieri Faith Community is proud because of you! You are courageous. Grow in your relationship with Jesus, be guided by the Holy Spirit in your life, know of the support of this community, and “Glorify the Lord by the way you live your life.” If you are the parent(s) of those who received the sacraments, thank you for your support, encouragement, and trust in the St. Juliana Faith Community. Together we are disciples, intentionally living as the Lord asks us to live our faith. Finally, to those who teach the youngsters and form them in their faith as religious educators, be proud and take courage, we can’t do it without you! To all; be faithful to Jesus who is always faithful to you. God bless.

JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY

Sixth Sunday of Easter

In formal documents, presentations, and homilies outlining the purpose of this Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis explains that compassion and understanding for those in difficult situations is not only our individual responsibility, but something the whole Church officially needs to manifest. Today's Acts of the Apostles reading presents a moving example of the early church doing precisely that. Prayerful openness to the Holy Spirit assures the assembly that they have not acted alone in discerning the correct resolution: "It is the decision of the Holy Spirit and of us." And they have chosen the compassionate response: "not to place on you any burden beyond these necessities" (Acts 15:28). Yet how daringly creative—the Jewish majority sets aside lifelong rituals that establish spiritual identity and express covenant fidelity. How radically trustful—the church affirms universally valid principles while respecting uniquely local and personal situations. Exactly the grace Pope Francis prays this Jubilee Year will renew in today's Church! —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

"THANK YOU" MARSHALL B. KETCHUM UNIVERSITY

The optometry and physician assistant interns from the Marshall B. Ketchum University joined forces again along with their faculty (Dean Judy Ortiz, Dr. Mark Sawamura, and Dr. Judy Tong) to conduct another Vision, Health, & Wellness Screening at St. Juliana's this past Sunday. It was a great opportunity to serve the St. Juliana community. They saw well over 150 parishioners! The turn out only gets better with each year. The ODs evaluated the clarity of vision, eye muscle alignment, color blindness, eye health screening for cataracts, glaucoma, macular degeneration, and diabetes, while the PAs provided blood pressure assessment, blood sugar screening, medication review, and healthy diet and lifestyle education. They can certainly say that they saved the vision and lives of some of our parishioners!

Many thanks!

VOCATION COMMITTEE - ESSAY CONTEST

St. Juliana Vocation Committee sponsored an essay contest, the subject of which was "The Pope Francis List".

Pope Francis believes that by complying with this list, each of us can become a better person. Sixth, seventh and eighth grade students were asked to select three items from this "List", and write about how each could be applied to his/her own life.

Today, the Committee is pleased to highlight the final 1st Place essay -from 6th grader Keira S. Congratulations Keira!

Keira S., 6th grade

Pope Francis Essay

Keira S.

6th Grade: 1st Place Winner

Dear Pope Francis,

My name is Keira and I am in the 6th grade at St. Juliana Falconieri School, which is located in Fullerton, California. We were told that you have ten New Year's Resolutions that will help us live better, holier, and happier lives. I chose three resolutions that have impacted and will impact my life and the lives of others. The three resolutions are simple phrases or sayings that we should learn from and continue to value in our life.

The first resolution I chose was "Don't gossip." I chose this resolution because when you gossip, while it may seem like you have done no wrong, you could actually negatively impact the person you were gossiping about tremendously. Your gossip could make the person cry or feel empty inside, especially if you said something bad about him or her. Your gossip could also make him or her mad enough to start saying bad things about you. It's best not to talk about people behind their backs. We can apply this in our lives by thinking about ourselves, and all of the ways we can be better people, instead of spending time talking about how other people can be better people. If we wouldn't gossip, I definitely think that the world will become a happier place.

In my daily life, I can apply this when talking with friends outside of school. While I might be tempted to start talking about other "mean" people in the class and the children who are "spoiled," I realize that I am just about to enter the "gossip trap," as I like to call it. Instead, I can turn my attention and words by saying, "Do you want to play a game?" or "What do you like best about school?" I also have been the victim of gossiping, because I am sensitive and I try to be "perfect," and other people have chosen to say negative things about this behind my back. I realize that being "perfect" isn't what is important in life; it is being kind to others and not gossiping about them even though you might be angry with a particular person. I think that all of us need reminders in life that we, along with our words, need to be full of love.

The second resolution I picked was "Make it a Habit to 'ask the Lord'." I picked this resolution because it is important to pray. Prayer is something we should do everyday, and especially in times of need. Prayer means asking God to help you and other people, and sharing your thoughts and concerns with Him. It also includes gratitude for all of the good things God has given us. We can apply prayer in our daily lives by going to Church (at least once-a-week), going to adoration and penance, and praying everyday. Daily prayer makes us, and everyone around us, better people, and gives us hope for good things to come.

The Third and final resolution I selected was "Be Happy." This means to me that I should follow the golden rule (Treat others as you would like to be treated). Life is too short to be grumpy. I can apply this in my life by doing something nice for my parents or sister, by responding positively, rather than being put out, when someone asks me for help, and by reminding myself of all of the blessings in my life. I could pick up the tissue on the ground or that candy wrapper, without resenting the person that put it there, being grateful that I could make the earth a better, cleaner place by my actions. Being happy often means putting a smile on your face even in tough times. For example, when my great-grandfather died this past summer, I was sad and cried for a long time. But when it came time for his funeral, I decided to be happy to see my relatives and to celebrate his life. Sadness can overcome happiness at times, but when we are brave and believe, happiness will return and an overcome sadness.

I picked these resolutions because I thought that they were important lessons that I should value and strive for in my own life. Thank you for being such a great teacher of the Catholic faith to us, Pope Francis. I would like to be just a fraction of the person you are. I will continue to listen to your words of wisdom and follow your teachings.

Sincerely,
Keira S.

PARISHIONER AWARDED BY NOTRE DAME

On April 13th, parishioner Jim Kinnane was awarded the Rev. Louis J. Putz, C.S.C Award presented by the University of Notre Dame Alumni Association and the Notre Dame Senior Alumni

Jim Kinnane '57

With this award, Jim was honored for his continued service to Our Lady's University. Jim works tireless volunteer hours for Notre Dame Club of Orange County and has teamed with the Center for Social Concerns and its Summer Service Learning Program. He also coordinates participation in the annual Faley Games, a program similar to the Special Olympics, while remaining very active here at his home parish, St. Juliana Falconieri.

Jim is a loving father and grandfather, he is a full-time caretaker of his wife, Lynn (who has suffered from Alzheimer's for the past 13 years) and a true 'Notre Dame' man—living the mission of doing good in our world.

Congratulations Jim!

We are very proud of you and this prestigious award!
