THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

~ A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M. ~

Marriage continued, part IV.

Previously Joseph and Mary, two Roman Catholics, began their marriage preparation with Fr. Brown. They came to see him because they “got engaged” and wanted a Church Mass wedding. They spoke together – Joseph could not answer Fr. Brown’s question: “Why do you want to get married?” Mary had to volunteer: “Because we love each other.” Fr. Brown got their contact information and sent them off to choose and schedule a date and time for their wedding, to request newly issued baptismal certificates from the parishes of their baptism, to complete the Engaged Encounter Weekend, to look over the Scripture options in the book Together for Life, and to make a few more appointments with him.

Well, Joseph and Mary left the meeting and began searching venues for their reception. A venue and date was chosen, a down payment was given, then they checked with the church and Fr. Brown. Luckily, the date also worked for the church and Fr. Brown. It’s better to ask the church and Fr. Brown before placing a down payment on the reception venue. Mrs. St. Paul, the parish secretary, secured the date and time and put it on Fr. Brown’s calendar. Their big day is ten months away!

Five months have passed, neither the Mrs. St. Paul nor Fr. Brown have heard a word from Joseph and Mary. They haven’t been seen at Sunday Mass either. Fr. Brown decides to send an email to both of them asking them for an update and if they could suggest three dates to meet with him, hoping one will work. A date is set, three weeks into the future. Now, four months remain.

When they meet father asks if they have gotten newly issued baptismal certificates. Neither has. He asks if they have completed the Engaged Encounter Weekend. Never scheduled it, nor did they search possible dates or places. When asked why nothing has been done, father was told: “We haven’t had time.” Mary and Joseph continued that they had “so much to do.” Father heard the litany of activity: meetings (plural) with caterer, selected a photographer and a videographer, florist, heard play lists and put a reservation payment on a live band, interviewed and hired a private wedding coordinator, reserved a block of rooms at a hotel for out-of-town guests, registered at Macy’s, Bloomingdales, and Crate and Barrel, chose bride maids, groom’s men, made plans for showers, and bachelor and bachelorette weekends.

Fr. Brown remained patient for the most part. Then he began his instruction: “Joseph, Mary – marriage is a multi-billion dollar industry. Might I ask how the Roman Catholic Church will fit into your wedding day?” Mary responds: “You don’t understand. We are under a lot of pressure!” Fr. Brown changes his posture. Takes a deep breath, which helps greatly. Opens his collar which helps even more. He gathers himself together and begins, “Really, I do understand and might be able to help. From what you have shared you are coming to your wedding day exhausted, you are being eaten by the consumer society. Take time to pray and discover the place of God in your relationship. Your marriage in the Church is a sacrament. I need to share with you that I too am under some pressure. The Church, not just me or this parish, asks a few things from you and we need to complete those now. You must register for and complete the Engaged Encounter Weekend and get your baptismal certificates or there will be no wedding in the Roman Catholic Church. You will need to meet with the music ministry and wedding coordinator of this parish or you will not have your wedding here.”

Mary snaps: “Oh, really? You are a new pastor here. My whole family has belonged to this church since forever, we were baptized and received all our sacraments here, and we went to grammar school here. My dad has contributed greatly to this parish and the diocese. We have dates planned for showers and parties, all on weekends. It’s impossible, this is ridiculous....”

Joseph asks: “Father, you began with some compassion and told us of what we need to do. Help, how do we begin to accomplish what we need to do before it’s too late?”

Fr. Brown instructs him: “Go to the web page: EEweekend.org and follow the directions. Call the parish of your baptism and tell them to send you or me a newly issued copy of your baptism certificate. Please let me know that you have done these things. Finally, let’s meet each other after the weekend. You will find Ms. Fitzgerald the parish music minister and Ms. Wright the parish wedding coordinator’s contact information in the church bulletin. Contact them and arrange the necessary meetings. Be sure to read and pray over the suggested readings for your wedding Mass. They are in the book: Together for Life that I gave you on our previous meeting. Choose readers for the readings and the Prayer of the Faithful. Now, let’s talk. How have you gotten to know each other and experienced each other since the first time we met?”

They all relaxed a bit. Mary and Joseph agreed that they felt as though they were “anxious and worried about many things.” They talked about their relationship, how they are getting to really know each other, what they share in common, what they expect from each other, and what will keep them together for a life time. Fr. Brown then completed a part of the preparation, the “Prenuptial Investigation,” a questioner to be sure that neither Civil nor Canon Law will be violated with the marriage. The Church preparation work is beginning. Joe and Mary promised to be more on top of the “Church stuff.” They left in peace.

RESPECT LIFE NEWS

PENNIES FROM HEAVEN

Continue saving your pennies and other loose coins now for the Pennies From Heaven Collection which will take place on August 27 & 28. Most parishes in the Orange Diocese have this fund raiser to help fund the 3 Life Centers, the 6 Birth Choice Obria health clinics and the homes for pregnant mothers in need in Orange County. They rely on this collection for their annual operation costs.

Encourage your children too, to save their change during the summer months to help these unborn babies live.

The parish Respect Life Group will be handing out baby bottles August 13 & 14 to take home and fill with these coins. Then return the bottles on August 27 & 28. You can also insert paper money or checks in the bottles for this collection.

We like the "light weight" kind of money too.
Thank you!

JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY

July 24, 2016 - Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

World Youth Day in Krakow: "Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy"

This week, the universal Church focuses in prayerful solidarity on World Youth Day in Krakow, where WYD's founder, Saint John Paul II, served as archbishop. Its theme coincides with that of Pope Francis' Jubilee Year of Mercy: "Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy" (Matthew 5:7). Today's Gospel echoes the same theme, as Jesus unites prayer with mercy in "The parable of the persistent friend." Jesus teaches us not only what words to pray, but what deeds must match authentic prayer. How beautifully down-to-earth is Jesus' portrait of a God who can be trusted to do what is best for us. A pesky neighbor disturbs a sleeping friend and disrupts the household. Yet beautiful images unfold. Persevering prayer receives active, practical mercy in loaves of bread, recalling Luke's unique expression for the Eucharist, "the breaking of bread" (Luke 24:35; Acts 2:42). WYD, the Jubilee, and Jesus thus unite to define perfect prayer as persevering communion with God and unconditional mercy toward our neighbor.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA) - SESSIONS BEGIN IN AUGUST

Summer has been a time to recharge our internal batteries ~ soak up some sun, play golf, go to the beach, spend some relaxing time with family and friends, etc. Summer can be such an enjoyable time to rejuvenate our soul!

Summer is also a time to take stock of our lives. Many of us are in the midst of personal hardships – whether they be financial, spiritual, medical...in the midst of these life difficulties, there often seems to be nothing we can do than to “wait it out” – in effect, surrender to God’s will. While we are waiting, it is prudent for us to spend time taking stock of our spiritual lives. How is your relationship with Jesus these days? Do you turn to Him for strength?...for guidance?... for forgiveness?

Our baptism calls us all to discipleship ~ to follow Jesus ~ but it is pretty hard to follow someone you don’t know or feel any connection with. Be intent about following Jesus. Connect with Our Lord! Do not confuse committed church and social activities with discipleship. We can be very busy with the activity of going to church, volunteering for ministries, making certain our children receive their sacraments, etc...but unless we are intentional about it, taking to heart our responsibility to go forth and be disciples of Christ, aren’t we just spinning our wheels?

Please spend some time this summer reconnecting with Jesus. Pray everyday with purpose. Strive to be an intentional disciple of Jesus. If you or someone you know are searching for a way to connect with Jesus and are interested in being baptized in the Catholic faith or have not completed all Sacraments of Initiation (Eucharist and Confirmation) and wish to do so, please call our Parish Office at 714-879-1965 and ask to speak with an RCIA Team Member. We are gathering a list of names and interviewing candidates now for the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) program that will begin the end of August. We look forward to talking with you and assisting in your discernment.
