THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

~ A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M. ~

Let's return to the Sacraments at the Service of Communion and Mission which are Matrimony and Holy Orders. There are two important questions that we as humans ask ourselves: "Who am I?" and "How do I fit in?" Those two have siblings: "With whom will I share my life?" and "What does it all mean?" Whether one is single, married, or in some consecrated service to the Church, these are significant.

Answer the question: "With whom will I share my life?" and you are either single, married, or at the service of the Church. Oscar was an old forty-one when he married Mildred, herself thirty-eight. Both had never married. Oscar was becoming a confirmed bachelor; set in his ways one might say, had an eccentric whim about him - he was quite comfortable with his "life-style." Professionally he is a lawyer. He had dated seriously. He had good, even moral, relations with women. Mildred just never married. She was always single. She had an enjoyable "life-style" herself. Professionally she is also a trial attorney. The two met as members of the "Bar Association."

Their relationship grew strong and they married.

"What will it mean?" Each realized they will be joyful sharing life together; no longer alone, their lives will take on new meaning. It gives them community, for most, a family. It also gives each one responsibility for the other.

The last sacrament to be considered in our course is the Sacrament of Holy Orders. Like Matrimony, Holy Orders contributes to the building up of the Church community. This sacrament enables the ordained to exercise a "sacred power in the name and with the authority of Christ for the service of the People of God." (Catechism of the Catholic Church)

Notice that the sacrament is called Holy Orders –orders, a plural word. What are the orders? The orders are; first diaconate, then the priesthood, and following priesthood the order of bishop. The bishop is the "fullness of the sacrament of Holy Orders" - he is a legitimate successor of the Apostles. Bishops ordain deacons and priests. The bishop, as the "Chief Shepherd" of a diocese is the "visible head and foundation of unity for the diocese." He is assisted in this ministry by deacons and priests.

The primary, in the sense that it is the first, order is deacon. Each deacon, everyone who receives Holy Orders, is ordained for service to the People of God, which is the Church. Recall that the apostles were burdened by their many tasks that they asked for helpers. In this way the order of deacon began. Today deacons serve the Church by assisting bishops and priests in the celebration of the Mass, bringing Holy Communion to those who cannot be at Mass, assisting at marriages, baptisms, and funerals, the proclamation of the Gospel as well as preaching, and dedicating themselves to many ministries of charity.

Priests are "co-workers of the episcopal order (bishops)." The ordained priest serves (ministers) to the People of God by teaching, divine worship, and pastorally governing.

With Holy Orders the questions might be answered: "With whom will I share my life?" – The People of God. "What does it all mean?" The pursuit of holiness.

In the end, live your life so as to glorify the Lord – whether single, married, or in service to the Church, be His disciple. Wasn't Sr. Mary's talk last Sunday a good example?

The St. Juliana Fall Festival is coming quickly! Thank you, John and Maureen Kohaut for the gift you are to our community. You organize, encourage others, demand others, you are the Fall Festival from beginning to end. I am most grateful to all who volunteer, your time and effort make this event the great success that it is. It takes a community to keep the community vibrant! This year, let's exceed last in every way. Most importantly let's welcome old friends and new members. Be sure you attend the St. Juliana Fall Festival, September 23, 24, 25. Please see the bulletin for more information.

I am thankful for the organizers and supporters of the "Brewfest" event. Your support of St. Juliana Parish Grammar School is most welcome. It takes a community to keep the community vibrant. Thanks!

CORAZON FUNDRAISER

Next weekend Sept. 17th and 18th, our annual fundraiser for Corazon will be held after all the Masses. Members of various St. Juliana ministries including the Knights of Columbus and the High School Youth Ministry, and Corazon volunteers Doug and Jean Knudson will be outside collecting donations to support Corazon. Parishioners at St. Juliana have been helping Corazon build, improve, and repair small houses in Tijuana and Tecate, Mexico for more than 20 years. Your past ongoing generosity is greatly appreciated by the carefully chosen recipients.

This year our goal is to raise enough funds to repair, put new tar paper, and shingles on an existing roof. The cost for the materials is $500.00. The labor is done by Mexicans in the Corazon community. Doug and Jean will also be there to help. Any donation to help meet this goal will be welcome.

In addition, we will be collecting donations towards the scholarship fund. Children in the Corazon communities earn these scholarships by attending tutoring sessions after school at the Corazon community center. There they learn good study habits and skills that make vocational training or college within their reach, thus, ending the cycle of poverty.

Please stop by at the tables after Mass next weekend and see photos of those you help by your donations.

For more information, contact Mrs. Julianna Tapia at jtapia@stjulianaschool.org.

LITURGY OF THE WORD FOR CHILDREN

Our children are a gift from God and as a community that embraces this gift we share the Liturgy with them in an age appropriate way. Sharing the Liturgy of the Word with children offers them an opportunity to meet their heavenly Father and to discover for themselves the riches that lie within the pages of Holy Scripture. We invite all parents to encourage your child to attend this very special children's worship session during the 9:00am Sunday Mass. The children's session takes place on most Sundays and during Mass. The children are dismissed from Mass just before the Liturgy of the Word and culminates with the children presenting the gifts to the priest.

How You Can Help

We are seeking adults and teens to help lead our sessions. You will be trained and mentored through the process so you will become a confident leader.

For more information please call or email Mike McHenry (714)853-1193 or mike.mchenry@stjulianachurch.org
