THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M.

Second Sunday in "Ordinary Time"

In the spring of 1977, beloved Fr. Jude Herlihy, OSM was the Prior Provincial of the US Western Province of Servites, I was a seminarian. I had graduated college; the next year of formation would be the novitiate. But where? After a provincial council meeting, Fr. Jude came to my room and said: "Lad, we are sending you to Begbroke, England (a small village very close to Oxford). You are going to be a novice. Be sure to get yourself some warm clothes and a rain coat, you'll need both." The experience was very good. My novice master and the elements of community were all quite good, even when America would bear the brunt of British humor. There was a lot of food, not much cuisine. The local pub and the pubs of Oxford-shire provided a lot of distraction to the more important matters of life.

In our community of thirteen men was Fr. Philip Allen, OSM who had the habit of finishing nearly all activity with the words, "Well, there you have it" and name the event, as in: "Well, there you have it that was your Christmas, I hope you liked it. There will be another one next year!"

"Well, there you have it that was your Christmas, Feast of the Holy Family, Feast of the Solemnity of Mary the Mother of God, Feast of Epiphany, and Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. I hope you liked it. Now we are in Ordinary Time."

What is so ordinary about time? Most likely the ordinary hours of your day are spent in play, education, work, or retirement then you return to and awaken from sleep. Hopefully time is spent on meals shared, stories told, people encountered and remembered, exploring horizons and teaching ideas, and serving others. We do our best not to make ordinary time b-o-r-i-n-g thus, distractions are sought. The first distraction was not the television and Apple Products are not the last distraction, although a high sugar diet will eventually solve problems! There have always been distractions, amusements, and wasting time. God has given us time as a gift; how do you use it in an ordinary way? Here is another assignment: how much ordinary time do you make sacred and how?

What will you do during ordinary time in the Church year? What does it mean for you to be a Roman Catholic and a member of this community of St. Juliana Falconieri? The opening prayer for the First Week in Ordinary Time included this petition for reflection and action: "O Lord, we pray that (we) may see what must be done, and gain strength to do what (we) have seen." In the extra-ordinary time of Christmas, we saw people – a shepherd and drummer boy, common folks along with noble type wise men journey to the scene where God is revealed in Jesus Christ. They were distracted from their ordinary life, they came and worshiped. I suppose they did that in "awe and wonder." Although "Christmas is over" the One who has been revealed is still being revealed, in his community. In "awe and wonder" He is being encountered by you and me.

Everyone who came to the First Christmas was looking for a deeper relationship with God. What are you looking for when you pray in ordinary ways? How different is the liturgy of the Holy Mass? How is prayer at home different from the community of church gathered for the Holy Eucharist? Is the church building and its community different from a civic auditorium, theatre, stadium, gymnasium, and etc.? How is coming to church different from going to any other place? Do you take notice of the tabernacle and its Sacred Inhabitant, in this church not off in a separate chapel but front and center in the building? How is the celebration of the Mass different from entertainment? Nifty questions. If entering this church and participating in Mass isn't different from the theatre or stadium, what is it?

During Ordinary Time, take time to experience the "Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. The One on whom the Spirit of God rests." Do so in a deliberate way. Make prayer a sacred encounter with God. Make coming to St. Juliana church a sacred experience. Deliberately come to church, during the week for weekday Mass or simply stop for a "visit." On the First Tuesday, our 24-hour day of Exposition, if possible come as a family. Unless it is deliberate it won't be done. Shouldn't being a Christian start with accepting Jesus and the desire for him to transform your life? Shepherds, drummer boys and wise magi thought so. Conversion, living life deliberately, takes time. It takes time to grow into a mature Catholic Christian. Spend this "ordinary time" allowing God to reveal himself to you and you revealing Him to others. Pray that you will "see what must be done and gain the strength to do what you have seen."

"Well, there you have it, that is your work for Ordinary Time." We've only just begun. (Never did like that song.) Christ Be Our Light...try that one!

WINGS WINTER SEASON STUDIES Acts: The Good News of the Holy Spirit Give Yourself a New Year's Gift

WINGS—Women In God's Spirit—one of the oldest and strongest women's groups in the diocese, meets on Wednesdays from 9 to 11 a.m., October thru May, in the St. Martin de Porres Parish Hall.

Women of all ages, and all stages of life, meet weekly to share their faith in Our Lord. We are blessed with talks from weekly guest speakers, who enlighten us on subjects that allow us to grow with, and in God. We are currently in our Winter Season, and the next few weeks will be reflecting on Acts of the Apostles, and The Good News of the Holy Spirit.

WINGS includes women from not only St. Martin de Porres Church, but also from our neighboring Catholic Churches, and extends an invitation for you to come and join us.

Be our guest for a week, and see if you wouldn't enjoy becoming a member. We have free childcare. Light refreshments are provided.

Membership in WINGS is $45 for the remainder of the 2016-17 year. Registration forms can be found in the Church office, downloaded at smdpyl.org, or you can register at the meeting. Contact our WINGS Moderator Becky Curry at wings@smdpyl.org or 714-961-1687 for further information.

GIVING "ON-LINE"

In the world we live in, few of us carry cash or have our checkbooks handy - we use electronic forms of paying for many things. Have you ever considered donating to the Church electronically? Simply go to the parish website at www.stjulianachurch.org and click the blue box titled ON-LINE GIVING, the process is easy to follow. Register and begin on-line giving in 2017!
It's a lot easier than remembering your checkbook. We are most gracious for your on-going generosity.

2016 CONTRIBUTION STATEMENTS

Financial statements verifying your financial gifts to St. Juliana Falconieri and its ministries will be mailed to you by January 31, 2017. The statement will include donations made payable to St. Juliana Falconieri Church, including those for special diocesan collections (except PSA - see more info on PSA below).

The Orange County Catholic Foundation will also be mailing a separate statement to those who have contributed $100.00 or more to the Pastoral Services Appeal (PSA). Please contact the Diocese of Orange if you contributed to the PSA and do not receive a statement.

If you do not currently use pre-printed Sunday envelopes, but wish to begin, please email your request to our Business Manager, Esteban Jimenez at esteban.jimenez@stjulianachurch.org.
