VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M.

How do you celebrate waiting?

What do you do when you are expecting?

How do or did you wait for your child – during pregnancy? How do you wait for the Messiah?

Nifty questions, each of them.

Advent is a season of waiting. Our whole religious and spiritual life is really one l-o-n-g Advent season. Jesus, the savior has been born. Jesus has preached, worked miracles, suffered, and died. God has raised Christ from the dead. So, what are you waiting for? We are awaiting the Second Coming of Jesus, not the birth of Jesus in the manger for the first time. Christmas remembers that Jesus was born. Faithfully we await the return of our Savior. This Advent and our whole faith journey, we wait for the adult Jesus.

There must be some art to waiting. It's called patience. Mostly, I dislike waiting. When I make a restaurant table reservation for 7:30PM, I expect the table to be ready at 7:30PM or close to it. I know their trick: "Your table isn't ready, sir. Would you like to wait in our bar?" Answer this way: "Not really, we don't drink." Funny, the table is ready lick-ity-split. When I have a doctor's appointment for 3:15PM, I expect to have my name called and be shown a room at 3:15PM or close to it. Usually isn't the case. After the appointment time, the nurse takes my blood pressure and remarks that it is elevated. Darn right it is! Try taking it at 3:15PM, before I started fuming, when it was lower!

Waiting is an art that our rather impatient age has forgotten. Perhaps long ago it was better. Today, the billboard signs broadcast, it seems months in advance, the opening of a new movie, the ribbon cutting of a new store, the first day of baseball. Waiting is torture. It began to look a lot like Christmas a week before the first Sunday of Advent. Wait.

What do you do when you are expecting a child, sibling, grand-child to be born? Take a trip back down memory lane. Will you (did you) raise the child of your dreams or your love? What will you (did you) discuss around your tables? Share the story of their births with your children. Don't raise your voice. Laugh and cry as spontaneity allows you.

For that which is profound we must wait. For the opening of the first rose in spring; wait. For the newborn; wait. Just you wait for the cute and cuddly new born to become a toddler, then first day of school, an adolescent, and an adult, finally. Just you wait for that moment when your child will come home tell you: "Mom and Dad – I've found someone I love even more than I love you!"

Advent is celebrated by those who wait patiently. It is also celebrated by those with restless souls who know no peace. They are the ones who know that they are incomplete and restless. They are the ones who sense someone who can set them free is coming.

The One who came and is coming is disguised. The Prince of Peace didn't come wearing a crown; he wasn't dressed with any indication of royalty. Present in clear sight, he was missed. Still is.

How should we wait? Try silence. In silence so you can listen to God. Even see Him. Don't sing, don't bang bells. Sit in silence. Let God have the first word of your day. Allow God to have the last word of your day. Your silence means you are waiting. Wait humbly for Jesus, the savior to make another connection with you.

Silence. "Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silent" – allow silence in your life. Much of what is necessary is unspoken. A lot of what is un-necessary is said aloud.

Celebrate the wait. Be aware that Jesus our savior is coming in all his glory. WOW! Wait in wonder. Oh, Silent Night.

CORAZON NEWS

On Thursday, November 2nd, Aurelia and her family received insulation and drywall in their home in Tijuana. The money for this project was donated by parishioners her at St. Juliana Church on Father's Day. Whether you donated $5, $25, $50 or more, you were a part of this wonderful gift to a family in need.

Aurelia and her family of 4 live in a Corazon house. Her other son and family of 6 live next door. Aurelia was born in Central Mexico, one of 11 children. Her mother died when she was 7. She had to quit school to care for the younger children. Later, she married and had seven children, 2 of whom died. They were very poor and lived on food she harvested from the garden she planted. When there was no rain, they went hungry. So they moved to Tijuana where her husband found work in construction. After her husband died, she joined Corazon and volunteers as the gardening teacher. Although she lives in what we would consider poverty, Aurelia says that life is much better in Tijuana because they never go hungry. And, because of the insulation and drywall you donated, she and her family will not be cold this winter. Aurelia would like to thank you, parishioners at St. Juliana, for caring about her and making each day better. God Bless You!

GIVING "ONLINE"

In the world we live in, few of us carry cash or have our checkbooks handy - we use electronic forms of paying for many things. Have you ever considered donating to the Church electronically? Simply go to the parish website at www.stjulianachurch.org and click the blue box titled GIVING ONLINE, the process is easy to follow.

Register and begin on-line giving today! It's a lot easier than remembering your checkbook. Consider end-of year tax deductions and charitable giving as the 2017 year comes to a close.

We are most gracious for your generosity.
