THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M.

GO FALCONS! St. Juliana Catholic Grammar school begins on Monday, August 21. On the day of a Solar Eclipse! GO FALCONS! As I am writing we are expecting the student enrollment to be 305 eager boys and girls from T-K (Transitional Kindergarten) to Eighth grade. Pray for our administration, teaching faculty, support staff, room parents, and all other supporters – pray in gratitude for them. I appreciate that our parish has a Catholic grammar school and that our Catholic grammar school has a parish. Frankly, it's b-o-r-n-i-n-g without you all on our campus. Welcome back. GO FALCONS!

For the vast majority of Catholics, the experience of what it means to be “church” happens right here on the parish campus. It is here that we are converted ever more deeply to Christ our Savior as together we celebrate the sacraments, serve the otherwise underserved in our community, and are taught the Truths of our faith in various experiences of prayer and faith formation. Each one is a chance to encounter Jesus and his community of believers.

Catholic education, whether in the parish grammar school or through the School of Religious Education and the Confirmation preparation program, is essential to the passing on of our faith. Faith formation compliments what is begun in the family with parents, “the first teachers in the ways of the faith.”

Faith formation begins with the family. Our programs and our formal schooling cannot take the place of the family. In the family the importance and the structure of faith is first introduced and nourished.

The challenge then is that we all work together – parish and school – family and parish – parish school and School of Religious Education – as one community in the purpose of religious conversion, the transformation of minds, souls, and way of life toward God. Through religious conversion a lasting relationship with the Lord and one another is formed. What secular society seeks to destroy, our faith community, dedicated to Jesus and Mary, strong in the Holy Eucharist, and knowledge of the Tradition of our Christian Faith will stand firm.

St. Juliana, our patroness, was a woman of religious community. She founded the Servite Sisters. She gathered them together with the Holy Eucharist and the Blessed Virgin Mary as their center. She was a woman of prayer. She was a learned disciple of Jesus, she understood the faith and practiced what she understood.

St. Juliana, our patroness, was dedicated to Mary, the first disciple of Jesus. Our model and guide remained open to the surprises that God has in store for us every day. He alone invites us to transformation and renewal. As did Mary, Juliana said “Yes” to what God asked of her.

St. Juliana, our patroness, was dedicated to the Holy Eucharist. The True Presence, the Real Presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is real food for our daily life, food for our journey to heaven, nourishment as we live. The Holy Eucharist gathers us, renews us, and sends us forward as we make his presence known in schools, playgrounds, work places, neighborhoods, market places, and homes. Be present to the Holy Eucharist at Mass, even at daily Mass and our First Tuesday of Solemn Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. Stop in the church to make a prayerful visit. Then be present to all people as the Lord is present to you. Before the Lord ALL are welcome.

St. Juliana, our patroness, is an example of one who is a student in the faith. She sought to understand what she said she believed and practiced. Beginning again today, as a community of faith-filled disciples of Jesus, let us learn and practice our faith with reason.

Beginning again today, take time to pray. Pray as individuals, pray as a family, pray in our church, pray before meals, and pray with and for those who ask for prayers. Beginning today, intentionally be disciples of Jesus.

St. Juliana Falconieri Parish is the community of Christ where, as Mary learned, “all things are possible for those who believe.”

School doesn't begin just for our children. Learning and living the faith continues for all of us! GO FALCONS!

INTRODUCTORY INFORMATION

This month we are introducing a new and exciting way for you to support our parish offertory and second collections: Faith Direct. Faith Direct enables parishioners to make your Church contributions through either direct debit from your checking/savings account or through your credit/debit card. No more writing checks or searching for envelopes on the way out the door. Now you can apply the convenience of direct debit to your parish offerings in much the same way as you may now use it to make your mortgage, car or tuition payments.

Faith Direct also offers you personalized offertory cards to replace your envelopes for the collection basket.

Please join in enrolling by responding to the mailing you will receive at the end of the month or visit www.faithdirect.net to enroll securely online.

Our parish code is CA850.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL NEWS

St. Vincent de Paul Ministry is grateful to St. Juliana parishioners for your generous monetary support and food donations. Your charitable giving over the past several months has enabled the Ministry to

- Provide food for nearly 1200 Pantry visitors
- Purchase fresh food to complement food staples donated
- Provide Easter party that many children enjoyed
- Provide gift cards for fast food to homeless friends
- Provide gas cards and bus passes for those seeking employment
- Pay for temporary housing, rental assistance and emergency repairs

Sadly, as many enjoy summer activities and vacations, the needs of our less fortunate neighbors ("Friends") continue. Over the past several months, St. Vincent de Paul has provided emergency help such as

- Assisted single, working mother who also attends college with rent
- Assisted disabled woman with $500 as she waited for her first disability check
- Assisted disabled man with rent because of unexpected car repairs

Many Friends in need ask St. Vincent de Paul for financial help when expenses exceed income due to a crisis. When request is made, a St. Vincent de Paul team visits the home, listens and observes before making a decision to assist. The Ministry also works with other agencies to share costs. Yet, St. Vincent de Paul's fund balance has decreased markedly. We need your help.

Please consider assisting St. Vincent De Paul with a monetary donation. You may

- Write a check to "St. Vincent De Paul," and place it in collection basket or leave it at Parish Office
- Use quarterly St. Vincent De Paul envelopes
- Donate online at www.stjulianachurch.org under "About," then "Donate".

On behalf of the entire Conference, thank you in advance for your generosity and may you keep the St. Vincent de Paul Conference in your prayers as we continue to assist our Friends in need.

Steven Joerger,
President, St. Juliana Conference, St. Vincent de Paul

RESPECT LIFE - NEWS

PENNIES FROM HEAVEN

Please return your baby bottle next weekend with your contribution of coins, paper money, or checks, made payable to RESPECT LIFE ST. JULIANA.

The 12 facilities in the Orange Diocese that provide free services to pregnant women in need depend on this collection for their annual operating costs. Please be generous.

If you didn't get a baby bottle last week just put your coins into a zip-lock plastic bag.
