THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M.

Today, Palm Sunday of the Passion of Our Lord, begins that week we Catholics call HOLY WEEK. This week is THE week of the core of all that Christianity claims.

Or so we say.

This Holy Week, this Easter, I encourage you – grammar, high school, college students, adults, and families to participate fully in the three ceremonies that make up the one celebration of Easter. In particular, Holy Thursday Mass of the Lord's Supper, Good Friday of the Passion of the Lord, and Holy Saturday Vigil/Easter Sunday Mass of the Resurrection; three ceremonies, ONE CELEBRATION. It would be a huge thrill for our small church, compared to most others, to be filled for each of the ceremonies.

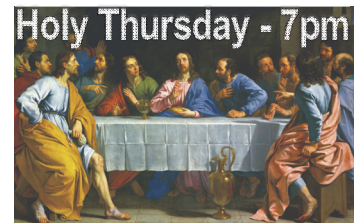

What we celebrate in our church is pretty much what happened to Jesus, God became Man – one of us – when he came to die to show us how he intended us to live – forever. It's the conquering of sin and death that we celebrate as the core of all that Christianity claims.

Where will you be, if not in church?

Once more, I encourage all of you – grammar, high school, and college students, adults, and families to attend the ceremonies here at St. Juliana Parish – most especially Holy Thursday evening and Good Friday afternoon. Make a point to participate in the Great Easter Vigil. It has that title for a good reason! It is G-R-E-A-T, it is filled with the symbols of our faith.

Morning Prayer, not Mass, is prayed each morning; Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday at 8:00AM

Our celebration of Holy Thursday, the Feast of the Holy Eucharist will begin at 7:00PM. Following Mass, the Holy Eucharist will be transferred to the Parish Center for prayer and adoration until 9:30PM

Good Friday, Feast of the Passion of Our Lord will begin at 1:00PM

Holy Saturday Great Easter Vigil – including reception of new members into our faith community – will begin with the blessing of the New Fire at 7:00PM. This is the vigil Mass for Easter Sunday.

Bring hand bells to ring during the GLORIA!
Fill the church with the sounds of bells clanging!

Easter Sunday Masses will be celebrated at 7:30, 9:00, and 11:00AM

Alleluia! He is risen!

Don't let the good works you began for Lent end!

The St. Juliana Fish Fry is the finest in the Diocese of Orange!
Thank you for all you do to make it best. Too bad it has to end.

The offertory collection for Holy Thursday is for St. Vincent de Paul. Thank you for all your kindness to this important ministry.

GOOD FRIDAY

Our parish will support Christians in the Holy Land through the Good Friday Collection. This is a pontifical collection, which is done annually on Good Friday, offering parishioners the opportunity to help protect the Holy Land and Christians living there. During Lent and Easter, our hearts, minds and prayers are especially aware of the special place the Holy Land has in salvation history. Help keep Christianity alive there by helping us serve the people who live there. Please give generously to the Good Friday Holy Land Collection.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

For many centuries, Christian pilgrims have longed to walk in the footsteps of Jesus, and on Passion Sunday the eyes of the world are on the Via Dolorosa, the "Road of Sorrows," in Jerusalem. As soon as it became safe for Christians to worship in public in the fourth century, a way was marked out. It was changed a few times over the years, and today's usual route was sketched by the Franciscans six hundred years ago, although Anglicans and Byzantines have their own unique detours. Friday is the most favored day, although it is crowded then. Almost everyone begins at the Lion's Gate in the Muslim Quarter, and ends at the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. It's less than a quarter mile, but it threads its way through crowded markets with souvenir shops and fast-food snacks. There are, just as in your parish church, fourteen stations along the way. The exact spots are not known, but what matters is the pilgrim's unique ability to see even an ordinary road in a teeming city as something more than meets the eye.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE SECULAR ORDER OF SERVANTS OF MARY

The Secular Order of Servants of Mary consists of lay men and women who choose to intensify their Gospel commitment by following a Rule of Life given them by the Friar Servants of Mary (Servites). This rule encourages them on the path to holiness and the devotion to Mary that the Friars have shared since 1233. You may have seen lay Servites wearing a black embroidered scapular at the St. Peregrine Mass.

Interested persons are warmly invited to an information night on Monday, April 9, 2018 at 7:00pm in the Parish Office. For more information call Pat Riehl, Prioress, at 714-992-4036 or email rrriehl@sbcglobal.net.

TODAY'S READINGS

Gospel at the Procession with Palms -- Jesus' entry into Jerusalem (Mark 11:1-10 or John 12:12-16).

First Reading -- In spite of my sufferings I am not disgraced. I am not put to shame (Isaiah 50:4-7).

Psalm -- My God, my God, why have you abandoned me? Psalm 22).

Second Reading -- Christ emptied himself, and God filled this emptiness with exaltation (Philippians 2:6-11).

Gospel -- The account of Christ's passion according to Mark (Mark 14:1 -- 15:47 [15:1-39]).

The English translation of the Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass (c) 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved.

Passion

The contrast between the processional reading in today's liturgy and the proclamation of the Passion is striking. We are given a glimpse of how profoundly the word of God is fulfilled in Jesus. First he must be hailed as the Messiah, the One who is to come. He must be acknowledged by all, though they do not know what they are saying. They think he is the promised king, a worldly king of the Jews who will free them from the Roman occupation. They do not yet understand, even the disciples, exactly where this triumphal procession is leading. In our lives, we too do not know where we are going. It is in faith that we can follow Christ wherever he may lead us, trusting that death is not the end, nor evil the victor.

Our Fabulous Fish Fry...

What a wonderful time of community fellowship our annual Fish Fry was again this year!

Once again, many thanks to all the 'behind the scenes' people that make our fish fry possible....from the chair-people, the volunteers who set-up tables, decorated, prepared food, cooked, waitresses, cashiered, manned a bar cart, made desserts, bussed tables, cleaned the kitchen, etc... and served with gracious hearts wherever they were needed....thank you all!

Let's do it again next year! See you at Fish Fry 2019.
