THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M

Today, May 12, 2019 is the Fourth Sunday of Easter. It is also Mother's Day. On top of this, today is the "World's Day of Prayer for Vocations." Good glory! The Gospel lesson is the sheep hearing and knowing the voice of Jesus, who gives them not only life but eternal life; the Good Shepherd's voice unifies them, not one will perish. Jesus reminds us today that he and the Father are one and we join in that relationship. Sheep, shepherd, mom, love and service; these all fit together. It doesn't always happen that Mother's Day falls on Good Shepherd Sunday. It does this year.

I was ordained a priest on Mother's Day weekend, 1982. Why not? My ordination day, May 8 in the Servite Order is the Feast of Mary, the Mediatrix of all Grace.

(Many years later I discovered it is the anniversary of the death of Msgr. Terence O'Brien, the founding pastor of St. Juliana Catholic Community.) Sunday, May 9, 1982 was Mother's Day. Italian Moms and their sons are close, listen to St. Luciano Pavarotti sing MAMA. My Mom was my good shepherd. She was also my valet, chauffeur, tutor, and cook. That's service! It's also love.

Mother's Day is not like other holidays. It seems strange to dedicated one day to Moms. Wouldn't it come naturally? In a sense, Mother's Day is contrived mostly by card makers, florists, candy sellers, and restaurateurs. On Mother's Day, Moms usually get taken out. Honestly, I had no better meal than the one my Mom cooked. I enjoyed eating at home, especially Sunday pasta. Often she prepared Mother's Day dinner. It was an act of love. There could be no other reason.

As sheep hear the voice of the shepherd, Mom's voice is special. When she was alive, I phoned her when I had good news to share, experienced a difficulty, had a problem, or was stopped in traffic. Now, without her, my unlimited mobile phone minutes are unused. I listen to the sounds of silence

You won't win a Nobel Prize to say that Moms provide life. Mom's gives birth! It's always her home, she decorates it. Dad and the rest of the family enjoy the home she makes out of the house. In our home it was her kitchen, she prepared the meals. The family gathers around the table when they hear her voice, smell the food cooking, feel lonely, bored, or just get hungry. It's the home and especially around the table where all are one. Because service is love, it's at the table where love and service come together. Food is, after all, served. The family meal, especially the family meal, is THE expression of who we are and how we love one another. At home we have faith that everything will be all right. At home we experience life much differently than we do elsewhere. Our gathering as church is our gathering as a family of faith, united by stories from Scripture and a meal, food for the journey as St. Thomas Aquinas called it. It is faith and love.

Faith and love are two virtues. They are the good that we seek and joy of our find. They are important for the maintenance of the family; the very first society we belong to. The first Christians expressed faith and love in Jesus risen from the dead. Faith and love forms community. These virtues are realized in their presence and missed when absent.

Today we gather as a community of faith and with love to hear the Scriptures and to feast at the Table of the Lord.

Today, priests, Good Shepherds, continue our traditions of life, faith, and love.

Today, Mom's provide traditions of life, faith, and love.

Today, hear that voice that is calling you to life, faith, and love. Today be one family in Christ at St. Juliana. Hear a voice that says: "You love me, serve my Church."

Today, families, love your Moms. Moms, love your family. Phone home. Go home, not empty handed! Bring with you a card, candy, and flowers. Ask if she'll cook. If not, let her make the reservation, it might be her favorite meal! HA.

Pray for Moms and family life. Pray for vocations to religious communities and priesthood.

God bless.

Mary we crown thee with blossoms today

One of the defining aspects of being Catholic is devotion to Mary, Mother of God.

For many of us, the Marian celebration of crowning Mary with flowers in the month of May (recognizing her as queen of heaven and earth) stands as a favored memory.

Thank you to the school children who processed into the church and presented Mary with flowers and a crown this May.
