The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M

My Grandmother taught and believed a lot of aphorisms. I hope yours did the same. One short wise saying was: “All good things come to those who wait.” Usually it was the Italian word: “Aspetta.” Other times: “You just wait until I tell your Mother.” Yikes!

Today’s Gospel lesson issues a command for us to wait until the Advocate comes. The Advocate will teach you and enable you to live not in trouble or fear but in peace; God’s peace. Meditate on those words. Do you ever hear: “Good things will come to those who wait?”

Jesus’ peace is 180° different from the goals of the world.

My guess and bet is that for most of us peace means simply “being unbothered.” As in taking a cruise aboard a ship to get away from it all. That’s not what Jesus meant! And there is nothing in his life to indicate that it does. He dealt directly with his surroundings: disciples who missed the point, Pharisees, and a variety of others who were ready to attack. Jesus’ peace and success leads to Calvary, not Cancun!

The success of Christ offered here at Mass is that of the para-medical on call, the peace and success of the emergency room doctor. It’s the peace of knowing you are doing the right thing even when the going gets really rough. We don’t really like the peace of being unbothered. The worst punishment you can subject one to is solitary confinement; the most un-bothered of all are cemeteries.

Jesus says “the Holy Spirit will come (in the future) and instruct you in everything (you just wait).” He will show us the peace that the world can’t give, peace whose other names are confidence and courage. Well, that’s just great, when will he come?

Psst: He has come. The wait is over! The Reign of God has already begun, but it’s not yet complete. That’s right, the Holy Spirit is here already and he wants to guide your thoughts in the direction of peace if you are willing. He has found some of you too busy with your more important distractions; technology, gossip, and longing for the success of fame and fortune.

You can model Christian discipleship by imitating Christ’s life to everyone you meet. Temporary satisfaction is peace and success offered by the world. Laying down lives for others is how Jesus desired us to live so that we will be in union with him. Today, in the quiet of your soul, to everyone you meet say: “I am here for you.” Jesus has kept his word; he remains in us. Now is the time for us to be with those who have waited to meet a disciple of Jesus. Be Good News for those who still wait to experience it. “Glorify the Lord by the way you live your life.”

Success is spending your life for others. After twenty-five years of seven-day work weeks, Ms. Claudia Kellogg, our organ and piano choir accompanist, is leaving her position with St. Juliana Church. She will continue to minister at St. Juliana School. We are forever thankful to you, Claudia, for your dedication to us in the community, choir, and school. You were present to many families as they celebrated the sacraments, funerals, graduations, and prayerful occasions. Claudia, thank you for serving the community. God bless.

Next weekend, please welcome Ms. Esther Park who accepted the position as organist. A graduate from USC and UCLA schools of music, Esther has many years of experience in the Diocese of Orange. Esther, Mr. Todd Helm, St. Juliana Music director, and I are grateful that you will be with us. Welcome, Esther! God bless.
