VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving,
and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

A NOTE FROM FR. MIKE PONTARELLI, O.S.M

I've substituted this for another topic I wrote. Regarding Kobe, I'm speechless. Read my inarticulation.

Sister told us – the 'triangular box' high in the left corner of the classroom was an 'ear'. Well, it looked like an ear – or a mouth. An old piece of cloth covered a woodcut-out that looked like a face with big ears or two eyes and a mouth. Ha, it's not Rorschach! We were told that all the noise we made in the classroom was listened to by Sister Principal who would come and correct us. Then on Friday, November 22, 1963 it (the 'triangle box') spoke: "President Kennedy has been shot and is mortally wounded in Dallas, Texas. All teachers are to take their students to the chapel." I understood shot, I hadn't a clue as to what "mortally wounded" meant. It was terrible, we moved quickly and the adults were crying. We prayed the rosary. Then we marched into a big room where televisions were on pillars. Walter Cronkite gave the announcement. His voice cracked. Adults cried. Flags were lowered, bugles played "Taps". In huge headlines, the newspaper headlines blared JFK DEAD. Television coverage didn't end. The accused assassin was himself killed live on national television. What a mess. I still tear up. Raw emotions and shock. A young life ended.

That young and beautiful widowed woman and children left without a dad.

C.S. Lewis died that same day, November 22, 1963. A footnote on the obituary page. Noted without emotion.

St. Catherine's served us a hot lunch in the "Mess Hall" every day. Every now and again Major Schmitt made an announcement. On December 15, 1966, he said something like: "Walt Disney, one of your heroes died early today." We paused. I once saw Walt Disney at Disneyland. News headlines were pretty big. No flag lowering and no bugles. Instead, a sad Mickey Mouse.

In time Martin Luther King Jr. and Robert Kennedy were shot dead. St Francis Albert Sinatra, Groucho Marx, Charles Schultz, Shelley Berman, and other inspiring celebrities died naturally. John Belushi, Robin Williams, and others committed suicide. Michael Jackson died a strange death. Astronauts died in disasters. The Space Shuttle Challenger disaster was January 28, 1986. The headlines for each of them varied. Obituaries were informative. Sometimes the flag was lowered with bugles. The death of someone whose career brightened the day naturally brings sadness. Deaths leave holes. We love these folks.

Among athletes, Roberto Clemente whom I admire was killed in a tragic plane accident on New Year's Eve 1972 while bringing food to people in Nicaragua. Following his death, rules for admission to the Baseball Hall of Fame were changed. Major League Baseball gives an annual award in his honor. Never a Pirates fan, I thought Clemente was the real deal. He has not been replaced.

Now Kobe Bryant. For many young people, his is the first death that is close to home – in space, time, and faith. He was one of us. He played his entire career just up the freeway from here. He lived just down the freeway from here. Perhaps we saw him casually. We certainly watched him on the television. We knew him as an amazing and inspiring athlete. We encountered him, although very public we barely knew him. His life was complex, as a team player and husband his life was marked with difficulties. He was a Catholic who went to Mass even on the morning of his death. Reports say that he was at Mass before he played his final game. Psst: he was often at Mass. He attended the parish Bible study.

Last Sunday it wasn't Kobe alone, nine people perished. Parents, children, family. Gulp. That's really sad. They were young. They had futures yet to live. Media won't let the survivors forget our admiration.

My Dad was killed in an accident on July 5, 1964, age forty-five. Just a row or two from my parents' graves is a row of graves of the Traxler family. Nine family members were all killed in an accident at the same time, July 1964. I stop there every time I'm at Holy Sepulcher Cemetery. The memory of that row of fresh graves. Yikes!

Life has quality that goes beyond what we think of as achievement or celebrity status. Since last Sunday many social media posts have carried imperatives directing readers how to live. Don't be a victim of success unlimited. Included among the many posts is the fact that Kobe was a practicing Catholic.

Kobe found Jesus' own imperative, "Come and See" as an invitation he accepted. He encountered Jesus. He loved the Jesus he encountered. He was at Our Lady Queen of the Angels and St. Edwards Parishes frequently. Faith in God has something to offer whatever we mean by "human fulfillment."

The tragic helicopter crash seems so Hollywood. The Mamba Mentality, certainly Hollywood. Church attendance is not mainstream and raises the God question, which is the most important question anyone will ever answer. He wasn't just another victim of the American Dream. What are humans made for? The answer is God. How did Kobe know that? Come and See! Encounter Jesus.

FEB 2ND - WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRATED LIFE

O God, throughout the ages you have called women and men to pursue lives of perfect charity through the evangelical counsels of poverty, chastity, and obedience.

We give you thanks for these courageous witnesses of faith and models of inspiration. Their pursuit of holy lives teaches us to make a more perfect offering of ourselves to you.

Continue to enrich your Church by calling forth sons and daughters who, having found the pearl of great price, treasure the Kingdom of Heaven above all things.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

 Office of Restorative Justice

Listening Session

For Those Who Lost a Loved One by Homicide

People who have lost a loved one to homicide often live in isolation and overwhelming grief. The immensity of such emotional suffering can seem unbearable, leaving loved ones feeling alone or abandoned, including within our church.

Restorative Justice seeks to help heal the relational harm caused by crime and violence that includes providing caring support for those suffering such a tragic loss.

If you are suffering the loss of your loved one due to homicide the Diocesan Office of Restorative Justice would like to learn more about how our church can better serve and support you. We would like to invite you to come and share your personal experience, thoughts, and ideas with us in a safe and caring listening environment.

We will be meeting on February 18th, 7:00 – 9:00pm at:
 Christ Cathedrals Pastoral Center
 13280 Chapman Ave. Garden Grove, CA. 92840

Refreshments will be served. Childcare available if requested at time of RSVP.

RSVP required at: 714-282-4261 or flapuzza@rcbo.org
 Please feel free to contact us with questions.

Due to overwhelming popularity and high demand, Michelangelo's Sistine Chapel: The Exhibition at the Christ Cathedral Campus has been extended through August 2020!

The immersive showcase features museum quality, near-life-size reproductions of the iconic master's 34 frescos that adorn the Sistine Chapel in the Vatican.

Visitors can see this art in a close to life-size, never-before-seen perspective. It's a perfect experience for those who have never been to Rome and want to see the art work AND for those who have been to the Sistine Chapel and want a closer look and to learn more about each fresco.

This is an excellent opportunity for parishioners to experience both the exhibition and the progress made on Christ Cathedral Campus.

Guests can enhance their experience by adding an optional self-guided audio narrative available in 5 languages.

Exhibit times: Weekdays (except Monday) 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Website: sistineexhibit.com
