VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

THIRTY-SECOND

Sunday in Ordinary Time

November 7, 2021

MOVING TOWARD THE END OF HISTORY

This year, it seems the Lectionary's scriptures not only reinforce the Catholic tradition of November prayer for our beloved departed, but also join with nature's storms and the pandemic as well as humanity's violent disasters to remind us that we are moving inexorably toward the end of history, both the world's and our own. Today's Old Testament reading prepares us for a fruitful hearing of the Gospel. The primary challenge set before us is an undoubted faith that prompts the total giving of self. That lesson is offered to us with an urgency matching November's eschatological motif: the End and the Judgment. Two widows are presented, the Old Testament's widow of Zarephath and the Gospel's widow of the temple. Both exemplify faith-filled people who quietly give what they cannot afford: their all, for the glory of God and in the service of others.

GREAT FAITH IS DEMANDED

We quickly come to admire the Old Testament widow whom Elijah asks for help. The Zarephath widow is carrying only "a couple of sticks," to cook her limited resources, "a handful of flour and a little oil," fulfilling her personal responsibility, "for myself and my son" (1 Kings 17:12). Elijah's request demands great faith and self-sacrifice of this poor widow, because providing such life-sustaining care to a "foreign" prophet puts the widow's survival and her son's at great risk: her religion is worshipping paganism's false idol, Baal; her king is father of Jezebel, now wife of Elijah's king Ahab. Elijah is fleeing the death-threatening wrath of both Jezebel and Ahab, whom Elijah infuriated by declaring that God had decreed a drought to punish them for corrupting Israel with Jezebel's Baal-worship. Elijah makes the widow's risk explicit by promising that her flour and oil will not fail by power of "the Lord, the God of Israel (not her god, Baal!)" (17:14). Therefore, faith is demanded both of the one who gives, the widow, and of the one who asks, Elijah.

SELF-SACRIFICING GIFT

Today's Gospel episode takes place just after Jesus enters Jerusalem immediately before his Passion. Trustfully and with self-sacrifice, like Zarephath's widow and the widow whom Jesus sees at the temple, Jesus will give his all for our redemption. Thus Jesus emphasizes of the widow he sees that her gift is unreserved: "from her poverty, all she had, her whole livelihood" (Mark 12:44). And, doubtlessly, Jesus saw himself and his self-giving in her and her self-giving. In Mark's next chapter Jesus predicts the downfall of this very temple. So the widow's unreserved giving from what she could not afford must have struck Jesus both as a victimization by others and, in the end, as a useless gift: the building controlled by the scribes' manipulation was destined for destruction. Her giving became a vivid prefiguring of his own victimization by others in the unreserved giving of his very life, which would seem to many a useless gift, for Jesus would die and be buried. Only Jesus' true disciples—are we?—believe that, by his resurrection, Jesus has become the Cornerstone of the new building, the Church, that replaces that torn-down temple. Therefore, we are to make our own gift of self to God in our unceasing gift of self-sacrificing love to others until Jesus comes again.

Welcome to Becoming Catholic

Our parish will begin the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). Do you know someone who:
Has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?

Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist?

We offer an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith. Sessions will focus on the teachings of the Church, with the goal of fostering a personal relationship with Christ, in order to prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season.

Each year on Holy Saturday during the Easter Vigil, thousands are baptized into the Catholic Church in the United States. Parishes welcome these new Catholics through RCIA.

Inquirers are welcome to participate in the process with their questions, insights, and faith story in a warm accepting setting. Sessions are starting in late November.

To sign up or inquire about this process, contact Deacon Tom Saenz at deacontomsaenz@gmail.com

Dear St. Juliana parishioners,

First of all we would like to congratulate newly ordained Deacon Tom Saenz and Deacon Darrell Miller. Along with Deacon Pete Lauder, we know that you have exceptional Deacons to serve you.

We wish to thank you so much for the wonderful support you have shown Yolande and me over the last 9 years. You welcomed us with open arms and we immediately felt right at home. We have traveled together toward Jesus by celebrating joyous occasions sacramentally in Baptisms, 1st Communions, Mass, Confirmations and Marriages; and difficult times like home visits and funeral services of loved ones. We had great times socializing and dancing with you at the many parish and school events. We've enjoyed working side by side with you in St. Vincent de Paul, Fall Festival and Knights of Columbus. It has truly been an honor to be a deacon in this parish serving the community.

We truly appreciate your friendship, love and generosity. We will definitely miss all of you and you will continue to be in our prayers and hope you pray for us as we begin our new assignment at Our Lady of Guadalupe in La Habra. St. Juliana Falconieri will always be in our hearts. It is always hard to say good bye to a community with whom we have shared so much, so instead we'll say... until we meet again!

God bless,

Deacon Chuck & Yolande Doidge

I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work in you will continue to complete it until the day of Christ Jesus. Phil. 1:6

Farewell Deacon Chuck and Yolanda! May God Bless You!
Thank You for all your hard work and dedication to our community here at St. Juliana Falconieri Church.
