THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God." - Mk 14:23-25

VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

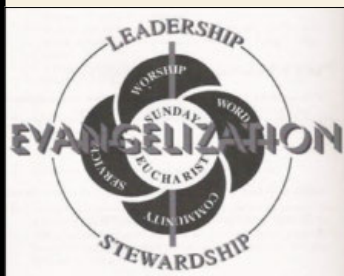

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Saint of the week

Throughout the late 20th century and into recent times, there have been many stories of Chinese Catholic heroism — priests, bishops, and laypeople who have been martyred by anti-Catholic government officials. We remember and honor those who have died for their faith in China.

Prayer of the True Presence

My Lord and my Love —
Bread of Life, nourish me.
Pascal Lamb, restore me.
Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, consume me as I consume you.
Amen.

I share my talents all the time. We all have talents and I want to share mine within my church community. I have a bunch of them. My main three talents are art, reading and the martial arts, mostly in Jiu-Jitsu.

First off with art I like to teach people how to draw art. Sometimes people don't like my art, but I don't bother and you should too. Just because someone else wants to judge everything you do doesn't need to discourage you. It's good to not let people be mean. Which is another talent. To not let people knock you down with words. Because it usually doesn't mean anything and they're just reflecting their insecurity on you. The other thing is to also be kind with it. You may never know what's happening behind the scenes and they may just be going through something, and if you're kind it might unfold a great new friendship.

Now for the second one my main talents are reading. I love to read and it's really fun! I think it can come really easy if you're just reading a book you love. I can share my talent by helping others with difficult words. Books can be boring a lot of times but if you find a series you love, it may change the way you think about reading. By helping others like this you can also give people your time like this. Sometimes I volunteer for my school. For Fish Fry I served food. For the Fall Festival I helped with the funnel cakes.

Now for my last but not least main talent is Jiu-Jitsu. I love doing Jiu-Jitsu and it's probably my favorite thing I do outside of school. I love to help the new kids that go there how things work. I've been doing this for about 8-10 months now and was one of the first people that have trained there and I hope that this community grows. It's been great and I just won 1st place in my first tournament. I love to teach the newer people and try to get other people to try it too, but the best thing about this sport is your teammates! They stand by me with everything and always support you. The gym I go to is Teragi Academy. It shows me how to be a great sport and be patient with others. It's a great environment and I hope that people will like it too!

This is how I show my talents and learn from them, and with that, comes to end with my very long essay!
