VISION & MISSION STATEMENTS

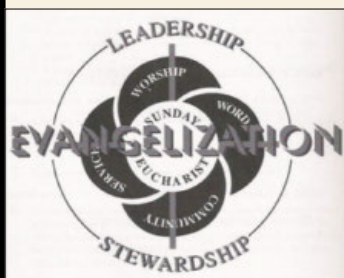

The vision of St. Juliana Falconieri Catholic Community is to live as a people of God with Christ at the center of our lives through liturgy, faith formation and community.

Our mission is to be a welcoming family dedicated to proclaiming the gospel, celebrating the Sacraments, educating, serving, and providing opportunity for all to enrich their faith.

Order of Friar Servants of Mary United States of America Province

THE PARISH AS ONE BODY

*"If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be?
If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?
But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended...
The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I do not need you,' nor again the head to the feet, 'I do not need you.'
Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary.
Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it."* (1 Cor. 12:17-25)

The Seven Essential Elements of Parish Life constantly interrelate, each nurturing and supporting the other with the communal celebration of Sunday Eucharist at the center.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Sin isn't given its due these days. Downplaying sin is dangerous. But there is also another spiritual misstep in which we make way too big a deal out of sin. It happens, for example, when we persistently wonder if our confessed sins are "really" forgiven, or suspiciously ponder what God "really" thinks about us, behind His merciful face. Or when someone returns to Church, and we question whether his or her conversion was genuine. Or when we commit some sin and put on a sad face for days, thinking, "Maybe my sins are too great for God to deal with." God save us from that attitude!

Well, he does just that, this week, in the raising of Jairus' daughter. The dead twelve-year-old's house is filled with a spirit of excessive moaning and groaning, tumultuous weeping and wailing. They even laugh at Jesus in a mocking tone. It's shocking how easy it is for him to raise the dead child. It is equivalent to gently waking a kid from a light nap. And then he sends her off to get some lunch. No big whoop. The overactive drama is actually part of the problem, and removing it is a key part of the miracle.

Friends, sin can and does kill, but Jesus is always ready and able to raise us back to life, often without much hullabaloo. His ease of forgiving should never be a pretext for presumption, minimizing sin, or taking lightly the cost he pays for our sins on the cross. But for God's sake, we often need Jesus to put out the weepers and wailers. He's the Lord. And remember, the girl is not dead, she's just sleeping.

— Father John Muir

The Christmas spirit is in the air. The smell of fresh pines and eggnog is everywhere, lining the streets and bringing the season to life. At home, the aroma of gingerbread and turkey is like a fog, a cloud everywhere you go. But as we sit down to eat and say grace, I remember the true reason of the season, Jesus. Keeping Jesus the center of attention during the Christmas season is very important to my family. We feel that Christmas is more about family than gifts we receive. We prepare our minds and especially our hearts for Jesus' birth by helping the community, participating in school events and preparing our home. In preparation for Christ, we must ready our hearts and focus on the true reason for the season through our community, school, and home.

To begin, spending time with my family at home is just one way to keep Christ the center of our focus during the Christmas season. We decorate cookies together every year to then give to our family and friends. My mom, my siblings, and I get together to bake and decorate and through the quality time we get together, it helps me see Christ's light through all of them. Secondly, we watch movies and have memorable meals together. Through prayer and thanksgiving Christ is clearly present in our family. Finally, on Christmas Day, we open presents together. It has taught me to be grateful for everything I have, especially the Lord and my family. Counting my blessings has really shown me how important it is to focus on the birth of Christ during Advent.

To continue, we keep Christ in our hearts by setting up a Nativity and Mary and Joseph's journey in religion class. It focuses on the hardships of the journey to Bethlehem to help us better understand Jesus' life. Our school also participates in St. Vincent de Paul. It helps me remember Jesus by helping my family and I to be grateful for everything we have. Lastly, by participating in our annual Advent program, I have become a leader and helped portray Mary and Joseph's journey to Bethlehem. By participating in the Advent Program it has helped the younger generations understand the true meaning of Christmas as we celebrate the birth of Christ. By reflecting on these three things, it helps us ensure that Jesus is our main focus during Advent.

Subsequently, helping our community is one of the best ways to serve the Lord during Christmas. Homeless shelters, Food Kitchens, and churches set up many events for people to participate in. This year, I volunteered at Christ Cathedral for four hours to spread Christmas spirit to others. Furthermore, I also donate toys for tots of Goodwill which helps me realize how lucky I am. Finally, we help the homeless in one more way by donating clothes. It gets quite cold during the winter so whenever I have an opportunity, I'll give away any clothes I don't need anymore. By participating in these events, it gives others hope during the Christmas season, which not only spreads Christmas cheer but Jesus' love.

In conclusion, my environment of a wonderful home, supportive school, and helpful community, has helped me prepare for the birth of Christ. By counting my blessings, it has really helped me prepare more for the birth of Christ. I reflect on family, friends, past experiences, and of course giving grace to God. Participating in charitable events has really helped me become more grateful for everything I have. Though gift giving, decorating, and celebrating is from the true joy of Christmas comes from the celebration of the birth of Christ.
